Proceedings of the ... International Workshop on Web Information and Data Management, 2002 CHINA: Threat or Challenge? Lt Gen JS Bajwa, 2017-01-13 Indian Defence Review IDR had earlier in 2011 published a Book titled Threat from China edited by Late Bharat Verma Team IDR felt that since May 2014 when the National Democratic Alliance government took over the reins of governance in India bringing in a more focussed dynamic and assertive approach in conduct of its foreign relations it was necessary to review the security paradigm between India and China Moreover around the same time there had been a tactile parallel change in leadership at the helm in China too During the preliminary discussions there were strong views from a certain section of the community of academic scholars and diplomats that China was not an existential THREAT However the military community felt that the People s Liberation Army s substantive military modernisation manifested such a THREAT The academic and diplomatic community did feel that there was surely a CHALLENGE in dealing with an assertive rising China more relevant with a decline of US interest in Asia To accommodate both views the Title was thus revised to China Threat or Challenge The Book is a compilation of articles written and published in the IDR since May 2014 Some articles are by Authors who were requested to express their contrary views on the subject so as to present to the Readers broad based views of various Authors across the spectrum on issues impacting India China bilateral relations The final verdict of course lies entirely with the discerning Readers

Indiana Register ,1997 Interpreting China's Military Power Ka Po Ng,2005-08-09 Although inter state tensions have generally been easing after the Cold War military power remains a dominant factor in Asian regional politics As China operating the world s largest army grows stronger there are ongoing debates over the implications for Asia s regional security This book argues that it is imperative to look beyond the empirical observations and conventional materialist reading of Chinese military development to understand its dynamics and directions in doctrinal terms and put it in a readiness context for evaluation Military doctrine has long been under studied and is often treated as a subject separate from force development But as this study contends this factor is necessary for interpreting the making and purposes of China s military power because it forms the intellectual foundation of military structural and hardware development When loaded with political rhetoric it also communicates to us the intended uses of the military power The role of doctrine is reinforced in the context of military readiness which defines what for and how the army is getting ready Force development is evaluated in structural operational and directional terms The importance of this analytical framework based on military doctrine and readiness is demonstrated in a survey of the evolution of Chinese military doctrine and force development As the Chinese People s Liberation Army has continued to adjust its military structure and operation to follow the doctrinal lead its switches between the doctrines of local war and total war have seen corresponding changes to the emphasis between operational and structural readiness

Valuable Partnerships Robert J. Sullivan,2019-07-29 Valuable Partnerships Cooperation Innovation and the Future of Municipal Texas bridges rich scholarship and practical application to produce an important reference for local government scholars and practitioners alike by covering the dynamic approaches altering how Texas municipalities operate Valuable Partnerships investigates the efficacy of the American fragmented municipal model comprised of 89 000 jurisdictions Critics consistently criticize this decentralized model while arguing for a regional structure yielding greater efficiencies and scalability that also solves the twin problems of equity and service delivery inequalities Conversely Valuable Partnerships presents evidence that Texas local governments leverage regional cooperation and innovation to achieve these results without the political and structural upheaval The author utilizes historic analysis benchmark results socioeconomic measures and budgetary data to demonstrate how Texas governments increase service performance and reduce the burden to taxpayers Such results support a counter thesis to the structural regionalism hypothesis by presenting findings that Texas local jurisdictions embracing regional cooperation and data analytics will experience the same benefits The North
