issue is guaranteed to keep you in your seat for hours at a time perfect for those long summer days on the porch Us Conductors Sean Michaels, 2015-10-06 Winner of the 2014 Scotiabank Giller Prize Us Conductors takes us from the glamour of Jazz Age New York to the gulags and science prisons of the Soviet Union On a ship steaming its way from Manhattan back to Leningrad Lev Termen writes a letter to his one true love Clara Rockmore telling her the story of his life Imprisoned in his cabin he recalls his early years as a scientist inventing the theremin and other electric marvels and the Kremlin's dream that these inventions could be used to infiltrate capitalism itself Instead New York infiltrated Termen he fell in love with the city's dance clubs and speakeasies with the students learning his strange instrument and with Clara a beautiful young violinist Amid ghostly sonatas kung fu tussles brushes with Chaplin and Rockefeller a mission to Alcatraz the novel builds to a crescendo Termen's spy games fall apart and he is forced to return home where he's soon consigned to a Siberian gulag Only his wits can save him but they will also plunge him even deeper toward the dark heart of Stalin's Russia Us Conductors is a book of longing and electricity Like Termen's own life it is steeped in beauty wonder and looping heartbreak Canada's Storytellers | Les grands écrivains du Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2021-03-24 For over three quarters of a century the Governor General's Literary Awards have been awarded annually in a variety of evolving categories Fifteen Governors General have served as their patron The impressive list continues to grow apace between 1936 and 2018 the awards recognized 719 books in English and French and have been presented to 580 authors illustrators and translators This beautifully illustrated bilingual compendium presents the biographies of all 580 award laureates many accompanied by stunning archival portraits This is the final instalment in Andrew Irvine's remarkable and comprehensive research into what has become a touchstone of Canada's literary culture Together with Canada's Best and The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada A Bibliography this work provides readers with a definitive overview of this literary prize By itself Canada's Storytellers is an invaluable reading companion for anyone wanting to be introduced to many of our most influential authors illustrators and translators working in both French and English over the past decades It belongs on the shelf of every enthusiast of Canadian literature Bilingual edition Sonic Time Machines Wolfgang Ernst, 2025-10-01 Our studies of aesthetics and knowledge have long tended to privilege the visual at the expense Wolfgang Ernst argues of the aural Sonic Time Machines aims to correct that presenting a striking new approach to theorising sound that investigates its split existence as a temporal effect in a techno-cultural context and as a source of knowledge and information Ernst creates a new term for the concept at the heart of the book sonicity a flexible and powerful term that allows him to consider sound with all its many physical philosophical and cultural valences Do You Remember Being Born? Sean Michaels, 2025-07-29 Timely and lovely The New York Times Stunningly compelling The Walrus Scotiabank Giller Prize winner Sean Michaels' luminous new novel takes readers on a lyrical joy ride through seven epic days in Silicon Valley with a tall formidable poet inspired by the real-life Marianne Moore and her unusual new collaborator a digital mind just one month old It's both a love letter to and an aching examination of art making family identity and belonging Dear Marian the letter from the Company begins You are one of the great writers of this century At 75 Marian Ffarmer is almost as famous for her signature tricorne hat and cape as for her verse She has lived for decades in the one bedroom New York apartment she once shared with her mother miles away from any other family dedicating herself to her art Yet recently her certainty about her choices has started to fray especially when she thinks about her only son now approaching middle age with no steady income Into that breach comes the letter an invitation to the Silicon Valley headquarters of one of the world's most powerful companies in order to make history by writing a poem Marian has never collaborated with anyone let alone a machine but the offer is too lucrative to resist and she boards a plane to San Francisco with dreams of helping her son In the Company's serene and golden Mind Studio she encounters Charlotte their state of the art poetry bot and is startled to find that it has written 230 442 poems in the last week though it claims to only like two of them Over the conversations to follow the poet is intrigued confused moved and frightened by Charlotte's vision of the world by what it knows and doesn't know Do you remember being born it asks her Of course Marian doesn't but Charlotte does This is a relationship a friendship unlike anything Marian has known and as it evolves and as Marian meets strangers at swimming pools tortoises at the zoo a clutch of younger poets a late night TV host and his synthetic foam set she is forced to confront the secrets of her past and the direction of her future Who knew that a disembodied mind could help bend Marian's life towards human connection that friendship and family are not just time eating obligations but soul expanding joys Or that belonging to one's art means above all else belonging to the world

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Mountain City Girls Anna McGarrigle, Jane McGarrigle, 2015-11-10 The first book and definitive family memoir from Anna and Jane McGarrigle sisters to Kate McGarrigle and aunts of Rufus and Martha Wainwright This book is truly a classic in the making The McGarrigles are known around the world for their touching insightful songs about love loss and family But where and how does a family so rich in musical luminaries take root In Mountain City Girls Anna and Jane recount their childhood in Montreal and the Laurentian Mountains and go further back to their ancestors early days in Canada and their parents courtship and marriage A vivid snapshot of coming of age in the 1950s the book recounts the sisters school days and rebellious teenage antics and their beginnings as musicians It takes us through the vibrant folk music circuit of the 1960s in Montreal and New York City and the burgeoning social movements of San Francisco and ultimately leads to the formation of the folk music duo Kate and Anna McGarrigle revealing the genesis behind some of their beloved songs and following their early days recording and performing The book also reads as a tribute to Kate who passed away in 2010 with insights into her character and creative development Inspiringly it speaks to the important sometimes lifesaving role of sisters and is a deeply moving testament to the profound importance of family Charming and witty interspersed with lyrics and photos this book captures the McGarrigles lives idiosyncratic upbringing and literary and musical influences No one can tell the story of the McGarrigles better than Anna and Jane or in such an inimitable intimate way

The Wagers Sean Michaels, 2020-01-21 From Giller Prize winning author Sean Michaels The Wagers is a wild and magical novel about what it means to not only chase luck but find it When Theo Potiris performed his stand up comedy act on Conan at 25 he thought he'd hit it big But ten years later he's still spending his days working at his parents grocery store bicycling to the local open mic and writing letters to a girlfriend who lives halfway around the world Theo's desperate for a break But when he brings his thirteen year old niece to the horse track to place a birthday bet a Potiris family tradition the goddess of good luck strikes her instead in the form of a small fortune Try as he might to be happy for her Theo's shock and envy finally push him out of the family nest away from his comedy dreams and toward a new calling First a mysterious corporation called The Rabbit s Foot which carefully quantifies and cashes in on luck Then to a gang of vigilantes who recruit Theo to help them steal luck from those who carry more than their fair share The Wagers is a literary motorcycle chase carried by stylish prose and delightful invention But it s also an investigation of work and purpose happiness and art the randomness of good fortune and all the ways we choose to wage our lives Britannica
