8 pages | 1796 words

INTRO: 1.1) Preamble: Joblessness is an evil that has been creating hurdles in the way of economic growth and development. Unemployment monster victimizing Pakistani. Various countries have tried to clean out the hurdle of unemployment however regrettably due to lack of proper planning and strategies this problem stays as it is. The rate of joblessness reveals the condition of the society. When there is high rate of joblessness, residents suffer a lot. There are different reasons for the widespread joblessness, these are manifold: illiteracy, abilities, experience, structural inequality, etc. Moreover, there are various terrible effects of unemployment on the society such as increase in criminal activity rates, frustration among individuals, and increase in suicides, income disparities and so numerous others. Amongst all the social evils, it is the worst problem as it leads to produce low income generation, as an outcome of it low demand for items and services and low performance occur. That indirectly leads to increase criminal activity rates, corruption in the society. FPCCI regional chairman Sheikh Abdul Waheed Shoe said that textile, engineering, plastic, leather, services and other are facing lack of experienced professionals though inexperienced labor force is offered everywhere. "There is substantial mismatch in market requirement and production of universities," 1.2) Historic Development: From the beginning, unemployment has actually been the biggest hurdle that causes waste of resources which is deteriorating the financial and social conditions of the society. High joblessness rate as tape-recorded in 1999 is 2.9%, in 2010 its 5.6%, in 2013 its 6%, and now its 6.2% estimated. It has actually been observed that it is more in rural areas than in city locations. As Industrial Advancement has been taken location working class gets job opportunities. With the passage of time, population increases that causes produce space in between the people and job opportunities. High joblessness rate in South Asian nations is an essential concern which should be kept in a lime light. It has negative effect on the economy as it raises the internal and external issues of the nation, such as; poverty, break down, social isolation that result in erosion of a healthy society. 1.3) Important Practical Issues: Here in Pakistan, There is a need to counter both male and female unemployment to raise the productivity of the society. People living under poverty line are 24% (2005-06) where disguised unemployment is at large. Due to cultural mindset people keep themselves away from education and became unskilled. These are the facets of Pakistan's unemployment. Moreover, citizens are in need of technical and vocational training, education system according to the requirements of the society. It has been observed that why unemployment is high in Pakistan and there are various effects of it on the society. More evils are producing in the society due to it. For instance there are social, economic, political aspects that are being badly affected by unemployment. It has been observed in this society that poverty and unemployment lead to create frustration, mental disorder. As people suffer financial strain the think about the wrong directions to earn and if through these bad intentions they do not earn to spend a...
