What Is Body Electrical Wiring:

The Body Electric James Geary, 2002 Marie a sixty three year old Belgian woman has been totally blind since the age of fifty seven But now thanks to electrodes implanted around her right optic nerve she can see lights shapes and colors again Marie is one of a handful of people around the world who have had computer chips implanted in their bodies to extend enhance or repair their senses The idea of actually melding man and machine still seems futuristic unlikely and a little scary But in The Body Electric James Geary examines the startling possibilities opened up by the merger of the biological and the technological This remarkable convergence holds the promise of restoring sight to the blind and mobility to the paralyzed It might also provide us with bionic senses such as the ability to see infrared radiation or feel objects at a distance By linking neurons in the brain directly to silicon chips scientists are also exploring the possibility of creating virtual eyes ears and limbs on the Internet and allowing people to control appliances by thought alone Machines too are getting silicon senses Researchers are endowing computers with the ability to see hear smell taste touch and conceivably think The Body Electric offers an accessible and astute survey of this exciting area of research with its potential commercial medical and military applications Drawing on fields as diverse as artificial intelligence and biology The Body Electric asks Are you any less you after a bionic implant If all of our senses are electronically enhanced how will we tell the difference between virtual reality and the actual world Will it matter The merger of our technology and ourselves is already beginning to change the way we see hear smell taste touch and think about the world opening the doors of perception just another crack Fundamentals of Medium/Heavy Duty Commercial Vehicle Systems Gus Wright, Owen C. explores such questions as Do human beings possess a magnetic sixth sense similar to that of homing pigeons Are artificial electromagnetic fields such as those emitted by power lines gradually destroying our health Can being struck by lightning or suffering a severe electric shock result in the development of psychic abilities What do scientists make of the fact that ball lightning can pass through walls enter rooms by squeezing through keyholes and display seemingly intelligent behavior
