A Hundred Osamas: Islamist Threats and the Future of Counterinsurgency, 2005 The future of the Global War on Terror is now and may continue indefinitely to be a key concern for the U S military and policy makers Islamist terror has not arisen from a vacuum but has evolved over decades and requires more calibrated coordination and a different type of strategic planning than other types of conflicts The author of this monograph Dr Sherifa Zuhur examines the intensity and diversification of extremist efforts and outlines their new jihad and its relationship to the regeneration of extremist leadership She reviews lessons learned with regard to Islamist extremist tactics recruitment and their relationship to a broader Islamic awakening that must be factored into the U S desire for democratization of the Middle East and the broader Islamic world The Strategic Studies Institute is pleased to offer this monograph as a contribution to the national security debate on this important topic

African Evangelicalism and the Transformation of Africa Jacob K. Olupona, 2025-03-03 A critical examination of the impact of Evangelical Christianity on African societies today Evangelical Christianity's presence is increasing exponentially in African states and is exercising significant influence in virtually all spheres of life African Evangelicalism and the Transformation of Africa is a comprehensive and interdisciplinary study of the impact of Evangelical Christianity on Africa It examines the social cultural political and economic forces at play and its essays address Evangelical subjectivity and identity formation in Nigeria Kenya the Democratic Republic of Congo and other nations Its contributors also reflect on ways that the African diaspora and transnational ties have contributed to the makeup of contemporary African Evangelicalism Readers will gain a deeper understanding of how Evangelical Christianity is transforming both public and private life in Africa today Patterns Legitimizing Political Violence in Transcultural Perspectives Bettina

Koch,2015-05-19 This volume explores theoretical discourses in which religion is used to legitimize political violence It examines the ways in which Christianity and Islam are utilized for political ends in particular how violence is used or abused as an expedient to justify political action This research focuses on premodern as well as contemporary discourses in the Middle East and Latin America identifying patterns frequently used to justify the deployment of violence in both hegemonic and anti hegemonic discourses In addition it explores how premodern arguments and authorities are utilized and transformed in order to legitimize contemporary violence as well as the ways in which the use of religion as a means to justify violence alters the nature of conflicts that are not otherwise explicitly religious It argues that most past and present conflicts even if the discourses about them are conducted in religious terms have origins other than religion and or blend religion with other causes namely socio economic and political injustice and inequality Understanding the use and abuse of religion to justify violence is a prerequisite to discerning the nature of a conflict and might thus contribute to conflict resolution

Why God Needs War and War Needs God Mark Juergensmeyer,2020-05-05 For decades Mark Juergensmeyer has been studying the rise of religious violence around the world including groups like ISIS and Christian militias that have been involved in acts of terrorism Over the years he came to realize that war is the central image in the worldview of virtually every religious movement engaged in violent acts Behind the moral justification of using violence are images of great confrontations of war on a transcendent scale Why God Needs War and War Needs God explores the dark attraction between religion and warfare Virtually every religious tradition leaves behind it a bloody trail of stories legends and images of war and most wars call upon the divine for blessings in battle This book finds the connection between religion and warfare in the alternative realities created in the human imagination in response to crises both personal and social Based on the author s thirty years of field work interviewing activists involved in religious related terrorist movements around the world this book explains why desperate social conflict leads to images of war and why invariably God is thought to be engaged in battle

He Was Our Man in Washington Owen Symes,2021-04-30 Owen Symes is a rising young star who has created a masterful social history of the Obama years The clarification of Obamacare and other policies for health and human services is especially helpful As we move forward Symes s analysis helps us shed our illusions so we can avoid making the same mistakes all over again Howard Waitzkin Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Sociology University of New Mexico He Was Our Man in Washington provides a detailed narrative of the years of the Obama administration gravitating around six key topics the War on Terror the Great Recession marginal struggles the Affordable Care Act climate change and Indigenous issues that sit at the intersection of the other topics Each chapter begins with a brief account of the historical context within which the Obama administration acted The result is a fair minded but highly critical interpretation of president Obama and his brand of hope and change grounded in a reality that goes beyond mere headlines Epicenter Joel C. Rosenberg, 2006

10 new predictions about the state of affairs in the Middle East from the best selling author of The Copper Scroll Dead Heat Joel C. Rosenberg, 2008 2009 Retailer's Choice Award winner The stage is set for war Oil prices are surging to record highs A new dictator is rising in Iraq China is threatening Taiwan North Korean forces appear ready to strike south Israel is feverishly trying to complete the Third Temple And in the midst of a world ready to explode American president James MacPherson's second term is ending The battle to succeed him is heating up into the most fiercely contested presidential election in American history Who will lead a bitterly divided country over the next four years And just what role if any does the US play in history's last days As the presidential campaign narrows to a dead heat the Secret Service learns of a catastrophic terrorist plot to assassinate one of the candidates but which one Whom do they want dead And can US forces stop the terrorists before millions lose their lives From New York Times best selling novelist Joel C Rosenberg this explosive political thriller is sure to provoke discussion along with fervent hopes that this frightening vision of the future will not come true Fighting the Last War Jeffrey M. Bale, Tamir Bar-On, 2024-01-24 The authors argue that the potential threat of a resurgence of fascism has been consistently exaggerated from 1945 until present day that the ongoing lack of conceptual and definitional clarity with respect to terms like fascism the radical right the alt right white supremacism populism racism etc has enabled ill informed or dishonest commentators to distort their meaning and abusively misapply those labels so as to delegitimize their political opponents and that the political and economic elites in charge of contemporary Western societies are now deliberately exaggerating and exploiting the threat posed by the domestic radical right in order to facilitate vilifying harassing deplatforming censoring canceling and repressing disgruntled citizens no matter where they may lie along the political spectrum who openly criticize and vigorously oppose their agendas The authors also advocate the use of well established scholarly methods for carrying out research on the right and provide precise definitions of various terms in order to facilitate the development of more accurate categorizations Perspectives in Religious Studies: Volume III Adelowo, E. Dada, 2014-08-23 Perspectives in Religious Studies is in three Volumes It is a product of expertise of specialists from universities in Nigeria and abroad The book is a response to the lack in Nigerian universities of relevant books in the various branches of Religious Studies Topics covered by the volumes include Church History Philosophy of Religion Islamic Studies generally Biblical Studies History of Religions Comparative Religion African Traditional Religion Sociology of Religion Ethics and Phenomenology of Religion
