The use of digital information and web technologies is now essential to all our lives on a daily basis. In particular, web technologies that enable easy access to digital information in all its forms and regardless of the user's purpose are extremely important. This book presents papers from the 7th International Conference on Applications of Digital Information and Web Technologies (ICADIWT 2016) held in Keelung City, Taiwan, in March 2016. The conference, which has been organized since 2008, is aimed at building the infrastructure necessary for the large-scale development of web technologies and attracts participants from many countries who attend the conference to demonstrate and discuss their research findings. The 19 full papers presented at the conference have been arranged into 5 sections: networking, fuzzy systems, intelligent information systems, data communication and protection, and cloud computing. Subjects covered fall under areas such as Internet communication technologies and software, digital communication software and networks, the Internet of things, databases and applications, and many more. The book will be of interest to all those whose work involves the application of digital information and web technologies.

Sustainable Development and Social Responsibility—Volume 2 Ahmed N. Al-Masri, Yousef Al-Assaf, 2020-01-13

This book gathers high quality research papers presented at the 2nd AUE international research conference AUEIRC 2018, which was organized by the American University in the Emirates, Dubai, and held on November 13th–15th, 2018. The book is broadly divided into two main sections: Sustainability and Smart Business, and Sustainability and Creative Industries. The broad range of topics covered under these sections includes risk assessment in agriculture, corporate social responsibility, and the role of intermediaries; the impact of privatizing health insurance; political events and their effect on foreign currency exchange; the effect of sustainable HR practices on financial performance; sustainability integration in the supply chain and logistics; gender inequality in the MENA economies; the panel data model; the model of sustainable marketing in the era of Industry 4.0; micro enterprises as a tool for combating unemployment; the impact of financial education and control on financial behavior; measuring financial and asset performance in agricultural firms; a comprehensive strategic approach to sustainability in the UAE; sustainability and project finance; HR analytics; FaD or fashion for organizational sustainability; a conceptual framework of sustainable competitive advantages; psychology of organizational sustainability; Blockchain technology and sustainability; veganism and sustainability; institution building from an emotional intelligence perspective; sustainable concrete production using CWP; occupants' behavior and energy usage in Emirati houses; the effect of shop lighting on consumer behavior; multimedia applications in digital transformation; art integrating biomimicry principles in sustainable architecture; experimental sustainable practices in fashion education; technology-assisted student-centered learning for civil engineering; and a 10-step design process for architectural design studios. All contributions present high quality original research work findings and lessons learned in practical development The Battle of the Fields Brian Short, 2014 This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and to those who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front The Battle of the Fields tells the story of rural community and authority in Britain during the Second World War by looking at the County War Agricultural Executive Committees From 1939 they were imbued with powers to transform British farming to combat the loss of food imports caused by German naval activity and initial European mainland successes Their powers were sweeping and draconian When fully exercised against recalcitrant farmers dispossession in part or whole could and did result This book includes the most detailed analysis of these dispossessions including the tragic case of Ray Walden the Hampshire farmer who was killed by police after refusing to leave his farmhouse in 1940 The committees were deemed successful by Whitehall as harbingers of modernity mechanization draining artificial fertilizers reclamation of heaths marshes and woodlands We now deplore some of these changes but Britain did not starve in large part thanks to their efforts This book will appeal not only to historians and geographers but to many who maintain a deep interest in the British countryside and its past and to those who continue to share a fascination for the Second World War in particular the home front It will also demonstrate to all who are anxious about food security in the modern age how this question was dealt with 70 years ago BRIAN SHORT is Emeritus Professor of Historical Geography at the University of Sussex and formerly Dean of School and Head of the Department of Geography Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 2) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-07-16 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 2 allows users to locate organizations by the country in which secretariats or members are located Watershed Anika Gauja, Marian Sawyer, Jill Sheppard, 2023-08-10 Australia s 2022 federal election played out in ways that few could have expected Not only did it bring a change of government it also saw the lowest number of primary votes for the major parties and the election of the greatest number of Independents to the lower house since the formation of the Australian party system The success of the Teal Independents and the Greens along with the appetite voters showed for doing politics differently suggested that the dominant model of electoral competition might no longer be the two party system of Labor versus Liberal At the very least the continued usefulness of the two party preferred vote as a way of conceptualising and predicting Australians voting behaviour has been cast into serious doubt In Watershed leading scholars analyse the election from the ground up focusing on the campaign issues the actors involved and the successes and failures of campaign strategy and show how digital media visual politics and fake news are changing the way politics is done Other topics include the impact of COVID 19 and the salience of climate gender and integrity issues as well as voting patterns and polling accuracy This authoritative book is indispensable for understanding the disenchantment with the major parties the rise of Community Independents and the role of the Australian Greens and third parties Watershed is the eighteenth in the ANU Press federal election series and the tenth sponsored by the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia The Political Economy of Underdevelopment in Sub-Saharan Africa Christopher E.S.
