Personal Finance Economics - (ECONPH) Creditworthiness, (ECONPH) Risk-Management, (ECONPH) Savings

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Teacher Name: Heather Greiner

Score: _____

1) What is the relationship between credit and debt?

- A) Assuming debt means more credit will be extended.
- B) Being extended credit means debt has been assumed.
- C) Credit must be extended before debt can be assumed.
- D) Debt must be assumed before credit can be extended.

Explanation:

Credit must be extended before debt can be assumed, just because credit is extended does not mean debt is assumed; the borrower must use the credit before it becomes a debt. Likewise, assuming debt does not automatically mean more credit will be extended.

2) Which of these is the BEST example of debt?

- A) A person buys a new car.
- B) A person pays interest on a mortgage.
- C) A person deposits a paycheck into a savings account.
- D) A person withdraws money from a bank account using an ATM card.

Explanation:

An example of debt is when a person pays interest on a mortgage. Debt is a financial obligation to repay a loan, while credit is the amount a borrower may use. Furthermore, yes, that more though most people pay for cars in installments, many do pay cash for the entire value of the automobile and do not go into debt in the process.

3) Which of these factors should consumers research FIRST when they receive a credit card offer with a low introductory rate?

- A) the APR after the introductory period expires
- B) the cash advance features offered by the bank
- C) the type of card, such as secured, regular, or premium
- D) the availability of special programs, such as "cash back" programs

Explanation:

Consumers should research the APR after the introductory period expires of any credit card offer with a low introductory rate.

4) Sam receives a credit card offer in the mail. The offer contains a low introductory rate. Although all of these are important factors, which of these should be investigated FIRST before accepting the offer?

- A) the cash advance and ATM features
- B) the APR after the introductory period expires
- C) the type of card, such as secured, regular or premium
- D) availability of special programs, such as frequent flyer miles

Explanation:

Sam should investigate the APR after the introductory period expires because the initial APR often increases after a set period of time. Other useful about most features of a credit card offer are given in a disclosure box that most appear in all credit card solicitations.

your performance and see if you need to study and practice more or if you're already prepared enough to achieve success on your test day. If you do well on the practice test then you know you're prepared. If you struggle on the practice test then you know you may still have more work to do to get prepared. Taking lots of practice tests helps ensure that you are not surprised or disappointed on your test day. Our Nurse Aide Exam Practice Questions give you the opportunity to test your knowledge on a set of questions. You can know everything that is going to be covered on the test and it will not do you any good on test day if you have not had a chance to practice. Repetition is a key to success and using practice test questions allows you to reinforce your strengths and improve your weaknesses. Detailed answer explanations are also included for each question. It may sound obvious but you have to know which questions you missed and more importantly why you missed them to be able to avoid making the same mistakes again when you take the real test. That's why our Nurse Aide Exam Practice Questions include answers.
