Waldorf Schools and the History of Steiner Education Thomas Stehlik, 2019-10-31 This book marks the centenary of the first Waldorf School established by Rudolf Steiner in Stuttgart in 1919 With around 1 150 Waldorf Schools and over 1 800 Waldorf Kindergartens established in over 60 countries this book examines and analyses how the initial impulse of Steiner education has grown over the last century to become a worldwide alternative movement in education The author documents and compares the growth and development of Waldorf schools and Steiner inspired educational institutions around the world and determines the extent to which the original underpinning philosophy has been maintained against the contexts and challenges of contemporary global trends in education Within such diverse international contexts it is significant that the schools retain such a distinctive identity and clearly redefine how alternative education can be viewed This comprehensive volume will be of interest and value to scholars of Steiner education and Waldorf schools as well as alternative education more widely

Rudolf Steiner Heiner Ullrich, 2014-10-23 Rudolf Steiner is one of the most controversially judged educational reformers of the twentieth century Although he received little recognition within his field his educational thought has had a sustained and profound influence not only in the development of the Waldorf Schools but also in healing socially therapeutic work psychosomatic medicine biological dynamic agriculture corporate organisation fine arts and architecture Heiner Ullrich paints a concise and well grounded portrait of the creator of the anthroposophic doctrine and Waldorf pedagogy The text describes a wide arc from the intellectual biography of Rudolf Steiner across his basic ideas on human development and education to include discussion of the organisation curriculum methods and success of the Waldorf Schools Handbook of American Private Schools Porter Sargent, 1987 Cited in BCL3 and Sheehy The 73rd edition of this annual descriptive survey of independent education comprises free listings of 1 715 schools Each listing includes substantial statistical data as well as a descriptive paragraph which provides a historical summary of the school as well as a recounting of its most characteristic aspects A separate section comprises 300 paid illustrated announcements in which the schools themselves describe their programs and aims Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
