Handbook of Dynamic Data Driven Applications Systems Frederica Darema, Erik P. Blasch, Sai Ravela, Alex J. Aved, 2023-09-14 This Second Volume in the series Handbook of Dynamic Data Driven Applications Systems DDDAS expands the scope of the methods and the application areas presented in the first Volume and aims to provide additional and extended content of the increasing set of science and engineering advances for new capabilities enabled through DDDAS The methods and examples of breakthroughs presented in the book series capture the DDDAS paradigm and its scientific and technological impact and benefits The DDDAS paradigm and the ensuing DDDAS based frameworks for systems analysis and design have been shown to engender new and advanced capabilities for understanding analysis and management of engineered natural and societal systems applications systems and for the commensurate wide set of scientific and engineering fields and applications as well as foundational areas The DDDAS book series aims to be a reference source of many of the important research and development efforts conducted under the rubric of DDDAS and to also inspire the broader communities of researchers and developers about the potential in their respective areas of interest of the application and the exploitation of the DDDAS paradigm and the ensuing frameworks through the examples and case studies presented either within their own field or other fields of study As in the first volume the chapters in this book reflect research work conducted over the years starting in the 1990 s to the present Here the theory and application content are considered for Foundational Methods Materials

Systems Structural Systems Energy Systems Environmental Systems Domain Assessment address challenges that ML alone does not and also show how ML in combination with DDDAS based methods can deliver the advanced capabilities sought likewise infusion of DDDAS like approaches in NN methods strengthens such methods Moreover the DDDAS based Digital Twin or Dynamic Digital Twin goes beyond the traditional DT notion where the model and the physical system are viewed side by side in a static way to a paradigm where the model dynamically interacts with the physical system through its instrumentation per the DDDAS feed back control loop between model and instrumentation

Technologies and Applications for Smart Charging of Electric and Plug-in Hybrid Vehicles Ottorino Veneri, 2016-12-30 This book outlines issues related to massive integration of electric and plug in hybrid electric vehicles into power grids Electricity is becoming the preferred energy vector for the next new generation of road vehicles It is widely acknowledged that road vehicles based on full electric or hybrid drives can mitigate problems related to fossil fuel dependence This book explains the emerging and understanding of storage systems for electric and plug in hybrid vehicles The recharging stations for these types of vehicles might represent a great advantage for the electric grid by facilitating integration of renewable and distributed energy production This book presents a broad review from analyzing current literature to on going research projects about the new power technologies related to the various charging architectures for electric and plug in hybrid vehicles Specifically focusing on DC fast charging operations as well as grid connected power converters and the full range of energy storage systems These key components are analyzed for distributed generation and charging system integration into micro grids The authors demonstrate that these storage systems represent effective interfaces for the control and management of renewable and sustainable distributed energy resources New standards and applications are emerging from micro grid pilot projects around the world and case studies demonstrate the convenience and feasibility of distributed energy management The material in this unique volume discusses potential avenues for further research toward achieving more reliable more secure and cleaner energy      Social Memory as a Force for Social and Economic Transformation Muxe Nkondo,2023-02-01 This volume of essays is a reflection on social memory as a force for social and economic transformation Written by scholars and organic intellectuals it focuses on the uses of social memory in particular the conflict between the legacies of colonialism and the movement for fundamental change The content addresses both experts and ordinary citizens alike with a view to advancing discourse on where we are right now and how we move on from here to achieve meaningful transformation As scholars and public representatives with a deep understanding of the social economic and political dynamics of modern history of South Africa the contributors offer their unique perspectives and reflections on history politics economics culture education ethics and the arts as well as the links that bind these aspects into an ecology of ideas and attitudes      Architecture, State Modernism and Cultural Nationalism in the Apartheid

Capital Hilton Judin,2021-04-08 This book is the first comprehensive investigation of the architecture of the apartheid state in the period of rapid economic growth and political repression from 1957 to 1966 when buildings took on an ideological role that was never remote from the increasingly dominant administrative legislative and policing mechanisms of the regime It considers how this process reflected the usurpation of a regional modernism and looks to contribute to wider discourses on international postwar modernism in architecture Buildings in Pretoria that came to embody ambitions of the apartheid state for industrialisation and progress serve as case studies These were widely acclaimed projects that embodied for apartheid officials the pursuit of modernisation but carried latent apprehensions of Afrikaners about their growing economic prospects and cultural estrangement in Africa It is a less known and marginal story due to the dearth of material and documents buried in archives and untranslated documents Many of the documents drawings and photographs in the book are unpublished and include classified material and photographs from the National Nuclear Research Centre negatives of 1960s from Pretoria News and documents and pamphlets from Afrikaner Broederbond archives State architecture became the most iconic public manifestation of an evolving expression of white cultural identity as a new generation of architects in Pretoria took up the challenge of finding form to their prospects and beliefs It was an opportunistic faith in Afrikaners who urgently needed to entrench their vulnerable and contested position on the African continent The shift from provincial town to apartheid capital was swift and relentless Little was left to stand in the way of the ambitions and aim of the state as people were uprooted and forcibly relocated structures torn down and block upon block of administration towers and slabs erected across Pretoria This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of architectural history as well as those with an interest in postcolonial studies political science and social anthropology      Biodiesel Technology and Applications Inamuddin,Mohd Imran
