

Write a 5-paragraph Essay about your Favorite Childhood Memory

1. Introduction: In the introduction, you should introduce the topic of the essay, which is your favorite childhood memory. You can also provide a little background information about when the memory took place and how it has stayed with you over the years.
2. Setting: In the second paragraph, you should describe the setting of the memory. This could include the location, the time of year, and any other relevant details.
3. Characters: In the third paragraph, you should describe the people who were present during the memory. This could include friends, family, or any other significant figures.
4. Events: In the fourth paragraph, you should describe the events of the memory in detail. You should try to include as many sensory details as possible, such as sights, sounds, smells, and feelings.
5. Reflection: In the final paragraph, you should reflect on the memory and explain why it is so important to you. You can also talk about how the memory has shaped your life in some way, or how it has stayed with you over the years.

Overall, the goal of this assignment is for students to write a personal narrative about a favorite childhood memory. The essay should be well-organized and include sensory details to help the reader experience the memory along with the writer.

Teaching Literacy in Urban Schools Barbara Purdum-Cassidy, Lakia M. Scott, 2018-03-02 Today's public schools represent greater student diversity than ever before in the history of the United States yet pedagogical approaches as mandated by state education agencies and school districts superimpose mainstream curricula and instructional practices which ultimately disadvantage the academic outcomes of the majority minority African American and Hispanic Latino students. Unfortunately national report findings also heighten the educational crisis that exists for Black and Brown children with regard to reading and writing achievement. As a result there is need to deeply explore the relationship between Black and Brown student literacy achievement and educational policy teacher education program curriculum and assessment. This book seeks to provide some practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge by understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success among African American and Hispanic Latino students. This book will showcase successful models for teaching literacy to urban student through a discussion of topics that include 1 increasing literacy achievement and motivation 2 multicultural literacy practices and 3 early and elementary literacy instruction.
