Introduction	Introduce the essay with a hook that demonstrates relevance of the essay to the reader. Introduce the items being compared and outline your essay structure.
	Thesis Statement: Don't forget to state your thesis statement in the introduction. For a compare and contrast essay, you may make a value judgement about which item is best for a certain circumstance.
Orientation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Define your two items/concepts that are to be analyzed</li><li>• Explain the context of your discussion</li><li>• Delve deeper into the definition of each, explaining aspects or details about the concepts to help the reader understand them more.</li></ul>
Feature 1 Feature 2 Feature 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Select features that can be compared between the two items (e.g. size, quality, etc.)</li><li>• Explore similarities</li><li>• Explore differences</li><li>• Make value judgements about the differences between the items that is consistent with your thesis statement</li></ul>
Evaluation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Sum up your key points and make an overall value judgement or argument about the two concepts, e.g. "Based upon the above information, it is clear that oranges are better than apples because..."</li></ul>
Conclusion	Close the loop by returning to a statement you made in the introduction. Show what your final position is. Explain who should be interested in your findings. End by noting in one final, engaging sentence why this topic is of such importance.

Purpose In Writing Evelyn Saxon, AI, 2025-05-05 Purpose In Writing explores the deliberate construction of essays emphasizing how skilled writers use structure and tone to achieve specific communication goals The book examines how the strategic arrangement of ideas or structural architecture and the writer's attitude or tonal nuance work together to shape the reader's experience This approach moves beyond simply conveying information highlighting the writer's active role in creating meaning and shaping perspective The book progresses from establishing a theoretical foundation by examining the historical evolution of the essay form to dissecting the structural components of effective essays such as chronological or compare and contrast patterns It culminates in an in depth analysis of tone exploring how writers use language to evoke emotions and build credibility Through case studies and examples the book demonstrates how conscious choices in essay writing can amplify a writer's intention leaving a lasting impact on the audience What sets Purpose In Writing apart is its emphasis on the interplay between structure and tone as deliberate tools for achieving a specific purpose in essay writing Rather than treating them separately it highlights their synergistic relationship demonstrating how writers orchestrate both to maximize impact making it a valuable resource for students instructors and anyone interested in mastering the art of persuasive writing and effective communication
