

Requirements: web online

Students will be required to have access to a computer and the internet with Microsoft Office, Adobe Reader, Internet Explorer 7 or higher or Firefox (or Safari).

In the interests of speed of contact, quality of delivery, and of developing a truly computer-based manager, all students are strongly encouraged to make use of web online.

Language Medium

Prescribed material is available in English. Students should submit assignments and do examinations in English. The language medium for study schools is English.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Application for admission must be made from October each year. The closing date for applications is during December of the latter year. Late applications will be considered. Successful students will be notified by e-mail not later than end of February of the following year.

The application form is included in this brochure or visit the UoSA website www.uosasa.co.za. A clear photograph of the form can be used. The application form must be completed, signed and accompanied by the required documents as set out in section 2.1.4.4 of the application form. All correspondence will be done via e-mail. Please ensure that all details are correctly recorded on the application form.

Once admission is approved, student registration will take place from December to mid January.

Study material and required textbooks

A student's registration must be studied by the administration of the university before any textbooks can be issued. All prescribed textbooks are supplied upon registration. Study information is only available on the web online and can be accessed after registration is finished. Instructions on how to use the web online will be sent to you after registration.

Adequate progress and re-registration

For the duration of the student's study period must re-register annually before the prescribed date. Re-registration at the UoSA may be refused in any year on the grounds of inadequate progress and poor performance.

- A student must register for all the prescribed modules of the year of study concerned.
- Students failing three modules or more in the first academic year will not be allowed to continue with the BBS degree.
- Students failing three or more modules during their second year must register for the outstanding modules and cannot proceed to the third year unless they comply with the rules as stipulated in the UoSA calendar.
- Students are allowed to register for the prescribed modules of the third year if they do not have more than two modules outstanding from previous years.
- A student repeating any module will be required to follow the current year curriculum.

Concurrent registration

Concurrent registration at two or more universities is not permitted without the permission of all universities.

Application for exemption

Exemption from BBS modules will only be considered if a student has completed modules as part of a master's degree or an accredited university (PhD/MA/MSc and honours courses) are not considered for exemptions. Students are required to fully complete and submit the application form and all the required documentation, as well as syllabi and external records of the modules passed at master's level.
