Medicine and Surgery William Braithwaite, James Braithwaite, Edmond Fauriel Trevelyan, 1846 Being an analysis of the British and foreign medical journals and transactions or a selection of the latest discoveries and most practical observations in the practice of medicine surgery and the collateral sciences for the past year made chiefly with reference to the treatment of disease Church missionary intelligencer ,1867 Race Talk in the South African Media Gawie Botma, 2020-01-06

This book makes a very significant timely and relevant contribution to a very topical subject of immense local as well as global interest Through tracing the evolution of media discourse about race and racism which the author prefers to call race talk the writer prised open a window to a panoramic variegated and yet nuanced perspective of the perennial South African race question etched across the vistas of time and memory since Jan Van Riebeeck set up the first European settlement as a refreshment station for the Dutch East India Company at the Cape of Good Hope in 1652 up to the time of writing this book It lends a fresh lens through which to re read South African society not only to a studious scholar of media history but also to anybody interested in the general history of South Africa Dr Zvenyika Mugari WITS This book is based on meticulous archival searching presented in a new fresh and highly engaging way This is a book based on evidentiary led scholarly principles that has lucidity as a goal Unlike so many scholarly works which are turgid and very difficult to read because they are written in restricted codes meant only for other academics this manuscript is wonderfully lucid accessible and a pleasure to read The prime readership will be academics but its lucidity makes it appealing beyond a purely academic readership hopefully reaching media professionals and students also and influencing debates on race policy This is how academic books in fact should be written Prof Keyan Tomaselli University of Johannesburg The author has embarked on a very difficult and complex task of understanding the race construct in the South African media context This is a highly contested and contentious space in South Africa and it is particularly arduous for a white middle class middle aged Afrikaans male to navigate this space The author has however eloquently managed to pilot this fine line of controversy He offers a balanced view of the belligerent debate without treading insensitively on the toes of protagonists and at the same time challenges prevailing views Andr Rose National Cancer Institute Medical Times ,1840 The Church Missionary Record ,1858 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record ,1867 The Church Missionary Intelligencer The Church Missionary Society,2021-10-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 Reports of Cases Decided by the English Courts [1870-1883] Great Britain.
