Miracles Rod L van Dertuin, 2006-07 About the Book Amusing entertaining thought provoking and often touching stories of one family's rather unusual life that pushes the belief that there really are miracles that form our lives and that things do happen for a reason Miracles and how they form our lives That is what is questioned and what is ultimately presented to you to answer for yourself The evidence for this argument is the foundation for this family of 15 From the roots of being childhood sweethearts to a family tree that includes three biological and ten adopted children all of various ethnic backgrounds you follow the unmistakable trails of what can only be described as miracles Life is not always easy as struggles and disappointments are often faced but they are done so with a gathered knowledge that miracles happen everyday and are more often than not done so without fanfare or announcement The author really tells many stories within a story making you wonder if we are really alone The book is written in a comfortable bluejeans point of view and can be read from many different perspectives All the stories are ultimately threaded together with the belief that everything happens for a reason The Shade of the Moon Susan Beth Pfeffer, 2013 In this eagerly awaited addition to the series begun with New York Times bestseller Life As We Knew It Jon Evans is one of the lucky ones Until he realizes that escaping his safe haven may be the only way to truly survive Identity Theft, Second Edition Debra E. Meyerson, Steve Zuckerman, 2025-09-16 Identity Theft Second Edition is an award winning book that follows Stanford professor Debra Meyerson's journey to recover from a severe stroke that initially left her physically incapacitated and unable to speak In addition to providing realistic expectations for the hard work needed to regain everyday capabilities Meyerson and Zuckerman focus on the less frequently documented emotional journey as she and her family rebuild identity in recovery Virtually every stroke survivor is haunted by questions like Who am I now and How do I rebuild a meaningful and rewarding life after losing so much of what they had before capabilities careers and jobs relationships and more This is a book full of hope for survivors from stroke or other life changing injuries or illnesses as well as their care partners families and communities The first edition of Identity Theft centers on Debra's experience her stroke her extraordinary efforts to recover and her journey to redefine herself But she also draws on her skills as a social scientist sharing stories from several dozen fellow survivors family members friends colleagues therapists and doctors she has met and interviewed By sharing this diversity of experiences Debra highlights how every stroke is different and every recovery is different She provides a valuable look at the broad possibilities for successfully navigating the challenging physical recovery and the equally difficult and frequently unspoken emotional journey toward rebuilding one's identity and a rewarding life after a trauma like stroke This second edition is written by Debra and her husband Steve Zuckerman As they have shared in countless talks Just as the original book was headed to the printers we decided that the finish line had become a new starting line They co founded the nonprofit Stroke Onward where they have been working side by side to build an organization that can catalyze change in the healthcare system to better integrate the emotional journey of rebuilding identity into a lifelong recovery process This edition draws on five more years of experience as a post stroke couple and what they've learned from thousands more survivors family members and healthcare professionals They've added new insights about the long term recovery process and how we can change the stroke system of care to better support all survivors and their families Their 4 500 mile bike ride called Stroke Across America in 2021 helped raise awareness for Stroke Onward and stroke survivorship care Joining Jesus Moses Chung, Christopher Meehan, 2022-03-25 Inspired by an incarnational theology that emerges from a missional reading of Luke 10 Chung and Meehan went out to discover the stories of contemporary disciples who labor in the harvest fields of God's uncommon upside down Kingdom The stories that emerge describe the work and presence of the Spirit in communities across North America where ordinary faithful people and churches embrace the Spirit's invitation by sharing themselves with their neighbors Our need to connect with neighbors seems more difficult now than ever but Chung and Meehan say we shouldn't be afraid of change and to listen to the Spirit's prodding. By sharing stories on how to go local by remaining faithfully present, the authors encourage us to embrace our neighborhoods and join Jesus by loving people in the tangible ordinariness of life.

Joy Comes in the Mourning Helene Marie Cruz, 2022-01-30 Joy Comes in the Mourning presents an authentic and practical devotion style book intended to speak to a topic that unfortunately everyone must encounter in their lives: grieving loss. This collection is unusual in that it is autobiographical. Author Helene Marie Cruz shares both her experiences of loss and those of many in her family and close circle of friends, all of whom have lost loved ones. The testimonies vary in terms of the types of losses and the situations before and after the mourning, but the common theme is that God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit the Counselor were present somewhere during these journeys of grief. Cruz encourages but also evangelizes, eliciting the Holy Spirit to pull you toward either knowing the Savior for the first time or calling upon Him for healing, grace, peace, and the joy that the Psalmist David speaks of in the healing psalm of promise, Psalm 30:5: "weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." Uplifting and encouraging, this collection of testimonies invites you to understand and ultimately live the promise offered by God of the joy that follows grief.

Time Phoenix, 2022-12-14 This book of time will explain what it meant by one of mankind's greatest concerns: The End of Time. This book will give you a greater understanding of Time and what is meant by the end of A TIME, not the END OF ALL TIME. As you read this book, you will learn the basic ideas and concepts needed to understand the spiritual reality of life and how we evolve spiritually, both individually and collectively, throughout TIME. From one TIME to the next, we evolve and throughout a life time, individually, people heal their broken spirit and evolve into a greater spiritual reality, emotional reality, and healthier state of mind.

Turning over Tables Kathy Escobar, 2025-01-14 With keen insight and unwavering conviction, visionary pastor Kathy Escobar guides readers on a Lenten journey inspired by the ways of Jesus to dismantle the systems that perpetuate inequality and injustice. From flipping the moneychangers' tables in the temple to uplifting the poor and marginalized, Jesus' actions and words turn the world's idea of power on its head. With each week of Lent, readers will dig deeper into Jesus' challenge to the pervasive influence of privilege and oppression that have dominated since ancient times. Through poignant reflections and thought-provoking practices, readers will discover how they can harness the disruptive power of Jesus' teachings to effect meaningful change in their communities and beyond. Together, we can turn the tables and build a world where justice, healing, and greater equity reign supreme.

Holy Disruption Tracy S. Daub, 2022-09-06 Where's the baby? The Gospel of Mark doesn't have a nativity story, so where's the Advent message? It's in every aspect of Jesus' life, to his death, and beyond. The Incarnation: God came to earth in human form to be baptized, teach, heal, eat, and die. That's what we celebrate at Christmas, and Mark shows us just how radical and celebration-worthy it is. Holy Disruption presents a fresh understanding of the holiness of Christmas, grounded not in a conventional, cozy Christmas message but through Mark's disquieting gospel, which invites its readers to experience God's disruptive but transformative love for us and our world.

Blessed Rebecca Smith Davis, 2023-03-13 Leroy Davis had been in a coma for more than two weeks His life was slowly fading with no sign of improvement Rebecca began thinking of how she may need to prepare for her husband s funeral She prayed until she fell asleep crying fervently to God to heal her husband Over in the corner of the nurse s station outside his room Leroy saw a tall male figure an obscure shadowy figure of a sort peering into the window of his room The shadowy image had dark hair a slim build and wore a dark suit The being smirked at Leroy through the window while he lay in the bed Leroy noticed when it snarled that the spirit had sharp jagged teeth Leroy could see the figure talking but Leroy couldn t hear what the phantom was saying Toward the other side of the room Leroy then saw a plump blonde haired lady that had a glow about her She was in white clothing and was up against the wall Awe inspiring and remarkable this true story details Leroy s fight for his life and describes his encounter with an angel days before doctors planned to remove life support He tells about a battle of good and evil forces while he lay unconscious a band of men marching around his bedside and an angel who woke him and led him down a dusty road

The Connected Leader Karen Joy Hardwick M.Div. MSW, 2021-11-23 Connection is the antidote yet many of us don t know how to connect to ourselves compassionately in order to enhance self discovery Without this gift we cannot connect in a meaningful way to a higher purpose or engage with others to ignite inspiration With the help of Hardwick s connection architecture we can transform By utilizing her strategies of connection we can empower workplaces and relationships through the grace and grit resilience and empathy that occur when our connection wiring is activated in healthy ways Hardwick s willingness to share her story of struggle and triumph along with anecdotes from the boardroom and family room help us to awaken heal and courageously lead She synthesizes the emotional spiritual and relational giving us permission to look honestly at how we do damage to ourselves and others while inviting us to live and lead from a place of true well being The Connected Leader is profoundly important Karen s written a guide that is at once both practical and actionable while vividly authentic and real Using her own broken open heart she shows how each of us is seeking presence and connection and that the best leaders leading from a connected soul create the conditions for a lasting sense of belonging Jerry Colonna author Reboot Leadership and the Art of Growing Up Hardwick s inspiring message is there s a more fully human way to lead rooted in emotional spiritual and relational wholeness Connected leadership is the way of the future Highly recommended Ian Morgan Cron author The Road Back to You
