Creating Reading Rainbow Barbara Irwin,Tony Buttino,Pam Johnson,2024-06-18 Reading Rainbow is one of the most successful PBS children s series in television history earning numerous national and international awards including 26 Emmys and a Peabody Award But perhaps more important than anything else Reading Rainbow helped generations of children cultivate a love for books Reading Rainbow is very much a story of humble beginnings and enormous perseverance Over five summers Tony Buttino Sr and his colleagues at WNED TV the public television station in Buffalo New York worked in collaboration with educators and librarians to experiment with summer reading programs But after trialing these programs the WNED team realized there was a big need for a new children s literacy series and believed they could create a new show with local and national collaborators and friends After fits and starts and enough twists and turns to fill a children s book Reading Rainbow premiered in the summer of 1983 and captured the attention of 6.5 million young viewers Creating Reading Rainbow explores the many intriguing and homespun stories that when woven together reveal how this groundbreaking and iconic television series came to be What led to the series being called Reading Rainbow How did the road to Reading Rainbow wind its way through Mister Rogers Neighborhood How did a public television station in Buffalo spearhead a movement in education and spark the passion for reading in millions of children And what does lasagna have to do with it

Writing Power Adrienne Gear,2011 A wide range of effective writing techniques are outlined and reinforced throughout the book with suggested anchor books for each lesson The fundamentals of the writing process and the 6 Traits are integrated into this unique examination of how developing an awareness of the readers thinking can influence and affect a student s ability to write Publisher young people to read and builds their comprehension skills while extending their learning across the curriculum. Students, teachers, librarians, parents, and community members can participate in these mealtime programs which include such activities as games, writing, or art projects, role playing, storytelling, interviewing, and guest speakers. Based on the authors' READ N FEED program, the book provides detailed plans for learning events developed from selected young adult novels. For each title, the authors provide a summary of the plot, a booktalk, background information on the author, discussion questions, activities, novel connections, suggestions for food and decorations, and reproducible templates of publicity posters, student invitations, game pieces, and other materials. The authors also give instructions on how to design a program for other books. This method integrates critical thinking skills, multiple intelligences, and methods.

Fiction, Food, and Fun Kathryn Closter,KAREN L. SIPES,VICKIE THOMAS,1998-05-15 Featuring fiction food and fun this unique approach motivates

Models for Teaching Writing-Craft Target Skills Marcia Sheehan Freeman, 2005. Writing is best taught through models. Showing K-8 students how other authors apply the writing craft skills that you teach is a vital part of writing instruction. This innovative resource matches 24 fundamental writing craft Target Skills to a wide selection of fiction and non-fiction books, providing a solid set of strong models for writing craft instruction. Both trade books and texts available only from educational publishers are included. Most of these are picture books which are particularly engaging for young readers. A Target Skill cross index helps you reference models and multiple craft skills.

Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Pamela J. Farris, 2015-02-03. The latest edition of Pamela Farris's popular value-priced text continues to offer pre- and in-service teachers creative strategies and proven techniques sensitive to the needs of all elementary and middle school learners. Coverage includes the C3 Framework and the four sets of learning from the National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies. Farris, together with contributors who specialize in implementing successful teaching methods and theories, demonstrate how classroom teachers can excite and inspire their students to be engaged learners.

The Foxfire Book of Appalachian Women Kami Ahrens, 2023-01-19. In 1966 in Rabun County, Georgia, a group of high school English students created the Foxfire magazine, a literary journal that celebrated Appalachian stories, people, and culture. The publication was filled with poetry and prose from local students and authors and featured interviews with community members. These oral histories quickly became the focal point of the magazine and eventually the material that generated the multivolume Foxfire book series. Now pulled from the vast Foxfire archive comes the first volume in the series, focused specifically on the lives of Appalachian women. These remarkable narratives illuminate a diverse regional culture held together by the threads that are woven between women and place and through generations. Told sometimes with humor, sometimes with sadness, but always with a gripping rawness and honesty, the stories recount women's lived experiences from the 1960s to the present. The interviews cover work, family, and community, illuminating Cherokee, Black, and white women's experiences, changes in Appalachian culture, and the importance of relationships in daily life. Reading each interview in this book is almost like joining these women on their porches and in their homes as they take us on a journey through their lives. Taken together, the stories speak against regional stereotypes.

and offer instead a sampling of the many expressions of these women's strength
