Dalfonzo,2017-06-20 There are now more single adults than married adults in the United States yet the evangelical church continues to focus primarily on serving couples and families with ministries geared toward their particular needs This can lead however unintentionally to the marginalization of adults who are single by choice divorce or death or who are simply not yet married Families are a good thing but so are all of God's people and singles long to be lovingly integrated into the Body of Christ In One by One Gina Dalfonzo explores common misconceptions and stereotypes about singles including the idea that they must be single because something is wrong with them and the subtle and not so subtle ways they are devalued like when sermons focus overmuch on navigating marital relationships or raising children She shows how the church of Paul who commended those who remained single became the church where singles are too often treated like second class Christians Then she explores what the church is doing right what unique services singles can offer the church and most importantly what the church can do to love and support the singles in their midst Patriarchal Lineages in 21st-Century Christian

Courtship Elizabeth L. Shively,2020-08-10 Drawing from a study of courtship media and ethnographic work at purity retreats and home school conventions across the Midwest this is the first inquiry into modern Christian courtship an alternative to dating that asks young people to avoid both romance and sex until they are ready to be married Bridging sociological and historical studies of American Christianity with youth and girlhood studies literatures Elizabeth Shively finds that the courtship system is designed to shore up the patriarchal nuclear family structure at the center of conservative Christianity and ensure predictability in the face of emerging adulthood single young women work to embody ideals of luminous femininity and model themselves after archetypes such as the Proverbs 31 woman the stay at home daughter and the mission minded girl and courting couples strive to guard their hearts against premature emotional intimacy Nonetheless participants report that courtship like other relationships inevitably carries an element of risk and it ultimately fails to offer a substantial challenge to the sexist realities of youth dating culture The Complete Guide to Christian Quotations
