stationed here at Anderson Training Grounds for six months or even for the duration. In any event whatever men are not trained to fight except as a matter of self protection, and the main idea, roughly, is to supply the men on the line with ammunition and equipment for fighting. It was that was behind the men on the front. Apparently I have been picked to act as an instructor in extensive repair and maintenance.
