D. H. Lawrence, 1987-05-21 Seen by Lawrence as his most accomplished book but subject to the initial prudery and incomprehension that met most of his fiction Women in Love examines the regenerative and destructive aspects of human passion as illustrated by its depiction of Ursula and Gudrun Brangwen who first appeared in The Rainbow and their relationships with Gerald Crich and Rupert Birkin Set against the backdrop of a world consuming itself in war the novel creates an instructive vision of humanity s dance with life and death This text is the famous first Women in Love the unexpurgated version preferred by Lawrence himself which was rejected by every publisher because of the banning of The Rainbow in 1915 More positive in tone than the revised version published in his lifetime with different central relationships and a radically different ending it is now viewed by many as Lawrence s masterpiece BOOK JACKET What Women Want Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale, 1914 Hale a feminist reviews the women s movement its problems methods and goals
