Directions: Fill in the information for each section. All answers must be written in complete sentences.

Step 1: Audience & Topic

| | |
|--|--|
| Describe your audience. | My audience will be my teacher and anyone who might read this. |
| Identify your topic. It must be arguable with at least two opposing sides. | Southern women's role was the cause of the Lost Cause ideology |

Step 2: Research

| | One Point of View | A Second Point of View |
|---|--|--|
| Describe the point of view. | Women were responsible for the lost cause ideology. | Both men and women were also responsible for the lost cause ideology. |
| Identify what facts you would use to support this point of view. | Women played a significant part in preserving and promoting the Lost Cause ideology after the Civil War through cultural preservation, public perception shaping, education, literature, and social organizing, they ensured its enduring influence. The commitment to preserving the memory of the Confederacy and disseminating an idealized version of Southern culture | The Role of Men in the Lost Cause Ideology must be held accountable for their contributions. Their societal status, political power, and commitment to traditional gender roles made them pivotal figures in shaping the narrative of the defeated Confederacy. Although in recent years the Lost Cause has been criticized, it is important to recognize men's significant involvement in its |
