

VERIZON DELIVERS ON THE VERIZON PROMISE

“When disaster struck America on September 11th, the Verizon Promise didn’t tell us exactly what to do at every minute and in every situation, but it gave us the goals and it gave us the inspiration. Those on-the-spot decisions have to be made by instinct, and that’s where the strength of your values as an organization really gets tested. I am humbled by the way our values — our absolute commitment to serving customers and the community — guided us in everything we did.”

Chuck Lee, Chairman and Co-CEO, Verizon

“Verizon has really done a tremendous job to get service back. I can’t express to you how appreciative we are of what they’re doing, including taking some real risks in order to make sure that we have at least emergency service, and that we keep our telephone service.”

Rudolph Giuliani, Former Mayor, New York City

“Inside our firm, we refer to Verizon as our business partner. We saw the true meaning of partnership over the last ten days in your employees’ every word and deed.”

Bill Harrison, Chairman, J.P. Morgan Chase

“To the Verizon employees who sifted through the rubble, climbed through windows, hung wires through hallways and streets and worked till your fingers bled... Thank you.”

Verizon Employee Email

“It was a Herculean job on the part of the men and women of Verizon. I can’t say enough about the wonderful Verizon people on the line who worked continuously, 24/7, from September 12th until the New York Stock Exchange re-opened September 17th.”

Dick Greco, Chairman & CEO, NYSE

“I was a soldier and have seen troops in the field. I can recognize commitment to getting a tough job done. I can sense a genuine pride in the mission and sincere spirit in carrying it out. I saw all of these things in the Verizon employees toiling on the street, in the rubble and in the vaults. It made me immensely proud to be in the communications field.”

Michael Powell, Chairman, Federal Communications Commission

“We lost some humanity here Tuesday. So I’m just trying to get my hands dirty here. Do my share. We’re all trying to get a little of that humanity back.”

James Ladich, Technician at Ground Zero
