What is a Wommett? Mick Abrahams, 2010-05-26 Mick Abrahams first rose to fame as a guitarist during the 1960s and was a founder member of Jethro Tull although his time with the band was to prove short lived owing to the vividly contrasting musical styles of himself and Ian Anderson In his autobiography What is a Wommett Mick finally puts the record straight about this parting of the ways and the events that have shaped the man and his music since that time up to the present day Perhaps best known for his time with Blodwyn Pig the band he formed after leaving Tull Abrahams has continued to delight fans with his own brand of blues jazz and rock on highly acclaimed albums spanning several decades With a fitting foreword by radio presenter and champion of great music Bob Harris this autobiography provides a fascinating insight into the character of an upbeat man who hasn't allowed anything to keep him down for long Packed with anecdotes and stories about Mick's life in and out of the spotlight this book is a must have for his fans and anyone who remembers the excitement of the emerging new musical talent of the sixties

What Is the Present? Michael North, 2025-06-17 A provocative new look at concepts of the present their connection to ideas about time and their effect on literature art and culture The problem of the present what it is and what it means is one that has vexed generations of thinkers and artists Because modernity places so much value on the present many critics argue that people today spend far too much time in the here and now but how can we tell without first knowing what the here and now actually is What Is the Present takes a provocative new look at this moment in time that remains a mystery even though it is always with us Michael North tackles puzzles that have preoccupied philosophy neuroscience psychology history and aesthetic theory and examines the complex role of the present in painting fiction and film He engages with a range of thinkers from Aristotle and Augustine to William James and Henri Bergson He draws illuminating examples from artists such as Fra Angelico and Richard McGuire filmmakers like D W Griffith and Christopher Nolan and novelists such as Elizabeth Bowen and Willa Cather North offers a critical analysis of previous models of the present from the experiential present to the historical period we call the contemporary He argues that the present is not a cosmological or experiential fact but a metaphor a figurative relationship with the whole of time Presenting an entirely new conception of the temporal mystery Georg Lukacs called the unexplained instant What Is the Present explores how the arts have traditionally represented the present and also how artists have offered radical alternatives to that tradition
