What is a soap? Andrea Rieger, 2002-01-23 Seminar paper from the year 1997 in the subject Communications Movies and Television grade gut University of Graz Fachbereich Literaturwissenschaften course Soap Operas language English abstract A soap opera is a serialized drama which runs for 52 weeks of the year with continuous storylines dealing with domestic themes personal or family relationships and a limited running characters Soap operas or serials are open ended Soap operas are one of the few genres where weddings for instance are not a happy ending but the beginning of a marriage that may be troubled or even doomed to failure A dramatic program usually presented daily with continuing characters and multiple plots The action which deals with contemporary problems and their solutions continues from episode to episode called soap opera because many of the original sponsors were soap manufacturers Also called daytime drama soap and soaper Television soap operas are long running serials concerned with everyday life The serial is not to be confused with the series in which the main characters and format remain the same from program to program but each episode is a self contained plot In a serial at least one storyline is carried over from one episode to the next A series is advertised as having a specific number of episodes but serials are potentially endless These definitions can be seen as a sort of introduction to the whole field of soap operas In the following chapters I will deal with this topic in detail
