entries in the bibliography language English abstract Reading as an intellectual competence opens the way to explore culture and knowledge to participate in cultural life and to enjoy literature Culture and knowledge are parts of our education and are central to our ability to think critically on any topic Studying literature plays a central role in developing these skills According to Hesse 2002 p 50f there are some elementary goals of literacy teaching such as 1 focussing on specific parts of the text 2 the use of methods which support an active and productive reading behaviour 3 a change of intensive and extensive phases of reading and 4 the relation to students interests Literature studies offer students opportunities to work on carefully chosen texts provided by the teacher Results from the PISA studies of 15 year old poor readers in Germany illustrate the importance of finding adequate literature for the EFL classroom In our term paper we want to examine how far Sandra Cisneros The House on Mango Street is relevant for the EFL class The questions which chances and opportunities the novel bears and for which purpose its plot is useful to discuss different topics are in the centre of interest Therefore the term paper shows didactical and methodological aspects i e how the book relates to the curriculum as well as to the students lives which learning strategies and social forms can be applied Therefore we have provided several tasks to be used in the EFL class which all bear a differentiated analysis On the one hand the tasks have a tendency towards creating a relationship between the text and its reader on the other hand they enlarge students abilities to use various learning strategies and methods We can draw the The House on Mango Street [by] Sandra Cisneros Anne Troy, 1993 Suggests activities to
