Dark Kenneth Andrew Holder Durrant,2012-08-16 This is not only my story its our story This is me 25 years on this earth I bring to you my progress report Embrace me with the same Love I placed into these poems I express my situation with failure the struggles which we are face with each day the challenges with Racism Power of the Government Through my experiences I seek better Dayz Workin hard to alter the ways of many people All I want from the people who reads my Poetry is to THINK Peace and Love Invisible Life E. Lynn Harris,2012-11-28 The re issue of a remarkable first novel by a young gay black author who fashioned a deeply moving and compelling coming of age story out of the highly controversial issues of bisexuality and AIDS Law school girlfriends and career choices were all part of Raymond Tyler s life but there were other more terrifying issues for him to confront Being black was tough enough but Raymond was becoming more and more conscious of sexual feelings that he knew weren t right He was completely committed to Sela his longtime girlfriend but his attraction to Kelvin whom he had met during his last year in law school had become more than just a friendship Fleeing to New York to escape both Sela and Kelvin Raymond finds himself more confused than ever before New relationships both male and female give him enormous pleasure but keep him from finding the inner peace and lasting love he so desperately desires The horrible illness and death of a friend eventually force Raymond at last to face the truth Algorithms of Attraction Anurag kumar,2024-12-24 Algorithms of Attraction is a heartwarming and hilarious romantic comedy that dives into the modern world of digital love where swipes matches and algorithms dictate our connections Emma a tech skeptic and self proclaimed dating disaster reluctantly downloads a popular dating app after a mix of loneliness and peer pressure She s skeptical of the entire process after all how could an algorithm truly understand love But when the app s AI matches her with seemingly perfect prospects Emma is pulled into the wild ride of digital romance As she navigates the quirky world of online dating Emma finds herself getting more entangled with the app s AI which not only guides her love life but offers unsolicited advice from wardrobe suggestions to personal life tips With each date she experiences a mix of disappointment awkwardness and surprisingly personal growth That s until one match a mysterious and seemingly perfect connection pushes Emma to confront her feelings about technology love and what truly makes a relationship work But as her relationship with the app deepens so does her bond with Daniel a non techie real life rival who seems to challenge everything the AI says about romance Struggling to reconcile her AI driven connections with the unpredictability of real world chemistry Emma faces an emotional crossroads Can algorithms define true love or does the best kind of connection happen outside the digital realm Algorithms of Attraction is a funny insightful journey that explores how love in all its messy imperfect glory can never truly be controlled by a machine It s a story of learning to trust your instincts take risks and embrace the unpredictability of love in a digital age The Mysteries of London (Complete) George William MacArthur Reynolds,2020-09-28 BETWEEN the 10th and 13th centuries Civilisation withdrew from Egypt and Syria rested for a little space at Constantinople and then passed away to the western climes of Europe From that period these climes have been the grand laboratory in which Civilisation has wrought out refinement in every art and every science and whence it has diffused its benefits over the earth It has taught commerce to plough the waves of every sea with the adventurous keel it has enabled handfuls of disciplined warriors to subdue the mighty armaments of oriental princes and its daring sons have planted its banners amidst the eternal ice of the poles It has cut down the primitive forests of America carried trade into the interior of Africa annihilated time and distance by the aid of steam and now contemplates how to force a passage through Suez and Panama The bounties of Civilisation are at present almost everywhere recognised Nevertheless for centuries has Civilisation established and for centuries will it maintain its headquarters in the great cities of Western Europe and with Civilisation does Vice go hand in hand Amongst these cities there is one in which contrasts of a strange nature exist The most unbounded wealth is the neighbour of the most hideous poverty the most gorgeous pomp is placed in strong relief by the most deplorable squalor the most seducing luxury is only separated by a narrow wall from the most appalling misery The crumbs which fall from the tables of the rich would appear delicious viands to starving millions and yet those millions obtain them not In that city there are in all districts five prominent buildings the church in which the pious pray the gin palace to which the wretched poor resort to drown their sorrows the pawnbroker s where miserable creatures pledge their raiment and their children s raiment even unto the last rag to obtain the means of purchasing food and alas too often intoxicating drink the prison where the victims of a vitiated condition of society expiate the crimes to which they have been driven by starvation and despair and the workhouse to which the destitute the aged and the friendless hasten to lay down their aching heads and die And congregated together in one district of this city in an assemblage of palaces whence emanate by night the delicious sounds of music within whose walls the foot treads upon rich carpets whose sideboards are covered with plate whose cellars contain the choicest nectar of the temperate and torrid zones and whose inmates recline beneath velvet canopies feast at each meal upon the collated produce of four worlds and scarcely have to breathe a wish before they find it gratified
