Good Housekeeping ,1921 A Relationship Is a Living Thing Russell Crescimanno,2009-04 Many marital relationships that dissolve could survive and even thrive if the couple realized that there is an art and science to love and intimacy and were willing to learn and practice it This involves learning how to experience the difference between our ego and our Self Quieting the mind through meditation using methods both traditional and home made is the key to this experience It is the felt sense of the deep Self within that moves us to choose to be kind or considerate when our egos would have us behave otherwise When we extend ourselves in friendship a genuine fondness for one another begins to grow which then nurtures the soul of our relationship Cultivating these qualities promotes deep spiritual partnership and long term intimacy This book offers both principles and practices for those who feel they may be ready to engage this kind of soul centered learning Russell Crescimanno Ph D is Professor Emeritus at Piedmont Virginia Community College He has been teaching courses in sociology for forty years One in particular called Marriage and Family Relations became his passion as both his personal life and the climate of the culture regarding marriage and divorce changed over time He has also been a student and practitioner of the science of meditation and Self realization for twenty years This work has complemented his specialization in the sociology of knowledge and his desire to understand how society shapes human consciousness and therefore our relationships Motivated by the growing divorce rate in the country the painful stories of so many students who come from broken homes and the dissolution of his first two marriages he has been increasingly invested in learning what it takes to keep love alive and what we now know is sure to deaden it

Core Values in American Life Arthur G. Neal,Helen Youngelson-Neal,2014-05-23 What values do Americans hold dear What happens when real world situations cause those values to conflict To better understand the intellectual map of how American society works Arthur G Neal and Helen Youngelson Neal analyze values prominent in American word and deed These values appear in our nation s formal documents rights and privileges prominently emphasized in the US Constitution and inscribed on the Statue of Liberty They have shaped the historical destiny and indeed include those values most extensively propagated by the general population Using these criteria the authors identify individualism the pursuit of happiness freedom consumerism materialism equality of opportunity technology mastery of the environment quality of marriage and national unity as the core American values Core values provide the raw materials for the construction of contemporary society as a moral community wherever that community is located Such values are clusters of ideas that are central to self identities they generate a sense of collective belonging and membership As such core values define the existing social order and advance a set of ideas for depicting a desirable future The analysis presented here helps us understand contemporary conflicts inherent in the American value system and the problems confronted by Americans as they try to live within the limitations and contradictions of value systems We Were

Merchants Hans J. Sternberg,2009-10 While most former patrons have a favorite story to tell about Goudchaux s Maison Blanche not many know the personal tale behind this beloved institution In We Were Merchants Hans Sternberg provides a captivating account of how his parents Erich and Lea fled from Nazi Germany to the United States embraced their new home and together with their children built Goudchaux s into a Baton Rouge legend that eventually became Goudchaux s Maison Blanche an independent retail force during the golden era of the department store and by 1989 the largest family owned department store in America P 2 of cover The Palomino Pony Runs Free Olivia Tuffin,2015-04-02 The fourth in a series of perfect pony books full of action and adventure Georgia and her beautiful palomino pony Lily are hoping to make it to the Horse of the Year Show It s a big dream and it ll take a lot of work from both of them Georgia isn t sure she s good enough and it s affecting how she rides How she feels about everything in fact It s almost as if Georgia has forgotten why she loves riding Can Lily help her remember that it s not just about competing and winning trophies but about the joy of running free

The Story of the Development of NWATNA Jerry W. Jarrett,2004 When the WWE bought WCW from Turner Time Warner they were basically the only professional wrestling company in the US Jerry and Jeff Jarrett knew the needed capitol to begin a traditional wrestling company was beyond their resources the father and son team realized that a new concept would be necessary to accomplish the task of starting a national wrestling company Against great odds the largest time allotment contract with the pay per view providers InDemand and Direct TV was negotiated With the seed money 1 000 000 00 and a boat load of optimism the Jarrett s set out to form a start up International wrestling company After bankers promised loans and then withdrew at the last minute Health South came in as the financing partner in the venture Health South was forced to pull out without notice because of international problems and with a window of only 30 days a replacement for Health South was found when Panda Energy bought into the project The road was never an easy one From discovering that a key man who handled the PPV end of the business was on the payroll of the company that handles WWE PPV s at the same time to receiving forged documents from InDemand to wrestlers that had verbally committed to NWATNA suddenly getting attractive contracts with WWE the venture has survived Today two years after the launch this company that insiders gave no chance of survival has produced 90 weeks of pay per view programs and is seen around the world on international television NWATNA has secured a deal with a major television network History of the United States Emma Willard, 1859 Boys' Life, 1984-12 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting
