Contemporary Latina/o Media Arlene M. Dávila, Yeidy M. Rivero, 2014 The cultural politics creating and consuming Latina o mass media Just ten years ago discussions of Latina o media could be safely reduced to a handful of TV channels dominated by Univision and Telemundo Today dramatic changes in the global political economy have resulted in an unprecedented rise in major new media ventures for Latinos as everyone seems to want a piece of the Latina o media market While current scholarship on Latina o media have mostly revolved around important issues of representation and stereotypes this approach does not provide the entire story In Contemporary Latina o Media Arlene D vila and Yeidy M Rivero bring together an impressive range of leading scholars to move beyond analyses of media representations going behind the scenes to explore issues of production circulation consumption and political economy that affect Latina o mass media Working across the disciplines of Latina o media cultural studies and communication the contributors examine how Latinos are being affected both by the continued Latin Americanization of genres products and audiences as well as by the whitewashing of mainstream Hollywood media where Latinos have been consistently bypassed While focusing on Spanish language television and radio the essays also touch on the state of Latinos in prime time television and in digital and alternative media Using a transnational approach the volume as a whole explores the ownership importation and circulation of talent and content from Latin America placing the dynamics of the global political economy and cultural politics in the foreground of contemporary analysis of Latina o media Telecommunications: Enhanced Data Collection Could Help FCC Better Monitor Competition in the Wireless Industry Mark Goldstein, 2011-05 Americans increasingly rely on wireless phones with nearly 40% of households now using them primarily or solely Under federal law the FCC is responsible for fostering a competitive wireless marketplace while ensuring that consumers are protected from harmful practices This report discusses changes in the wireless industry since 2000 stakeholders perceptions of regulatory policies and industry practices and the strategies FCC uses to monitor competition To conduct this work the report conducted case studies in both rural and urban areas of four states and interviewed stakeholders representing consumers local and state agencies and officials and various segments of
