Waiting For The Barbarians:

Waiting for the Barbarians J. M. Coetzee, 2010-06-29 A modern classic by Nobel Laureate J M Coetzee now a major motion picture starring Robert Pattinson and Johnny Depp For decades the Magistrate has run the affairs of a tiny frontier settlement ignoring the impending war between the barbarians and the Empire whose servant he is When interrogation experts arrive however he finds himself jolted into sympathy with their victims until their barbarous treatment of prisoners of war finally pushes him into a quixotic act of rebellion and thus into imprisonment as an enemy of the state Waiting for the Barbarians J M Coetzee's third novel which won the James Tate Black Memorial Prize is an allegory of the war between oppressor and oppressed The Magistrate is not simply a man living through a crisis of conscience in an obscure place in remote times his situation is that of all men living in unbearable complicity with regimes that elevate their own survival above justice and decency J.M. Coetzee David Attwell, 1993-06-11 David Attwell defends the literary and political integrity of South African novelist J M Coetzee by arguing that Coetzee has absorbed the textual turn of postmodern culture while still addressing the ethical tensions of the South African crisis As a form of situational metafiction Coetzee's writing reconstructs and critiques some of the key discourses in the history of colonialism and apartheid from the eighteenth century to the present While self-conscious about fiction making it takes seriously the condition of the society in which it is produced Attwell begins by describing the intellectual and political contexts surrounding Coetzee's fiction and then provides a developmental analysis of his six novels drawing on Coetzee's other writings in stylistics literary criticism translation political journalism and popular culture Elegantly written Attwell's analysis deals with both Coetzee's subversion of the dominant culture around him and his ability to see the complexities of giving voice to the anguish of South Africa Waiting for the Barbarians J. M. Coetzee, 1981 A magistrate in a country village protests the army's treatment of members of the barbarian tribes taken prisoner during a civil war and finds himself arrested as a traitor New York Magazine, 1982-04-26 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Language of Fiction in a World of Pain Barbara J. Eckstein, 1990-10 This book offers new and provocative readings of Milan Kundera's Book of Laughter and Forgetting J M Coetzee's Waiting for the Barbarians and Life and Times of Michael K selected short fiction of Nadine Gordimer and Grace Paley Ibuse Masuji's Black Rain John Hawkes's Travesty and others Waiting for the Barbarians John Maxwell Coetzee, 2000 Waiting for the Barbarians Lewis H. Lapham, 1998 With invective all the more deadly for its grace and wit Lewis Lapham editor of Harper's magazine presents a portrait of a feckless American establishment gone large in the stomach and soft in the head This acerbic commentary on the insouciance of the monied ruling class concludes with a forewarning piece where Lapham looks at the fate of indolent ruling classes throughout history

The Concept of the Foreign Rebecca Saunders, 2003-01-01 The Concept of the Foreign investigates the diverse and consequential uses of the concept of the foreign a formidable and hitherto untheorized force in everyday discourse and practice This highly original work whose experimental nature moves beyond traditional academic bounds undertakes to theorize the meanings deployments and consequences of foreignness a term largely overlooked by academic debates Innovative in format the book comprises an introductory theoretical dialogue and seven essays each authored by a scholar from a different discipline anthropology literary theory psychology philosophy social work history and women s studies who investigate how his her disciplines engage and define the concept of the foreign Drawing out literal and metaphorical meanings of foreignness this wide ranging volume offers much to scholars of postcolonial gender and cultural studies seeking new approaches to the study of alterity

Waiting for the Barbarians John Maxwell Coetzee, 1992 Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-01-01 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power

Exploration and Colonization Harold Bloom, Blake Hobby, 2010 Twenty essays examine the themes of exploration and colonization in literature including works such as The Iliad and Things Fall Apart Waiting for the barbarians, 2020 The Magistrate of an isolated frontier settlement on the border of an unnamed empire looks forward to an easy retirement until the arrival of Colonel Joll His task is to report on the activities of the barbarians and on the security situation on the border Joll conducts a series of ruthless interrogations which leads the Magistrate to question his loyalty to the empire

Violence, Identity, and Self-Determination Hent de Vries, 1997 With the collapse of the bipolar system of global rivalry that dominated world politics after the Second World War and in an age that is seeing the return of ethnic cleansing and identity politics the question of violence in all of its multiple ramifications imposes itself with renewed urgency

Rather than concentrating on the socioeconomic or political backgrounds of these historical changes the contributors to this volume rethink the concept of violence both in itself and in relation to the formation and transformation of identities whether individual or collective political or cultural religious or secular In particular they subject the notion of self determination to stringent scrutiny is it to be understood as a value that excludes violence in principle if not always in practice Or is its relation to violence more complex and perhaps more sinister Reconsideration of the concepts the practice and even the critique of violence requires an exploration of the implications and limitations of the more familiar interpretations of the terms that have dominated in the history of Western thought To this end the nineteen contributors address the concept of violence from a variety of perspectives in relation to different forms of cultural representation and not in Western culture alone in literature and the arts as well as in society and politics in philosophical discourse psychoanalytic theory and so called juridical ideology as well as in colonial and post colonial practices and power relations The contributors are Giorgio Agamben Ali Behdad Cathy Caruth Jacques Derrida Michael Dillon Peter Fenves Stathis Gourgouris Werner Hamacher Beatrice Hanssen Anselm Haverkamp Marian Hobson Peggy Kamuf M B Pranger Susan M Shell Peter van der Veer Hent de Vries Cornelia Vismann and Samuel Weber

Père-versions of the Truth Sławomir Masłoń, 2007

Dracula and the Gothic in Literature, Pop Culture and the Arts, 2015-10-14 This volume brings together fourteen articles that reappraise the productivity of Stoker's Dracula and the strong influence it still exerts on today's generations The volume explores various multimodal and multimedia adaptations of the book by critically examining its literary cinematic theatrical televised and artistic versions In so doing it reassesses the origins evolution imagery mythology theory and criticism of Gothic fiction and of the Gothic sub culture The volume is innovative in that it congregates various angles to the Gothic phenomenon providing an overview of the interdisciplinary relationships between different cultural artistic and creative reworkings of the Gothic in general and of Stoker's legacy in particular

J.M. Coetzee and the Paradox of Postcolonial Authorship Jane Poyner, 2016-05-06 In her analysis of the South African novelist J M Coetzee's literary and intellectual career Jane Poyner illuminates the author's abiding preoccupation with what Poyner calls the paradox of postcolonial authorship Writers of conscience or conscience stricken writers of the kind Coetzee portrays whilst striving symbolically to bring the stories of the marginal and the oppressed to light always risk reimposing the very authority they seek to challenge From Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year Poyner traces how Coetzee rehearses and revises his understanding of the ethics of intellectualism in parallel with the emergence of the new South Africa She contends that Coetzee's modernist aesthetics facilitate a more exacting critique of the problems that encumber postcolonial authorship including the authority it necessarily engenders Poyner is attentive to the ways Coetzee's writing addresses the writer's proper role with respect to the changing ethical demands of contemporary political life Theoretically sophisticated and accessible her book is a major contribution to our understanding of the Nobel Laureate and to postcolonial studies

The Prohibition of Torture in Exceptional Circumstances

Michelle Farrell,2013-08-29 This book reframes the historical legal and moral discourse on the question of whether torture can be justified in exceptional circumstances States of Emergency Stephen Morton,2013-02-04 This book examines how violent anti colonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques used by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in literature and law Case studies examined include Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya Israel Palestine Iraq Afghanistan and Northern Pakistan Barbarian: Explorations of a Western Concept in Theory, Literature, and the Arts Markus Winkler,2018-08-31 This two volume co authored study explores the history of the concept barbarism from the 18th century to the present and illuminates its foundational role in modern European and Western identity It constitutes an original comparative interdisciplinary exploration of the concept s modern European and Western history with emphasis on the role of literature in the concept s shifting functions The study contributes to a historically grounded understanding of this figure s past and contemporary uses It combines overviews with detailed analyses of representative works of literature art film philosophy political and cultural theory in which barbarism figures prominently Diese auf 2 B nde konzipierte komparatistische und interdisziplin re Studie in englischer Sprache geht der Geschichte des Barbarenbegriffs vom 18 Jahrhundert bis zur Gegenwart nach Seit der griechischen Antike spielen Bild und Begriff des Barbarischen eine eminente Rolle f r das abendl ndische Selbstverst ndnis Die Studie verbindet Epochen berblicke mit der Analyse herausragender literarischer philosophischer politik und kulturtheoretischer aber auch bildk nstlerischer und kinematographischer Werke und legt einen besonderen Akzent auf den Beitrag sthetischer Verfahren zur Aufdeckung der Herkunft und der Implikationen des Barbarenbegriffs Secretary of the Invisible Mike Marais,2009 How do individuals who are part of a community respond to the stranger as a stranger i e without simply positioning this outsider in opposition to the community in which they are located How may individuals receive something unknown and therefore surprising into their world without compromising it by identifying it in the terms of that world In this study Mike Marais traces the various ways in which Coetzee s fiction from Dusklands through to Slow Man repeatedly poses such questions of hospitality It is shown that the form of ethical action staged in Coetzee s writing is grounded not in the individual s willed and rational achievement but in his or her invasion and possession by the strangeness of the stranger This ethic of hospitality Marais argues has a strong aesthetic dimension for Coetzee the writer is inspired to write by being acted upon by a force from beyond the phenomenal world The writer is a secretary of the invisible She or he is responsible to and for the invisible Marais maintains that this understanding of writing as an involuntary response to that which exceeds history is evident from the first in Coetzee s fiction In readings of the novels of the apartheid era he traces this writer s rueful ironic awareness of the limited even incidental form of political engagement that may emanate from such an aesthetic He then goes on to argue that if it is the writer s obligation to render visible the invisible writing must be a task that can never be completed What is more such writing is thus bound to be iterative in form With this in mind he traces the structural similarities between Coetzee's writing of the apartheid period and his post apartheid and Australian writing arguing that the later texts are self reflexively aware of their endlessly repetitive nature. These contentions are developed incrementally through close readings of the individual novels that focus on recurring metaphors of hospitality: visitor, the stranger, the house, the castaway, the invisible, the dream and the child.
