

A woman with blonde hair, wearing safety glasses and a grey long-sleeved shirt, is working in a factory. She is leaning over a large industrial machine, possibly a lathe or drill press, and appears to be adjusting or operating it. The background is slightly blurred, showing other parts of the factory environment.

Unfinished Work The Struggle To Build An Aging American Workforce:

Unfinished Work Joseph Coleman, 2015 This book examines the aging of the workforce in the advanced economies of North America Europe and East Asia the premise of this book is that we can do better Unfinished Work Joseph Coleman, 2015-01-02 The era of the aging worker is here From the rice paddies of Japan to the heart of the American rust belt veteran international correspondent Joseph Coleman takes readers inside the lives of aging workers their workplaces and their societies Aging, Work, and Retirement Elizabeth F. Fideler, 2020-07-07 Aging Work and Retirement presents the reasons older men and women are staying in the workforce as long as they are able to do so information of immediate value to undergraduate and graduate students across the fields of sociology gerontology industrial organizational psychology and business management as well as to corporate leaders human resources managers professional organizations and policy makers The text reflects a growing interest in and concern regarding aspects of aging ageism labor market challenges workplace issues plus gender and racial ethnic similarities and differences in employment history and extended worklife opportunities as they affect older workers in this country and abroad Each chapter has cases and profiles and other strong pedagogical features allowing students to integrate the content with real world examples Creating Psychologically Healthy Workplaces Ronald J. Burke, Astrid M. Richardsen, 2019 Workplaces can often be sources of stress interfering with both job satisfaction and performance This book explores ways to combat the factors contributing to an unhealthy workplace by building on the advances in positive psychology and organizational scholarship over the last 15 years Handbook of Rehabilitation in Older Adults Robert J. Gatchel, Izabela Z. Schultz, Christopher T. Ray, 2019-02-27 This book discusses the state of the research and cutting edge practice with regard to chronic illnesses and rehabilitation in older adults It emphasizes biopsychosocial and culturally appropriate rehabilitation approaches to reduce the degree of disability and maximize independence in the activities of daily living among the burgeoning aging population Organized in four sections Introduction and Overview Major Illnesses and Problems in Aging Populations Evaluation of Functional Rehabilitation Approaches for Aging Populations and Future Clinical Research Needs the book includes chapters on the graying of the West with implications for increased chronic illnesses and disabilities a review of biopsychosocial rehabilitation approaches important aging issues such as slips and falls musculoskeletal pain chronic disabling conditions such as cancer and cardiovascular disease and work related factors to maintain work engagement in older workers The US Census Bureau projects that by the year 2030 about 20% of the U S population will be 65 or older contributing to the increased concern about healthcare and rehabilitation issues among older adults div This work will be of interest to healthcare rehabilitation vocational human resource and disability management professionals policy makers as well as researchers in areas of aging gerontology chronic illness disability rehabilitation social work medicine and psychology The Cultural Context of Aging Jay Sokolovsky, 2020-06-09 From the laughing clubs of India and robotic granny minders of Japan to the Flexsecurity system of Denmark and the elderscapes of Florida experts in this collection bring readers cutting edge and future focused approaches to our aging population worldwide In this fourth edition of an award winning text on the consequences of global aging a team of expert anthropologists and other social scientists presents the issues and possible solutions as our population over age 60 rises to double that of the year 2000 Chapters describe how the consequences of global aging will influence life in the 21st century in relation to biological limits on the human life span cultural construction of the life cycle generational exchange and kinship makeup of households and community and attitudes toward disability and death This completely revised edition includes 20 new chapters covering China Japan Denmark India West and East Africa Indonesia Mexico Peru indigenous Amazonia rural Italy and the ethnic landscape of the United States A popular feature is an integrated set of web book chapters listed in the contents discussed in chapter introductions and available on the book s web site Waiting on Retirement Mary Gatta,2018-10-02 America is witnessing a retirement crisis As the labor market shifts to the gig economy and new strains restrict social security the American Dream of secure retirement becomes further out of reach for up to half of the population In Waiting on Retirement Mary Gatta takes the case of restaurant workers to examine the experiences of low wage workers who are middle aged aging and past retirement age She deftly explores the many factors shaping what it means to grow old in economic insecurity as her subjects face race and gender based inequities health hazards associated with their work and the bitter reality that the older they get the fewer professional opportunities are available to them More importantly Gatta demonstrates that these problems are pervasive as more industries adopt the worst workplace practices of service work In light of these trends we must consider the devastating effects on already vulnerable Americans because as Gatta contends this crisis does not need to be inevitable Taking as a model the small percentage of good restaurant jobs that exist she ultimately offers incisive commentary on what can be done to stave off this bleak future Directions in Sound WFIU (Radio station : Bloomington, Ind.),2015 Im Strudel Frank Uekötter,2020-09-16 Vor 500 Jahren war der Eukalyptus ein in Australien heimischer Baum der Dodo lebte friedlich auf einer Insel im indischen Ozean und Holz war das wichtigste Brennmaterial Heute gibt es rund um den Globus Eukalyptusplantagen der Dodo ist ausgestorben und die Welt verbraucht jeden Tag 95 Millionen Barrel Erdöl Menschen und Materialien sind in nie gekanntem Umfang in Bewegung die kologischen Folgen unseres Lebensstils sind Schlüsselthemen der Weltpolitik Doch nur wenigen Menschen ist klar in welchem Ausmaß unser Reden und Handeln bei Umweltfragen von der Vergangenheit geprägt ist Die Krise der Gegenwart Klimawandel Umweltverschmutzung Artensterben versteht man aber erst dann wirklich wenn man sie als Ergebnis einer langen wechsellvollen Geschichte begreift Frank Uekötter verfolgt in dieser Umweltgeschichte der Moderne wie sich kologische Verwerfungen und Konflikte im Laufe der Jahrhunderte entwickelten Er zeigt zudem die politischen sozialen und wirtschaftlichen Faktoren hinter den weltweiten Weichenstellungen auf die von den reichen Gesellschaften des Westens geprägt wurden Technology and the American Economic Transition ,1988 Technology and Oligopoly Capitalism Luis

Suarez-Villa,2023-04-14 Technology and Oligopoly Capitalism is a major contribution to our understanding of how technology oligopolies are shaping America s social economic and political reality Technology oligopolies are the most powerful socioeconomic entities in America From cradle to grave the decisions they make affect the most intimate aspects of our lives how we work what we eat our health how we communicate what we know and believe whom we elect and how we relate to one another and to nature Their power over markets trade regulation and most every aspect of our governance is more intrusive and farther reaching than ever They benefit from tax breaks government guarantees and bailouts that we must pay for and have no control over Their accumulation of capital creates immense wealth for a minuscule elite deepening disparities while politics and governance become ever more subservient to their power They determine our skills and transform employment through the tools and services they create as no other organizations can They produce a vast array of goods and services with labor marketing and research that are more intrusively controlled than ever as workplace rights and job security are curtailed or disappear Our consumption of their products and their capacity to promote wants is deep and far reaching while the waste they generate raises concerns about the survival of life on our planet And their links to geopolitics and the martial domain are stronger than ever as they influence how warfare is waged and who will be vanquished Technology and Oligopoly Capitalism s critical multidisciplinary perspective provides a systemic vision of how oligopolistic power shapes these forces and phenomena An inclusive approach spans the spectrum of technology oligopolies and the ways in which they deploy their power Numerous previously unpublished ideas expand the repertory of established work on the topics covered advancing explanatory quality to elucidate how and why technology oligopolies operate as they do the dysfunctions that accompany their power and their effects on society and nature This book has no peers in the literature in its scope the unprecedented amount and diversity of documentation the breadth of concepts and the vast number of examples it provides Its premises deserve to be taken into account by every student researcher policymaker and author interested in the socioeconomic and political dimensions of technology in America The Women of NOW Katherine

Turk,2023-08-15 A clear blueprint for change A must read Clara Bingham The Guardian The history of NOW its organization trials and revolutionary mission told through the work of three members In the summer of 1966 crammed into a D C hotel suite twenty eight women devised a revolutionary plan Betty Friedan the well known author of The Feminine Mystique and Pauli Murray a lawyer at the front lines of the civil rights movement had called this renegade meeting from attendees at the annual conference of state women s commissions Fed up with waiting for government action and trying to work with a broken system they laid out a vision for an organization to unite all women and fight for their rights Alternately skeptical and energized they debated the idea late into the night In less than twenty four hours the National Organization for Women was born In The Women of NOW the historian Katherine Turk chronicles the growth and enduring influence of this foundational group through three lesser known members who became leaders Aileen Hernandez a federal official of Jamaican American heritage Mary Jean Collins a working class union organizer and Chicago Catholic and Patricia Hill Burnett a Michigan Republican artist and former beauty queen From its bold inception through the tumultuous training ground of the 1970s NOW's feminism flooded the nation permanently shifted American culture and politics and clashed with conservative forces presaging our fractured national landscape These women built an organization that was radical in its time but flexible and expansive enough to become a mainstream fixture This is the story of how they built it and built it to last Includes 16 pages of black and white images Communication, Advocacy, and Work/Family Balance Jenny Dixon, 2017-06-26 This book presents an understanding of work family balance for working adults belonging to a number of different family structures e g single and or childfree adults LGBT couples families with female breadwinners It contends that family structure should serve as a way of thinking about diversity i e race gender age family in the U S workplace It also argues that in addition to accommodations occurring through workplace policy the negotiation of work family balance happens as a result of self advocacy that occurs in everyday communication about family at work Relaying the stories of a number of different working adults belonging to a variety of different family structures it explores the range of obstacles faced in the attempt at balancing work and family life generates informed ideas for eliminating barriers commonly experienced in balancing work and family and problematizes enduring assumptions regarding gender roles and the myth of steadfast public and private spheres

Over Work Brigid Schulte, 2024-09-17 Brigid Schulte is a vital voice on the future of work and her carefully researched book lights the way to fewer hours less stress and more meaning Adam Grant 1 New York Times bestselling author of Think Again and Hidden Potential and host of the podcast WorkLife From the New York Times bestselling author of Overwhelmed a deeply reported exploration of why American work isn't working and how our lives can be made more meaningful Following Overwhelmed Brigid Schulte's groundbreaking examination of time management and stress the prizewinning journalist now turns her attention to the greatest culprit in America's quality of life crisis the way our economy and culture conceive of work Americans across all demographics industries and socioeconomic levels report exhaustion burnout and the wish for more meaningful lives This full system failure in our structure of work affects everything from gender inequality to domestic stability and it even shortens our lifespans Drawing on years of research Schulte traces the arc of our discontent from a time before the 1980s when work was compatible with well being and allowed a single earner to support a family until today with millions of people working multiple hourly jobs or in white collar positions where no hours are ever off duty She casts a wide net in search of solutions exploring the movement to institute a four day workweek introducing Japan's Housewives Brigade which demands legal protection for family time and embedding with CEOs who are making the business case for humane conditions And she demonstrates the power of a collective and creative demand for change showing that work can be organized in an infinite number of ways that are good for humans and for business Fiercely argued and vividly told rich with stories and informed by deep investigation Over Work lays out a clear vision for ending our punishing grind and reclaiming leisure joy and meaning Dreams of the Overworked Christine M. Beckman, Melissa Mazmanian, 2020-06-09 A riveting look at the real reasons Americans feel inadequate in the face of their dreams and a call to celebrate how we support one another in the service of family and work in our daily life Jay's days are filled with back to back meetings but he always leaves work in time to pick his daughter up from swimming at 7pm knowing he'll be back on his laptop later that night Linda thinks wistfully of the treadmill in her garage as she finishes folding the laundry that's been in the dryer for the last week Rebecca sits with one child in front of a packet of math homework while three others clamor for her attention In Dreams of the Overworked Christine M Beckman and Melissa Mazmanian offer vivid sketches of daily life for nine families capturing what it means to live work and parent in a world of impossible expectations now amplified unlike ever before by smart devices We are invited into homes and offices where we recognize the crushing pressure of unraveling plans and the healing warmth of being together Moreover we witness the constant planning that goes into a good day often with the aid of phones and apps Yet as technologies empower us to do more they also promise limitless availability and connection Checking email on the weekend monitoring screen time and counting steps are all part of the daily routine The stories in this book challenge the seductive myth of the phone clad individual by showing that beneath the plastic veneer of technology is a complex hidden system of support our dreams being scaffolded by retired in laws friendly neighbors spouses and paid help This book makes a compelling case for celebrating the structures that allow us to strive for our dreams by supporting public policies and community organizations challenging workplace norms reimagining family and valuing the joy of human connection
