Character, Circumstances, and Criminal Careers Per-Olof H. Wikstrom,2024 Dilemmas in Public Management in Greater China and Australia Andrew Podger,Hon S. Chan,Tsai-tsu Su,John Wanna,2023-07-12 This book draws on more than a decade of workshops organised by the Greater China Australia Dialogue on Public Administration involving scholars and practitioners from Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Australia Although these workshops recognised the major differences in the institutional frameworks of these jurisdictions until recently they focused largely on the shared challenges and the diffusion of ideas and approaches As rising international tensions inevitably draw attention to areas where interests and philosophies diverge it is the differences that must now be highlighted Yet despite the tensions this book reveals that these jurisdictions continue to address shared challenges in public administration The book s contributors focus in detail on these four areas 1 intergovernmental relations including the shifting balance between centralisation and decentralisation 2 budgeting and financial management including during and after the COVID 19 pandemic 3 the civil service its capability and its relationship with government and the public 4 service delivery particularly in health and aged care This book is aimed at a wide readership not only at those within the jurisdictions it explores It emphasises the importance of continued engagement in understanding different approaches to public administration confirming fundamental philosophical differences where necessary but also looking for common ground and opportunities for shared learning Answers to Objections Source Book Heidi Heiks,2015-12-14 This fourth volume written by Heidi Heiks is dedicated to the prophetic periods of Daniel and Revelation It addresses twenty objections and other issues that Heiks feels demand clarification All objections are for the years and events connected to AD 508 and AD 538 Readers will find that Heiks clarifies documentation and resolves all the best arguments brought against what he considers and has presented as correct interpretation The author also includes the Source Books bibliographies which are a great resource for any scholar historian or layperson doing research A Ransom for Many John J. R. Lee,Daniel Brueske,2023-04-26 Not to be served but to serve Unlike the Gospels of Luke and John Mark s Gospel never explicitly reveals any authorial intent In A Ransom for Many John J R Lee and Daniel Brueske identify Mark 10 45 as the heart of Mark s Gospel This single verse is the pivot point of Mark s structure themes and message Mark 10 45 is the key that unlocks the Gospel s unique focus on true discipleship Learn how Jesus s faithfulness is both a summons and pattern for all who carry their cross and follow him New Models for Managing Longevity Risk Olivia S. Mitchell,2022 Longevity at older ages is likely to continue to rise in the medium and longer term This volume explores how the private and public sectors can collaborate via public private partnerships PPPs to develop new mechanisms to reduce older people s risk of outliving their assets in later life Carl W. Blegen Jack L. Davis,Vasiliki Florou,Natalia Vogeikoff-Brogan,2015-01-01 Carl Blegen is the most famous American archaeologist ever to work in Greece and no American has ever had a greater impact on Greek archaeology Yet Blegen unlike several others of his generation has found no biographer In part the explanation for this must lie in the fact that his life was so multifaceted not only was he instrumental in creating the field of Aegean prehistory but Blegen his wife and their best friends the Hills the family were also significant forces in the social and intellectual community of Athens Authors who have contributed to this book have each researched one aspect of Blegen s life drawing on copious documentation in the United States England and Greece The result is a biography that sets Blegen and his closest colleagues in the social and academic milieu that gave rise to the discipline of classical archaeology in Greece

Economic and Social Factors Affecting the Health of Older Adults Colette Joy Browning, Katherine Henrietta Leith, Shane Andrew Thomas, 2023-12-11 In 2020 over 1 billion of the world s population were over the age of 60 years old and it is expected to double by 2050 according to WHO Due to the growing population of older adults there is a focus on healthy aging that will benefit the individuals and the wider communities as older adults will be able to support family members and partake in paid or voluntary work for a longer period of time Currently a large number of older adults are unable to work increasing the likelihood of economic instability with fewer streams of income Economic instability has been proven to have health impacts including declining mental wellbeing malnutrition and the inability to afford prescribed medications Social isolation proves to be another important factor in the overall health of older adults The CDC reports that poor social interactions have been linked to a higher risk of developing multiple serious medical conditions Forsaking the Fall Daniel H. Spencer, 2023-03-31 Forsaking the Fall argues along exegetical theological and philosophical lines that the doctrines of the Fall and Original Sin need not be understood as integral components of orthodox Christianity By engaging biblical studies systematic theology and analytic philosophy the book provides a comprehensive understanding of the most important issues at play in the Original Sin debate as well as offers a set of tools for helping readers to think critically about the essence of the Christian faith and its relation to Original Sin Crucially it lays the theoretical groundwork for an orthodox nonlapsarianism and advances a novel theory vis vis the Fall and Original Sin in Christian theology This innovative and provocative book will be of interest to scholars of theology and philosophy specifically analytic theologians and philosophers of religion

Feminist Theology and Contemporary Dieting Culture Hannah Bacon, 2019-08-08 Hannah Bacon draws on qualitative research conducted inside one UK secular commercial weight loss group to show how Christian religious forms and theological discourses inform contemporary weight loss narratives Bacon argues that notions of sin and salvation resurface in secular guise in ways that repeat well established theological meanings The slimming organization recycles the Christian terminology of sin spelt Syn and encourages members to frame weight loss in salvific terms These theological tropes lurk in the background helping to align food once more with guilt and moral weakness but they also mirror to an extent the way body policing techniques in Christianity have historically helped to cultivate self care The self breaking and self making aspects of women s Syn watching practices in the group continue certain features of historical Christianity serving in similar ways to conform women's bodies to patriarchal norms while providing opportunities for women's self development. Taking into account these tensions, Bacon asks what a specifically feminist theological response to weight loss might look like. If ideas about sin and salvation service hegemonic discourses about fat while also empowering women to shape their own lives, how might they be rethought to challenge fat phobia and the frenetic pursuit of thinness? As well as naming as sin principles and practices which diminish women's appetites and bodies, this book forwards a number of proposals about how salvation might be performed in our everyday eating habits and through the cultivation of fat pride. It takes seriously the conviction of many women in the group that food and the body can be important sites of power, wisdom, and transformation, but channels this insight into the construction of theologies that resist rather than reproduce thin privilege and sizeist norms.
