Under The North Star Under The North Star 1 Vaino Linna:

Labour, Unions and Politics under the North Star Mary Hilson, Silke Neunsinger, Iben Vyff, 2017-05-01 Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden today all enjoy a reputation for strong labour movements which in turn are widely seen as part of a distinctive regional approach to politics collective bargaining and welfare But as this volume demonstrates narratives of the so called Nordic model can obscure the fact that experiences of work and the fortunes of organized labour have varied widely throughout the region and across different historical periods Together the essays collected here represent an ambitious intervention in labour historiography and European history exploring themes such as work unions politics and migration from the early modern period to the twenty first century

Lived Nation as the History of Experiences and Emotions in Finland, 1800-2000 Ville Kivimäki, Sami Suodenjoki, Tanja Vahtikari, 2021-06-07 This open access book uses Finland in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as an empirical case in order to study the emergence shaping and renewal of a nation through histories of experience and emotions It revolves around the following questions What kinds of experiences have engendered national mobilization and feelings of national belonging How have political and societal conflicts turned into new communities of experience and emotion What kinds of experiences have been integrated into or excluded from the national context in different instances How have people internalized or contested the nation as a context for their personal family and minority group experiences In what ways has the nation entered and affected people's intimate spheres of life How have national experiences been transmitted to children in the renewal of the nation This edited collection points to the histories of experience and emotions as a novel way of studying nations and nationalism Building on current debates in nationalism studies it offers a theoretical framework for analyzing the historical construction of lived nations and introduces a number of new methodological approaches to understand the experiences of the nation extending from the investigation of personal reminiscences and music records to the study of dreams and children's drawings

Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Elise Nykänen, 2024-11-08 Arctic Hysteria and Other Strange Northern Emotions Case Studies in Finnish Literature opens a new perspective on the thriving area of research on the imagined North by studying emotions in the light of case studies in Finnish literature The volume addresses the cultural history of Arctic hysteria and maps other strange emotions depicted and evoked in literature of the Finnish North The volume comprises seven case studies which range from the works of internationally renowned authors such as Rosa Liksom Emmi Itäranta and Tove Jansson to the affectively controversial and provocative writings of Timo K. Mukka Marko Tapio and Pentti Linkola Drawing from the study of the imagined North and theories and tools in the study of literature and emotions the analyses show how such moods as melancholia ecstasy or a peculiar sense of November are generated in texts and how literary emotions entangle with the Northern environment they depict By focusing on the imagined North in Finnish modernism and contemporary literature the authors offer original views on experiences of late modernity merging with the changing

Northern environment in the age of the Anthropocene The Finnish Civil War 1918 ,2014-08-14 The Finnish Civil War 1918 offers a rich account of the history and memory of the short conflict between socialist Reds and non socialist Whites in the winter and spring of 1918 It also traces the legacy of the bloody war in Finnish society until today The volume brings together established scholarship of political and social history with newer approaches stemming from the cultural history of war memory studies gender studies history of emotions psychohistory and oral history The contributors provide readers with a solid discussion of the Civil War within its international and national frameworks Among themes discussed are violence and terror enemy images Finnish irredentist campaigns in Soviet Karelia and the complex memory of the conflict Besides a historical narrative the volume discusses the current state of historiography of the Finnish Civil War Contributors are Anders Ahlbäck Pertti Haapala Marianne Junila Tiina Kinnunen Tiina Lintunen Aapo Roselius Tauno Saarela Juha Siltala Tuomas Tepora and Marko Tikka Väinö Linna - tunnettu ja tuntematon Jyrki Nummi, Maria Laakso, Toni Lahtinen, Pertti Haapala, 2020-08-12 Nykyn k kulmia V in Linnaan Kaikkia suomalaisia yhdist v n kansalliskirjailijan syntym st on kulunut 100 vuotta Juhlavuoden julkaisussa 25 tieteen ja taiteen ammattilaista kirjoittaa V in Linnasta luovasti ja vapaamuotoisesti Esseissä tarkastellaan esimerkiksi P m r Mustaa rakkautta Tuntematonta sotilasta ja Pohjantähti-trilogiaa teosten filmatisointeja teatterisovituksia ja k n n ksi N k kulma vaihtelee kirjallisuuden elokuvan ja teatterin tutkimuksesta yhteiskunta ja oikeustieteisiin My s muuttamat nykykirjailijat tutkivat suhdettaan Linnaan Kirjoittajat Antti Alanen Risto Alapuro Antti Arnkil Andrew Chesterman Laura Gustafsson Pertti Haapala Sakari Heikkinen Saija Isomaa Anneli Kanto Pauli Kettunen Ville Kivimäki Timo Koivusalo Kaisa Kurikka Maria Laakso Toni Lahtinen Rosa Liksom Stefan Moster Jyrki Nummi Jussi Ojajärvi Panu Rajala Kimmo Rentola Jukka Sihvonen Pauli Stenlund Petri Tamminen ja Yrjö Varpio Kirjan ovat toimittaneet kotimaisen kirjallisuuden professori Jyrki Nummi kirjallisuudentutkijat Maria Laakso ja Toni Lahtinen sekä Suomen historian professori Pertti Haapala Translation and the Problem of Sway Douglas Robinson, 2011 Printbegränsningar Der kan printas 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session Terrains of Imagination in Contemporary Finnish Literature Sarianna Kankkunen, 2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen's works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen's oeuvre the selected material spans the author's early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen's early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen's fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions. By analyzing Verronen's dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses. Verronen's narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism. Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen's novels foregrounds the open, connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place, both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies. By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen's works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature's emphasis on space, spatiality and environmental issues. Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations. As the study contextualizes Verronen's works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions.

Performative Histories, Foundational Fictions Anu Koivunen, 2003-09-17. Films are integral to national imagination. Promotional publicity markets domestic films not only as entertaining, exciting or moving but also as topical and relevant in different ways. Reviewers assess new films with reference to other films and cultural products as well as social and political issues. Through such interpretive framings by contemporaries and later generations popular cinema is embedded both in national imagination and endless intertextual and intermedial frameworks. Moreover films themselves become signs to be cited and recycled as illustrations of cultural, social and political history as well as national mentality. In the age of television old films continue to live as history and memory. In Performative Histories, Foundational Fictions Anu Koivunen analyzes the historicity as well as the intertextuality and intermediality of film reception by focusing on a cycle of Finnish family melodrama and its key role in thinking about gender, sexuality, nation and history. Close reading posters, advertisements, publicity stills, trailers, review journalism and critical commentary she demonstrates how The Women of Niskavuori (1938 and 1958), Loviisa (1946), Heta Niskavuori (1952), Aarne Niskavuori (1954), Niskavuori Fights (1957) and Niskavuori (1984) have operated as sites for imagining our agrarian past, our Heimat and heritage as well as the strong Finnish woman or the weak man in crisis. Based on extensive empirical research Koivunen argues that the Niskavuori films have mobilized readings in terms of history and memory, feminist nationalism and men's movement, left wing allegories and right wing morality as well as realism and melodrama. Through processes of citation, repetition and re-cycling the films have acquired not only a heterogeneous and contradictory interpretive legacy but also an affective force.

Nodes of Contemporary Finnish Literature Leena Kirstinä, 2012-06-13. This book examines phenomena from Finnish and Finnish-Swedish literature written in the years between the 1980s and the first decade of the new millennium. Its objective is to study this interesting era of literary history in Finland and to sketch some possible directions for future development by identifying literary turning points which have already occurred.

Making Nordic

Historiography Pertti Haapala, Marja Jalava, Simon Larsson, 2017-09-01 Is there a Nordic history? If so, what are its origins, its scope, and its defining features? In this informative volume, scholars from all five Nordic nations tackle a notoriously problematic historical concept. Whether recounting Foucault's departure from Sweden or tracing the rise of movements such as aristocratic empiricism, each contribution takes a deliberately transnational approach that is grounded in careful research, yielding rich, nuanced perspectives on shifting and contested historical terrain. Metaliterary Layers in Finnish Literature

Samuli Hägg, Erkki Sevänen, Risto Turunen, 2009-01-09 In international research, metafictionality and other metaliterary features have typically been regarded as phenomena related to postmodernist fiction. In particular, Metaliterary Layers in Finnish Literature however discusses the metalayers of Finnish literature from the early 20th century to the present. By analyzing different genres of Finnish literature in varying historical contexts, Metaliterary Layers in Finnish Literature provides an abundance of new information on Finnish literature and its metaliterary phenomena for everyone interested. In the articles of this book, the metalayers of literature are discussed in experimental prose and poetry as well as in popular fiction and children's literature. Teaching and Learning Difficult Histories in International Contexts

Terrie Epstein, Carla Peck, 2017-08-07 Grounded in a critical sociocultural approach, this volume examines issues associated with teaching and learning difficult histories in international contexts. Defined as representations of past violence and oppression, difficult histories are contested and can evoke emotional, often painful responses in the present. Teaching and learning these histories is contentious yet necessary for increased dialogue within conflict-ridden societies, reconciliation in post-conflict societies, and greater social cohesion in long-standing democratic nations. Focusing on locations and populations across the globe, chapter authors investigate how key themes including culture, identity, collective memory, emotion, and multi-perspectivity, historical consciousness, distance, and amnesia inform the teaching and learning of difficult histories. Identity and History in Non-Anglophone Comics

Harriet E.H. Earle, Martin Lund, 2023-04-24 This book explores the historical and cultural significance of comics in languages other than English, examining the geographic and linguistic spheres in which these comics inhabit and their contributions to comic studies and academia. The volume brings together texts across a wide range of genres, styles, and geographic locations, including the Netherlands, Colombia, Greece, Mexico, Poland, Finland, Portugal, Ireland, and the Czech Republic, among others. These works have remained out of reach for speakers of languages other than the original and do not receive the scholarly attention they deserve due to their lack of English translations. This book highlights the richness and diversity these works add to the corpus of comic art and comic studies that Anglophone comic scholars can access to broaden the collective perspective of the field and forge links across regions, genres, and comic traditions. Part of the Global Perspectives in Comics Studies series, this volume spans continents and languages. It will be of interest to researchers and students of comics studies, literature, cultural studies, popular culture, art, and design, illustration, history, film studies, and sociology. The Narrative Turn in Urban Planning

Lieven Aemeel, 2020-11-15 Narratives in the context of urban planning matter profoundly Planning theory and practice have taken an increasing interest in the role and power of narrative and yet there is no comprehensive study of how narrative and concepts from narrative and literary theory more broadly can enrich planning and policy The Narrative Turn in Urban Planning addresses this gap by defining key concepts such as story narrative and plot against a planning backdrop and by drawing up a functional typology of different planning narratives In two extended case studies from the planning of the Helsinki waterfront it applies the narrative concepts and theories to a broad range of texts and practices considering ways toward a more conscious and contextualized future urban planning Questioning what is meant when we speak of narratives in urban planning and what typologies we can draw up it presents a threefold taxonomy of narratives within a planning framework This book will serve as an important reference text for upper level students and researchers interested in urban planning
