Towards a Sociology of the Novel Lucien Goldmann,1975 Towards a Sociology of the Novel Lucien Goldmann,1977

Becoming a Reader J. A. Appleyard, Joseph Albert Appleyard,1994-01-28 Becoming a Reader in allowing us to predict our reading experience allows us as adults to choose what to do with the power which reading gives us Towards the sociology of the novel Lucien Goldmann,1975 Literature, Culture and Society Andrew Milner,2017-09-19 As cultural studies has grown from its origins on the margins of literary studies it has tended to discard both literature and sociology in favour of the semiotics of popular culture Literature Culture and Society makes a determined attempt to re establish the connections between literary studies cultural studies and sociology Arguing against both literary humanism and sociological relativism it provides a critical overview of theoretical approaches to textual analysis from hermeneutics to postmodernism and presents a substantive account of the capitalist literary mode of production This second edition has been fully revised and rewritten with new sections including the impact of psychoanalysis and post structuralism and the recent work of academics such as Franco Moretti New case studies have been added in order to examine the intertextual connections between Genesis Milton s Paradise Lost Frankenstein in Mary Shelley s original and also in several film versions Karel Capek s R U R Fritz Lang s Metropolis Ridley Scott s Blade Runner The X Files and Buffy the Vampire Slayer The Preparation of the Novel Roland Barthes,2010-11-23 Completed just weeks before his death these lectures mark a critical juncture in the career of Roland Barthes declaring the intention deeply felt to compose a novel through an entirely untested method of writing Unfolding over the course of two years Barthes engaged in a unique pedagogical experiment he would combine teaching and writing to simulate the creation of a novel exploring every step of the collaborative process along the way Barthes s lectures move from the inception of an idea and the need to write something to the actual decision making planning and material act of producing a book He meets the difficulty of transitioning from short concise expressions exemplified by his favorite literary form haiku to longer uninterrupted flows of narrative and he encounters a number of trials and setbacks Barthes takes solace in a diverse group of writers including Dante whose own opus was similarly inspired by the death of a loved one He also turns to classical philosophy and Taoism and the works of Chateaubriand Flaubert Kafka and Proust This volume includes eight elliptical plans for Barthes s unwritten novel which he titled Vita Nova and notes that shed light on the critic s view of photography Along with Columbia University Press s The Neutral Lecture Course at the College de France 1977 1978 and a third forthcoming collection of Barthes lectures this volume completes a profound exploration into the labor and love of writing Towards a Sociology of the Novel: Introduction to the problems of a sociology of the novel ; Introduction to a structural study of Malraux's novels ; The nouveau roman and reality ; L'Immortelle ; The genetic-structuralist method in the history of literature Lucien Goldmann,1975 The Spatial Logic of Social Struggle Nikolaus Fogle,2011-04-07 Pierre Bourdieu s theory of practice is widely regarded as among the most innovative and illuminating fruits of recent social thought As evidence mounts that the spatial turn in the social sciences and humanities is no mere theoretical fad but rather an enduring paradigm of social and cultural research Bourdieu's status as a profoundly spatial thinker takes on a renewed importance The Spatial Logic of Social Struggle A Bourdieuan Topology focuses on Bourdieu's philosophy of space arguing that space is at once a condition for social knowledge a methodological instrument and a physical context for practice By considering Bourdieu's theory of social space and fields alongside his several accounts of socially potent physical spaces Nikolaus Fogle develops an understanding of the systematic co-determinations between social and physical space He traces Bourdieu's ideas about the spatiality of social life through his investigations of Algerian peasant villages and Gothic cathedrals as well as spaces of class lifestyle and cultural creation revealing that social and environmental struggles are only logical insofar as they are topological He also demonstrates how a Bourdieuan dialectical understanding of social and physical space can be brought to bear on contemporary issues in architecture and urban development This book will be useful and accessible not only to philosophers but also to architects geographers sociologists and other scholars in the social sciences and humanities who take an interest in the social theory of space An

Maher,1997 Dickens: Novelist in the Market-Place James M Brown,1982-02-18 An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe,2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall The Socio-Literary Imaginary in 19th and 20th Century Britain Maria

Bachman,Albert Pionke,2019-09-30 At once an invitation and a provocation The Socio Literary Imaginary represents the first collection of essays to illuminate the historically and intellectually complex relationship between literary studies and sociology in nineteenth and early twentieth century Britain During the ongoing emergence of what Thomas Carlyle in Signs of the Times 1829 pejoratively labeled a new Mechanical Age Britain's robust tradition of social thought was transformed by professionalization institutionalization and the birth of modern disciplinary fields Writers and thinkers most committed to an approach grounded in empirical data and inductive reasoning such as Harriet Martineau and John Stuart Mill positioned themselves in relation to French positivist Auguste Comte's recent neologism la sociologie. Some Victorian and Edwardian novelists George Eliot and John Galsworthy among them became enthusiastic adopters of early sociological theory others including Charles Dickens and Ford Madox Ford more idiosyncratically both complemented and competed with the systems of society proposed by their social scientific contemporaries. Chronologically bound within the period from the 1830s through the 1920s this volume expansively reconstructs their expansive if never collective efforts. Individual essays focus on Comte Dickens Eliot Ford and Galsworthy as well as Friedrich Engels Elizabeth Gaskell G. H. Lewes Virginia Woolf and others. The volume's introduction locates these author specific contributions in the context of both the international intellectual history of sociology in Britain through the First World War and the interanimating intersections of sociological and literary theory from the work of Hippolyte Taine in the 1860s through the successive linguistic and digital turns of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries.

Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984. Totality has been an abiding concern from the first generation of Western Marxists most notably Lukács, Korsch, Gramsci and Bloch through the second exemplified by the Frankfurt School, Lefebvre, Goldmann, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty and Della Volpe up to the most recent typified by Althusser, Colletti and Habermas. Yet no consensus has been reached concerning the term's multiple meanings expressive, decentered, longitudinal, latitudinal, normative or its implications for other theoretical and practical matters. By closely following the adventures of this troublesome but central concept, Marxism and Totality offers an unconventional account of the history of Western Marxism.

Christopher Caudwell Christopher Pawling, 1989-11-10. Christopher Caudwell was only twenty nine when he was killed in action in February 1937 at the beginning of the Spanish Civil War. Largely unknown at the time of his death, his reputation has been established subsequently as one of the most original English cultural critics of the Twentieth century.

Appropriating Theory José Eduardo González, 2017-09-14. Angel Rama 1926-1983 is a major figure in Latin American literary and cultural studies but little has been published on his critical work. In this study Jose Eduardo Gonzalez focuses on Rama's response to and appropriation of European critics like Walter Benjamin, Theodor Adorno and Georg Lukács. Gonzalez argues that Rama realized the inapplicability of many of their theories and descriptions of cultural modernization to Latin America and thus reworked them to produce his own discourse that challenged prevailing notions of social and cultural modernization.
