Rehabilitation of the Older Person Amanda J. Squires,Margaret B. Hastings,2002 Readers will be able to gain knowledge of how to manage older people with difficult conditions and in different environments Much of the work of the professionals in this area has changed as a result of NHS reforms new practices and patient demands Social Work with Older People Karin Crawford,Janet Walker,2008-08-08 This second edition looks in detail at the role of the social worker who engages with older people It enables the reader to develop the key skills required to understand the mental and physical needs of older people in society while encouraging plenty of discussion and critical independent thought Furthermore this book is a source of contemporary research and offers the reader insights into government legislation and policy It is an essential read for any student who wants to develop a distinctive focus on social work with older people Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing Richard A. Griffith,Bridgit Dimond,Iwan Dowie,2019 Written specifically for student nurses as well as those already in practice Dimond s Legal Aspects of Nursing is your essential practical guide to the legal principles you need to be aware of in your everyday nursing practice Building on previous editions of the book by Bridgit Dimond this 8th edition has been significantly reworked by a new author team with extensive experience in teaching nursing law It has also been fully updated and revised in line with recent legal developments and the new Nursing standards to ensure it continues to meet the requirements of nursing law modules Legal Aspects of Occupational Therapy Bridgit C. Dimond, 2011-08-02

Since publication of the original edition in 1996 this book has established itself as an essential text for occupational therapists. It offers an understanding of the law relating to their practice but is written to be accessible for those who have no prior legal knowledge. The text provides valuable information for occupational therapists employed in health and social services as well as the law relevant to private practitioners. The book includes chapters on all the main client groups and presents the relevant specialist law. Students and teachers of occupational therapy will find the chapters on professional registration, education, training and research of particular interest. The third edition has been substantially revised to cover significant changes in legislation since the previous version. There is also a brand new chapter on the subject of death and dying. Legal Aspects of Occupational Therapy remains a key resource for the occupational therapy student, practitioner and service manager.

Healthcare Support Workers Richard Griffin, 2022-08-26 NHS support workers such as nursing Healthcare Assistants, Maternity Support Workers and Therapy Assistants often provide the majority of face to face care to patients, clients and their families. This accessible guide explores the issues underpinning their recruitment, training, management, development and progression. NHS support workers comprise four out of ten of the clinical workforce yet despite their importance they have long faced barriers that mean they are not able to fully realise their potential. This is the first book to take a comprehensive look at this workforce: its history, the policy that shapes its recruitment, management and deployment, and explains clearly how their capacity and capability can be safely and effectively enhanced. Structured around the employment cycle, this text covers the introduction of Technical Levels, career changes, apprenticeships, recruitment and selection, informal learning, learning cultures, widening participation, supervision and functional skills. Providing practical, evidence-based guidance and including illustrative case studies, it suggests a range of interventions to overcome the long-standing barriers to the effective development and deployment of healthcare support workers. Drawing on the latest research and practice, including the author's own experience, this book is an important resource for all those educating, managing or recruiting unregistered healthcare practitioners. It will also provide invaluable guidance to healthcare support workers interested in progressing their careers.
