Taking a Risk Lexy Timms, Divorced childless and jobless at 30 My younger self had it all planned I would be married by 22 check Have the dream job after university check And a couple of kids to go with the perfect wife Scratch that My wife left me for a guy ten years younger than me and they're having the babies we should have had The dream job became a dream when the company I worked for went belly up because of bad investments So here I am moving across the state with just my dog to the big city Single jobless and about enough money after the divorce to pay off my truck and hopefully rent an apartment Apparently it's my destiny I got offered an easy job managing some billionaire's estate while he's off to Antarctica for three months on some expedition So here I sit counting his money pretending to be him Well more like a glorified house sitter whose German shepherd actually landed me the job because he looks like a guard dog Which couldn't be further from the truth What I didn't expect nor I assume did he was that his daughter would show up One that apparently can't stand her father He said to treat everything as if it were mine I might be taking this job a little too literally
