History of South Africa Thula Simpson,2022-09-01 South Africa was born in war, has been cursed by crises and ruptures and today stands on a precipice once again. This book explores the country's tumultuous journey from the Second Anglo-Boer War to 2021. Drawing on diaries, letters, oral testimony and diplomatic reports, Thula Simpson follows the South African people through the battles, elections, repression, resistance, strikes, insurrections, massacres, crashes and epidemics that have shaped the nation. Tracking South Africa's path from colony to Union and from apartheid to democracy, Simpson documents the influence of key figures including Jan Smuts, Nelson Mandela, Steve Biko, P. W. Botha, Thabo Mbeki and Cyril Ramaphosa. He offers detailed accounts of watershed events like the 1922 Rand Revolt, the Defiance Campaign, Sharpeville, the Soweto uprising and the Marikana massacre. He sheds light on the roles of Gandhi, Churchill, Castro and Thatcher and explores the impact of the World Wars, the armed struggle and the Border War. Simpson's history charts the post-apartheid transition and the phases of ANC rule from Rainbow Nation to transformation, state capture to New Dawn. Along the way, it reveals the divisions and solidarities of sport, the nation's economic travails and painful pandemics from the Spanish flu to AIDS and Covid-19.

Wild Analysis Shaul Bar-Haim, Elizabeth Sarah Coles, Helen Tyson, 2021-10-12 Winner of the 2022 Grady Award for Best Edited Book This book argues that the notion of wild analysis a term coined by Freud to denote the use of would be psychoanalytic notions diagnoses and treatment by an individual who has not undergone psychoanalytic training also provides us with a striking new way of exploring the limits of psychoanalysis Wild Analysis From the Couch to Cultural and Political Life proposes to reopen the question of so called wild analysis by exploring psychoanalytic ideas at their limits arguing from a diverse range of perspectives that the thinking produced at these limits where psychoanalysis strays into other disciplines and vice versa as well as moments of impasse in its own theoretical canon points toward new futures for both psychoanalysis and the humanities The book's twelve essays pursue fault lines, dissonances and new resonances in established psychoanalytic theory often by moving its insights radically further afield These essays take on sensitive and difficult topics in twentieth century cultural and political life including representations of illness, forced migration and the experiences of refugees and questions of racial identity and identification in post war and post apartheid periods as well as contemporary debates surrounding the Enlightenment and its modern invocations, the practice of critique and paranoid reading Others explore more acute cases of wilding such as models of education and research informed by the insights of psychoanalysis or instances where psychoanalysis strays into taboo political and cultural territory as in Freud's references to cannibalism This book will be of interest to researchers, practitioners and students working across the fields of psychoanalysis, history, literature, culture and politics and to anyone with an interest in the political import of psychoanalytic thought today

Transforming Higher Education Through Universal Design for Learning Seán Bracken, Katie Novak, 2019-02-21
Providing insight into the background theory and practical applications of Universal Design for Learning (UDL), Transforming Higher Education through Universal Design for Learning: An International Perspective examines and shares best practice in UDL implementation worldwide to provide strategies for strengthening student accessibility, engagement and learning outcomes through the development of flexible learning environments. Drawing upon insightful research-based contributions from educators and student service specialists in Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Ireland, Israel, Norway, South Africa, Spain, the UK and all across the USA, this book considers diversity in the form of disability, minority ethnic groups, gender identities, first generation university students and varying socio-economic backgrounds. Bringing together key thinkers and actors in the field of UDL and expertly mapping its practices to the higher educational domain, it explores the multiple means of representation, expression and engagement that combine to create a successful UDL framework. Each chapter not only provides a different perspective of how UDL has helped meet the needs of all students to ensure that education is accessible, culturally responsive and socially just, but also considers how this can then be implemented into higher education environments the world over. This book is a crucial read for those who want to make a positive difference in higher education provision and outcomes.

Inyathi Ibuzwa Kwabaphambili Babalwa Magoqwana, Siphokazi Magadla, Athambile Masola, 2024-10-21 This book seeks to create a systematic, eclectic historical picture of the present and past women intellectuals, activists, artists and cultural custodians. Using the concept of ukufukama (incubate), we connect intergenerational knowledge transfer of our elders to the current struggles faced by the younger generation of women. We bring together different authors who engage the biographical and intellectual contributions of different African women and their imagination of the democratic South Africa. Writing about the various feminist intellectual traditions between the 19th and 21st centuries, this book systematically pulls together oral and creative texts to recover the memories of Nosuthu Jotelo, Sarah Baartman, Nontsizi Mgwetho, Phyllis

Ntantala Brigalia Bam Umntwana uMagogo Miriam Makeba Sibongile Khumalo Lebo Mathosa Thandiswa Mazwai Celeste Ntuli Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma Neo Mathabe among the lives and works covered here This range of voices shows that intellectual work is varied and has the ability to sit alongside each other It importantly shows that scholarship emerges through community and conversation which is to say feminist histories are created and recreated through conversations that care about women s voices stories and being in the world Ultimately we think of the women featured in this book as forming a lineage a tradition of black women s survival wisdom which facilitated change and enduring radical transformation that demands theorisation and celebration
