Dying: What Happens When We Die? Evan Thompson,2014-09-02 In the ancient Indian epic Mahabharata the Lord of Death asks What is the most wondrous thing in the world and his son

answers It is that all around us people can be dying and we don't believe it can happen to us This refusal to face the inevitability of death is especially prevalent in modern Western societies We look to science to tell us how things are but biomedicine and neuroscience divest death of any personal significance by presenting it as just the breakdown of the body and the cessation of consciousness The Tibetan Buddhist perspective stands in sharp contrast to this modern scientific notion of death This tradition conceives dying not as the mere termination of living processes within the body but as a rite of passage and transformation of consciousness Physical death in this tradition initiates a transition from one of the six bardos in between states of consciousness to an opportunity for total enlightenment In Dying What Happens When We Die Evan Thompson establishes a middle ground between the depersonalized scientific account of death and the highly ritualized notion of death found in Tibetan Buddhism Thompson's depiction of death and dying offers an insightful neurobiological analysis while also delving into the phenomenology of death examining the psychological and spiritual effects of dying on human consciousness In a trenchant critique of the near death experience literature he shows that these experiences do not provide evidence for the continuation of consciousness after death but also that they must be understood phenomenologically and not in purely neuroscience terms We must learn to tolerate the ultimate ungraspability of death by bearing witness to dying and death instead of turning away from them We can learn to face the experience of dying through meditative practice and to view the final moments of life not as a frightening inevitability to be shunned or ignored but as a deeply personal experience to be accepted and even embraced

What Happens When We Die? Margarete van den Brink, Hans Stolp, 2017-06-21 Is there truly life beyond death What really happens when we die Can the living stay connected with or even help their loved ones who have passed on Answers to these questions have traditionally been sought for in Eastern religions but perhaps surprisingly for some they can also be found within the Christian tradition In fact such knowledge was prevalent in early Christianity but was gradually suppressed and eventually forgotten Turning to hidden esoteric sources that reveal lost meanings within the Bible the Dead Sea Scrolls and other Gnostic texts Hans Stolp and Margarete van den Brink describe the world of light that exists beyond death and the seven steps needed to progress through its realms The authors draw on near death experiences as well as the many profound personal encounters with deceased friends and family members described by people in recent times With this knowledge together with Rudolf Steiner's research they offer answers to the following questions What is the world beyond death really like and what tasks await us there Why is love and wisdom gained in life on earth so important in the afterlife How can the living help or hinder the dead How do the departed themselves help loved ones who are left behind How does the Christ sustain the dead as they review their previous life and prepare for the next This is an extraordinary guide to understanding what happens after death It also offers invaluable advice on staying connected to our loved ones who have passed on Warning! Confusion and Deception in the Church!

Terry Case,2017-05-17 Gods Word has much to say to believers but will confound the unbelievers Confusion has entered the church to deceive believers from Gods truth The church is not the same when many preachers are proclaiming lies which is false doctrine Many denominations have caused this confusion to be sustained as truth through their people for many past generations People think preachers only proclaim truth When you tell a lie long enough you believe it Some denominations tell the world that Gods Word is full of errors and contradictions which is what Satan wants to cause more deception If you do what God wants you will have peace with God If you do less than what is expected God will take your talent and give it to someone else If you are available God will meet you there The Bible does command you to commit your way to the Lord and follow him
