Soul Recovery and Extraction Eileen Nauman,Ai Gvndi Waya,2014-10-01 Spiritually one can lose a soul piece by giving power away to someone or something else Soul recovery is about regaining the fragments of one s soul energy that have been trapped lost or stolen either by another person or lost through a traumatic incident The heart of this shamanistic healing method is taking back control of your life Shamanism in the simplest definition is the ability of an individual to move into an altered state and travel the inner dimensions of what we call nonphysical reality This technique is as old as human existence It is practiced around the world and in the past decade it has been reintroduced to Western civilization although among indigenous cultures shamanism continues to be practiced as a healing tool without interruption Extraction is another tool within the shamanistic tradition that dissolves blocks from our bodies or the aura of electromagnetic energy that surrounds us These blocks can affect us physically as well as mentally emotionally or spiritually and with a shaman s expertise they can be removed

The Great Facilitator Barry J. Babin,Marko Sarstedt,2019-03-18 This commemorative volume honors the contributions of Prof Joseph F Hair Jr who through his writings leadership and mentoring has had a profound influence on marketing and other fields of business research He is widely known for sidestepping mathematically complex ways of teaching statistical approaches with an eye toward making the tools accessible to the average behavioral researcher Joe is also a bona fide researcher whose work has had a massive impact on marketing and business research in general The book provides revealing insights on his works and acknowledges his role as an outstanding teacher and mentor who has shaped generations of researchers

Workshop: The Art of Creative Inquiry Warren Linds,Tony Gee,2023-06-26 This book explores tools and techniques for creating the arts with groups It provides insights into why workshops are such an effective and relevant form of creative practice Throughout two experienced practitioners share successful principles and qualities They also include examples of workshops that explore ways of facilitating creative exploration The authors believe that underpinning any good workshop practice is an understanding of what constitutes a workshop This is a process in which the relationship between artist researcher and participant audience maker and witness is fluid It extends each individual s abilities and connects doing to learning to inquiring in a single process The book itself is a dialogue on and an investigation into this practice It fully explores the specificities of workshop practice in relation to how it engages others in arts based research Readers learn how workshops involve inquiry into six areas inquiry into subjects artistic processes skills self the world and relationships with others In the end this informed investigation helps practitioners to better reflect on their own approaches to arts based inquiry and research This in turn leads to a better understanding of how readers can use workshops for the maximum benefit of all participants both individuals and groups

Architectural Robotics Keith Evan Green, 2016-02-12 How a built environment that is robotic and interactive becomes an apt home to our restless dynamic and increasingly digital society The relationship of humans to computers can no longer be represented as one person in a chair and one computer on a desk Today computing finds its way into our pockets our cars our appliances it is ubiquitous an inescapable part of our everyday lives Computing is even expanding beyond our devices sensors microcontrollers and actuators are increasingly embedded into the built environment In Architectural Robotics Keith Evan Green looks toward the next frontier in computing interactive partly intelligent meticulously designed physical environments Green examines how these architectural robotic systems will support and augment us at work school and home as we roam interconnect and age Green tells the stories of three projects from his research lab that exemplify the reconfigurable distributed and transfigurable environments of architectural robotics The Animated Work Environment is a robotic work environment of shape shifting physical space that responds dynamically to the working life of the people within it home is a suite of networked distributed robotic furnishings integrated into existing domestic and healthcare environments and LIT ROOM offers a simulated environment in which the physical space of a room merges with the imaginary space of a book becoming a portal to elsewhere How far beyond workstations furniture and rooms can the environments of architectural robotics stretch Green imagines scaled up neighborhoods villages and metropolises composed of physical bits digital bytes living things and their hybrids Not global but local architectural robotics grounds computing in a capacious cyber physical home

Baby Markets Michele Goodwin, 2010-02-26 Creating families can no longer be described by heterosexual reproduction in the intimacy of a couple s home and the privacy of their bedroom To the contrary babies can be brought into families through complex matrixes involving lawyers coordinators surrogates brokers donors sellers endocrinologists and without any traditional forms of intimacy In direct response to the need and desire to parent men women and couples gay and straight have turned to viable alternative means baby markets This book examines the ways in which Westerners create families through private market processes From homosexual couples skirting Mother Nature by going to the assisted reproductive realm and buying the sperm or ova that will complete the reproductive process to Americans travelling abroad to acquire children in China Korea or Ethiopia market dynamics influence how babies and toddlers come into Western families Michele Goodwin and a group of contributing experts explore how financial interests aesthetic preferences pop culture children s needs race class sex religion and social customs influences the law and economics of baby markets

Face-to-Face with Lois and Eunice Janet Thompson, 2012-01-01 Lois and Eunice followed the numerous Scriptures instructing one generation to pass on their faith to the next generation and young Timothy grew up to be a second generation leader of the early church Often mentoring focuses on reaching out to others but as parents and grandparents the first line of mentoring should be within your own family a concept repeated throughout the Bible The Bible has many devastating examples of parents who were poor role models or didn t rear their children to know God as well good and faithful parents whose children wandered away from God Face to Face with Lois and Eunice focuses on how women today can be grandmothers mothers aunts and mentors whose faith takes root in the next generation

Person-Centered Arts Practices with Communities Dr. Felicia Low, 2018-12-12 Are you an artist who works with a variety of communities Are you interested to deepen and expand on the meaning of your work This book presents a pedagogical framework which aims to guide the practices of artists who work with communities. It presents the social, personal, cognitive and cultural dimensions of a person-centred approach in a dynamic interwoven manner which will enrich your practice through a thorough process of reflection, evaluation and co-creation. In my journey as a dance therapist, I have pondered the issue of professional boundaries: where does the dance artist end and the dance therapist begin? My inclination has veered towards a democratic perspective, recognizing the great work community artists (non-therapist) can achieve. At the same time, I have been aware that artists working with groups such as I (people with dementia) required something beyond arts skills in order to facilitate inclusive, participatory and life-enhancing activities. Dr Low addresses this issue exactly. She provides a coherent and impressive theoretical framework to underpin the work of the person-centred arts facilitator and offers practical guidelines for setting up and running arts programs which are sensitive to context. The aim of this book is a worthy one in its encouragement to develop arts activities which become, in Dr Low's words, an active means of growth for the participants. From my experience, I also know how enriching a person-centred approach is for the arts facilitator, which is why the following remark by Dr Low on the value of working in a person-centred way resonates with me: for this is a practice that will never stagnate, never come to a closed conclusion, because communities too never stagnate and come to closed conclusions. Dr Heather Hill, dance movement therapist for over 30 years, now consultant in dance and person-centred practice in dementia.
