Today's generation lives and breathes technology. The child's toys are likely to be electronic in nature, such as computer games to teach letters and numbers. The older generation grew up in a time when handwritten letters meant something and texting was a "_____ word. Grandparents are usually going to be "_____ if the children are texting at the dinner table or checking their smartphone email during a movie or family reunion. This is seen as "_____ to others in the room. Older people do not understand the social networking phenomenon and many are disturbed by the lack of privacy with which the younger generation lives. Privacy seems to have "_____ meaning for today's children and even adults.

Most young people change careers at least once if not more often during a lifetime, and freelancing is becoming a (n) "_____ alternative to the nine-to-five working week. Younger family members can become "permanent students", looking for more and more education.

IV. Choose the word or phrase among A, B, C or D that best fits the blank space in the following passage.

Generation gap refers to the difference in the ways of thinking and perception in the people of two different generations which results in behavioral differences, and sometimes, "_____ between them. In other words, it is the difference in the thinking of the people of the older and younger generations that
