Birkenstein,Robert C. Hauhart,2021-03-10 In Connections and Influence in the Russian and American Short Story editors Robert C Hauhart and Jeff Birkenstein have assembled a collection of eighteen original essays written by literary critics from around the globe Collectively these critics argue that the reciprocal influence between Russian and American writers is integral to the development of the short story in each country as well as vital to the global status the contemporary short story has attained This collection provides original analyses of both well known Russian and American stories as well as some that might be more unfamiliar Each essay is purposely crafted to display an appreciation of the techniques subject matter themes and approaches that both Russian and American short story writers explored across borders and time Stories by Gogol Dostoevsky Turgenev Chekhov and Krzhizhanovsky as well as short stories by Washington Irving Faulkner Langston Hughes Richard Wright Ursula Le Guin Raymond Carver and Joyce Carol Oates populate this essential multivalent collection Perhaps more important now than at any time since the end of the Cold War these essays will remind readers how much Russian and American culture share as well as the extent to which their respective literatures are deeply intertwined

Rewriting Moses Brian Britt,2004-08-01 Exalted for centuries as a hero and author of the Bible Moses is inseparable from biblical tradition itself Moses is also an inherently ambiguous figure and a perennial focus of controversy from ancient disputes of priestly rivalry to modern issues of class gender and race In Rewriting Moses Brian Britt analyses elements of polemic and ideology in the Moses of the Bible of film novel visual art and scholarship He argues that the biblical Moses lives within writing while the post biblical Moses lives more often in biography Yet later rewritings of Moses refract biblical traditions of writing in surprising ways Rewriting Moses provides an original account of the Freudian insight that traditions preserve what they repress This is volume 14 in the Gender Culture Theory series and is volume 402 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament Supplements series Best Short Stories ,1929 The Best Short Stories of ... and the

Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1929      The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1926      Education in Hegel Nigel Tubbs,2011-10-20 In this wide ranging and compelling set of essays Nigel Tubbs illustrates how a philosophical notion of education lies at the heart of Hegelian philosophy and employs it to critique some of the stereotypes and misreadings from which Hegel often suffers With chapters on philosophical education in relation to life and death self and other subject and substance and to Derrida and Levinas in particular Tubbs brings Hegelian education read as recollection to bear on modern social and political relations He argues in sum that Hegelian philosophy comprehended in terms of education yields a theory of self and other that can inform and reform relations between rich and poor West and East Finally the book addresses the most controversial aspect of any defence of Hegel namely the comprehension of the absolute and its imperialist implications for Western history The author argues passionately that through a notion of philosophical education Hegel teaches us not to avoid the dilemmas that are endemic to modern Western power and mastery when trying to comprehend some of our most pressing human concerns      The Tales of Conan the Barbarian (A Collection of Short Stories) Robert E. Howard,2015-02-12 These early works by Robert E Howard were originally published in the early 20th century and we are now republishing them with a brand new introductory biography The Tales of Conan the Barbarian is a compilation of Howard s stories in the Conan series and include Beyond the Black River Black Colossus Queen of the Black Coast and many more Robert Ervin Howard was born in Peaster Texas in 1906 During his youth his family moved between a variety of Texan boomtowns and Howard a bookish and somewhat introverted child was steeped in the violent myths and legends of the Old South At fifteen Howard began to read the pulp magazines of the day and to write more seriously The December 1922 issue of his high school newspaper featured two of his stories Golden Hope Christmas and West is West In 1924 he sold his first piece a short caveman tale titled Spear and Fang for 16 to the not yet famous Weird Tales magazine Howard s most famous character Conan the Cimmerian was a barbarian turned King during the Hyborian Age a mythical period of some 12 000 years ago Conan featured in seventeen Weird Tales stories between 1933 and 1936 which is why Howard is now regarded as having spawned the sword and sorcery genre The Conan stories have since been adapted many times most famously in the series of films starring Arnold Schwarzenegger      The Affair of the Veiled Murderess Jeanne Winston Adler,2011-03-01 Troy New York 1853 Two Irish immigrants a man and a woman die shortly after drinking beer poured by a neighbor Was it poisoned And if so was their slayer the beautiful mistress of an important Democratic politician Many Trojans soon answer yes to both questions but others question the guilt of the glamorous accused Rumored to be the once respectable Miss Charlotte Wood a former student at Emma Willard s elite Troy Female Seminary and the runaway wife of a British lord her identity remains in doubt and the air of mystery is only heightened by her decision to remain hidden behind a veil during her trial which earns her the nickname The Veiled Murderess As the affair widens to include the antebellum social and political worlds of Troy and Albany the blossoming
