Union With Christ In Scripture History And Theology:

Union with Christ Robert Letham, 2011 Union with Christ is the central truth of the whole biblical teaching about salvation The entirety of our relationship with God can be summed up in this doctrine Yet when people ask what this union actually is we flounder The incarnation shows that God has made us to be united with him and God has given us his Word to enable us to understand the nature of this union Set out with Robert Letham to explore this doctrine from Scripture using help from the church fathers to modern theologians Publisher Union with Christ J. imagines the apprehended mystery of the atonement in light of the triune nature of God and the person and work of the incarnate Christ W Ross Hastings proposes participation as a theory or framework of atonement that holds all other models within it He argues that God s participation in humanity in order that humans might participate in God invites a total approach to the mystery of the atonement that is one that involves the whole Trinity the whole person and history of Christ and all the biblical motifs and theological models of atonement including penal substitution properly nuanced to overcome its caricatures Christus victor satisfaction vicarious life and moral exemplar Hastings re examines the scope of the atonement in light of these Trinitarian incarnational realities The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew Barrett,2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history the Bible theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology A New Creation in Christ T. Michael Christ,2024-08-08 What is the most important book on sanctification For John Murray it was Walter Marshall s The Gospel Mystery of Sanctification William Cowper praised Marshall I think Marshall one of the best and most spiritual expositors of Scripture The Marrow men also commended Marshall Even Andrew Murray believed Gospel Mystery to be the one book admitted by all to be the standard on sanctification Marshall s enduring value is well established yet scarcely any resources explain Marshall s theology T Michael Christ s A New Creation in Christ fills this void by exploring Marshall s theology in the context of the antinomian and neonomian controversies of Marshall s day At a time when interlocutors where pushing one another to further extremes Marshall achieves balance because he grounds sanctification in the believer s union with Christ and deploys two limiting concepts that discourage using one error to refute the other He insists both that some measure of assurance of salvation must precede actual works of holiness refuting neonomianims and that holiness is a necessary part of salvation countering antinomianism A New Creation in Christ explores how these limiting concepts translate into practical help for those who as Marshall says pursue holiness under the guilt and power of indwelling sin Sin and Salvation in Reformation England Jonathan Willis,2016-03-03 Notions of which behaviours comprised sin and what actions might lead to salvation sat at the heart of Christian belief and practice in early modern England but both of these vitally important concepts were fundamentally reconfigured by the reformation Remarkably little work has been undertaken exploring the ways in which these essential ideas were transformed by the religious changes of the sixteenth century In the field of reformation studies revisionist scholarship has underlined the vitality of late medieval English Christianity and the degree to which people remained committed to the practices of the Catholic Church up to the eve of the reformation including those dealing with the mortification of sin and the promise of salvation Such popular commitment to late medieval lay piety has in turn raised questions about how the reformation itself was able to take root Whilst post revisionist scholars have explored a wide range of religious beliefs and practices such as death providence angels and music there has been a surprising lack of engagement with the two central religious preoccupations of the vast majority of people To address this omission this collection focusses upon the history and theology of sin and salvation in reformation and post reformation England Exploring their complex social and cultural constructions it underlines how sin and salvation were not only great religious constants but also constantly evolving in order to survive in the rapidly transforming religious landscape of the reformation Drawing upon a range of disciplinary perspectives historical theological literary and material art historical to both reveal and explain the complexity of the concepts of sin and salvation the volume further illuminates a subject central to the nature and success of the Reformation itself Divided into four sections Part I explores reformers attempts to define and re define the theological concepts of sin and salvation while Part II looks at some of the ways in which sin and salvation were contested through confessional conflict polemic poetry and martyrology Part III focuses on the practical attempts of English divines to reform sin with respect to key religious practices while Part IV explores the significance of sin and salvation in the lived experience of both clergy and laity Evenly balancing contributions by established academics in the field with cutting edge contributions from junior researchers this collection breaks new ground in what one historian of the period has referred to as the social history of theology

Union with Christ Lewis B. Smedes, 1983 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable How can a person who lived nearly two thousand years ago radically change a human life here now How can Jesus of Nazareth radically affect us as persons to the depths of our being How can he reach out over the great span of time that divides us from him and change us so profoundly that we become new creatures in him The answer according to the Apostle Paul lies in the fact that Jesus Christ enters into union with us Lewis B Smedes believes that union with Christ is at once the center and circumference of authentic human existence Union with Christ is Smedes probing and sustained exegetical study of what Paul means when he speaks of our being in Christ and Christ being in us Hailed as a thoughtful discerning and thoroughly scriptural study when it was first published in 1970 under the title All Things Made New the book has been greatly streamlined in this edition By judiciously cutting away what now strikes him as scholarly clutter Smedes has produced a carefully condensed version of his earlier work while retaining its basic substance

Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier A. Garcia, 2019-10-14 In Recovering the Ecumenical Bonhoeffer Javier Garcia explores the possibilities for Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology to revitalize interest in the ecumenical movement and Christian unity today Although many commentators have lamented the waning interest in the ecumenical movement since the 1960s the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation in 2017 coupled with recent inroads such as the ecumenical efforts of Pope Francis have opened new possibilities for the ecumenical project In this context Garcia presents Bonhoeffer as a helpful model for contemporary ecumenical dialogue He finds important points of convergence between Bonhoeffer and Calvin thereby establishing potential areas of rapprochement between the Lutheran and Reformed traditions Beyond examining the state of ecumenism and unfolding the ecumenical promise of Bonhoeffer's thought Garcia assesses the future of ecumenical engagement in a secular age Altogether he proposes a recovery of the ecumenical Bonhoeffer for envisioning new possibilities for church unity in our day Ultimate Guide to Heaven and Hell E. The Covenant of Redemption John V. Fesko, 2015-12-09 The covenant of redemption pactum salutis the eternal intra trinitarian covenant was a common staple within Early Modern Reformed theology yet there are very few historical works that examine this doctrine J V Fesko s study The Covenant of Redemption Origins Development and Reception seeks to address this lacuna In the contemporary period the covenant of redemption has been derided as speculative mythological a declension from trinitarianism or erroneously derived from one or two biblical proof texts Yet seldom have critics carefully engaged the primary sources to examine the different formulations supporting exegesis and ways in which the doctrine was employed Far from speculation sub trinitarian or a cold business transaction proponents of the covenant of redemption constructed this doctrine based upon a web of interconnected biblical texts and were very sensitive to maintaining a robust doctrine of the trinity as they employed this doctrine as a bulwark against the anti trinitarian claims of Socinian theologians Proponents of the doctrine also saw this pre temporal covenant as the embodiment of intra trinitarian love that overflows unto those chosen in Christ for their salvation and ultimate fellowship with the triune God John V Fesko explores the historical origins of the doctrine and then surveys its development in the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries examining key advocates of the doctrine including David Dickson Herman Witsius Johannes Cocceius Francis Turretin Patrick Gillespie John Gill Jonathan Edwards Charles Hodge and A A Hodge He then examines the contemporary reception of the doctrine in the twentieth century with a survey of the doctrine s critics including Karl Barth Herman Hoeksema Klaas Schilder and John Murray After exploring the claims of the critics the study moves to examine the views of twentieth century proponents including Geerhardus Vos Herman Bavinck Abraham Kuyper Louis Berkhof and G C Berkouwer

Justification, Volume 2 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The second of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it is often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 2 embarks on the theologically constructive task of investigating the biblical doctrine of justification in light of contemporary exegesis Taking up the topic from a variety of theological vantage points Horton engages with contemporary debates in biblical especially Pauline scholarship Part 1 draws out The Horizon of Justification from the Old Testament narratives of Adam and Israel Part 2 defines The Achievement of Justification in the blood of Christ and seeks to lay the groundwork for understanding its extent Part 3 focuses on The Gift of Righteousness delving into a clear articulation of what justification means its mechanism and the role of works on the day of judgement Part 4 proposes a way forward for Receiving Justification and understanding faith and justification within the broader framework of union with Christ Engaging and thorough Justification shows that the doctrine of justification finds its most ecumenically significant starting point and proper habitat in unity with Christ where the greatest consensus past and present is to be found among Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant theologies
