

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	None
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they built?	They would certainly gain access to rockets that were better. They would also have delivery of the atomic bombs directly to the U.S.	They were worried about being in danger of being destroyed because of the U.S. knowledge that both sides would develop rockets, planned attacks, and conduct all kinds of dangerous space wars.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not if the agreement was made.	Others might be tempted to make their own satellites and also challenge.
4. Would the two nations agree to work together?	Yes, the governments could be stronger if they had a common strategy.	Yes, because people were disappointed and would not take a leadership like this.

2. Suppose the agreement is signed in the following way, however:

“The United States would make satellites.”

“The Soviet Union would make rockets and satellites.”

“Neither country.” “No government has the right to force another.”

“We would like to work together, but that just means we’d be enemies.”
