J. T. Mitchell, William John Thomas Mitchell, 1995-09 What precisely W J T Mitchell asks are pictures and theories of pictures doing now in the late twentieth century when the power of the visual is said to be greater than ever before and the pictorial turn supplants the linguistic turn in the study of culture This book by one of America s leading theorists of visual representation offers a rich account of the interplay between the visible and the readable across culture from literature to visual art to the mass media The Dust Bowl Through the Lens Martin W. Sandler, 2009-10-13 The Dust Bowl was a time of hardship and disaster The worst ecological disaster in our nation s history turned more than 100 million acres of fertile land almost completely to dust Hundreds of thousands of people were forced to seek new homes and opportunities thousands of miles away while millions more chose to stay and battle nature to save their land These terrible repercussions from the Dust Bowl contributed to the Great Depression which impacted the entire country FDR s New Deal army of photographers took to the roads during this national crisis to document the human struggle of the proud people of the plains Their pictures spoke a thousand words and a new form a storytelling photojournalism was born These talented cameramen and women used photographs to inform the rest of the nation and bring about much needed change With the help of iconic images from Dorothea Lange Walker Evans Arthur Rothstein and many more Martin W Sandler tells the story of this man made natural disaster and these troubling economic times ultimately showing how a nation can endure its darkest days through extraordinary courage and human spirit The Making of Visual News Thierry Gervais, Gaëlle Morel, 2020-09-23 The Making of Visual News sets out to show how photography has changed the way we read report and sell the news It investigates how photographs first became news images at the end of the nineteenth century and how magazines in the USA the UK France and Germany have put them to use ever since Drawing on a wide selection of images author Thierry Gervais in collaboration with Ga lle Morel analyses news photographs in the context of their original presentation in print Highly illustrated the book contains 85 full colour magazine layouts and spreads offering the reader a view of how photographs were and are used in print publications including Life Picture Post the Berliner Illustrierte Zeitung and VU It examines how photographs were employed to attract new readers throughout the twentieth century arguing that photography was the main tool by which news editors sought to communicate the news and attract a broader readership Looking beyond the roles of photographer and journalist this study also highlights the contributions of picture editors and artistic directors by commissioning photographs and incorporating images into magazine layouts these figures played critical but often overlooked roles in the construction of visual news even as they crafted unique styles for their publications Charting changes in technology and reportage as well as broader social and political histories The Making of Visual News offers new insight into the history of photojournalism making this an essential resource for students and scholars of photojournalism and the history of photography media and culture

The Few. The Proud. Sara Sheldon, 2007-11-30 On a dark night in February 2005 Sara Sheldon arrived at Camp Fallujah outside the dangerous ancient city for which it was named Armed only with a camera a laptop and notepads she was a spectator to the war who secured permission to embed with the 1st MEF and observe and interview Marines who happened to be women then posted at Camp Fallujah In the time she spent there Sheldon interviewed women who held ranks from corporal to colonel to gain a broad and varied perspective of the experiences representative of female Marines throughout Iraq She reveals much about her subjects the preconceived notions they possessed when they enlisted in the Corps how the experience of serving in Iraq changed them and what they ultimately took home from the battlefield Americans are aware that women are actively serving in the armed forces but few understand what exactly is expected of women in the military the duties they perform and the limitations and restrictions placed on them especially in a combat zone Sheldon reveals much about her subjects In some ways they mirrored their male counterparts Some enlisted only for four years to receive educational benefits or for an opportunity to escape their home environment Others made the Corps their career serving as commissioned officers Still others were recalled to active duty to serve with their representative Guard units Sheldon uncovers their stories the preconceived notions they possessed when they enlisted in the Corps how the experience of serving in Iraq has changed them and what they ultimately took home from the battlefield She also sheds light on the day to day grind all American service personnel face in Iraq Yet she never loses her main focus Far removed from the Green Zone Sheldon and her subjects spent their days in harm s way but she avoids a running commentary on policy Instead she remains committed to examining how women tasked with field duties and various missions at the lower levels of command are impacted by their experiences

Risk communication in animal disease outbreaks and emergencies Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2020-05-01 Risk Communication by the State Veterinary Service plays an important role in disease risk mitigation and is an integral part of risk management during animal health emergencies and zoonotic outbreaks Effective communication recognises its unique functions as complementary to but unique among the other non communication functions required during an emergency or outbreak response such as logistics epidemiology and finances Communication is uniquely positioned to build knowledge influence attitudes raise awareness build perceptual associations between recommendations and stakeholders or audiences values customs and beliefs Furthermore effective communication focusses on the outcome for the audience or stakeholder rather than on the activities of the State Veterinary Service or its partners This publication is based on a Risk Communication Strategy that the FAO Animal Health Emergency Centre for Transboundary Animal Diseases ECTAD in Myanmar developed for the Ministry of Agriculture Livestock and Irrigation MoALI Livestock Breeding and Veterinary Department LBVD of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar The Warning Project a not for profit company specialising in risk communication led this strategy development in Myanmar The Myanmar Risk Communication document is edited in this version to make it applicable to State Veterinary Services in other countries

The Body at Risk Carol Squiers,2005 The Body at Risk Photography of Disorder Illness and Healing is the first book to explore the ways that photojournalists and social documentarians have conceptualized the human subject as a site of both good and ill health The volume looks at photographs depicting child laborers Depression era health programs general medical care in the southern United States at mid century people with HIV AIDS and polio along with their caretakers and the health workers who advocate for them environmental pollution physical and psychological injuries received during warfare domestic violence and emergency care in the modern urban hospital It brings together ten significant bodies of photographs made over the past one hundred years to show how human health topics have been represented for the general public and how the emphasis on health has shifted how photography has been used to present and promote certain points of view about health and the social circumstances that affect it both positively and negatively and how photography has helped shape public knowledge of and opinion about health care and some of the events and circumstances that engender it

Photo-Essays about Asian American Women in Life Magazine 1936 to 1965 Karen L. Ching Carter,2021-10-12 The editors of Life Magazine a mass produced picture magazine composed picture narratives that entertained informed and influenced mid twentieth century American society Photo Essays about Asian American Women in Life Magazine 1936 to 1965 Hidden Narratives and Breaking Stereotypes is a rhetorical analysis of how Life Magazine s photo essays represented and shaped white American middle class attitudes toward Asian American women In the time period studied 1936 to1965 most white Americans were exposed to Asian woman primarily through film or in illustrated drawings Hollywood in particular created caricatures depicting Asian women as evil dragon ladies or sex slaves both of which implied prostitution which affected their legal and social standing in early and mid twentieth century America The book illustrates the ways in which the Life editors utilized the photo essay as a narrative art form to counter stereotypical and racist Hollywood depictions of Asian women as prostitutes and to envision them as part of the American middle class thereby promoting a sense of national identity that included Asians as Americans This book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of women s studies cultural studies visual culture Asian American studies and history
