The Woman Worker ,1939-05 A History of Submarine Warfare along the Jersey Shore Joseph G. Bilby & Harry Ziegler,2016-08-22 The ingenious people of the Garden State were instrumental in the early development of the submarine The first American submarine sank off Fort Lee in 1776 and the first successful one adopted by the U S Navy was invented by Paterson s John Holland at the end of the nineteenth century Today the only surviving Union Civil War submarine built in Newark sits in the National Guard Militia Museum in Sea Girt In 1918 the technology pioneered there was turned against the Jersey Shore when U 151 went on a one day ship sinking rampage A World War II U boat offensive torpedoed numerous ships off the coast leaving oil soaked beaches strewn with wreckage The authors reveal the remarkable history of submarines off the New Jersey coastline Report of the Board of Managers of the New Jersey Sanatorium of Tuberculous Diseases New Jersey. Committee on Education and Labor,1965 The 1990 New Jersey Wage and Benefit Survey James Dougherty,1991 Invisible Labor Marion Crain,Winifred Poster,Miriam Cherry,2016-06-28 Demographic and technological trends have yielded new forms of work that are increasingly more precarious globalized and brand centered Some of these shifts have led to a marked decrease in the visibility of work or workers This edited collection examines situations in which technology and employment practices hide labor within the formal paid labor market with implications for workplace activism social policy and law In some cases technological platforms space and temporality hide workers and sometimes obscure their tasks as well In other situations workers may be highly visible indeed the employer may rely upon the workers aesthetics to market the branded product but their aesthetic labor is not seen as work In still other cases the work occurs within a social interaction and appears as leisure a voluntary or chosen activity rather than as work Alternatively the workers themselves may be conceptualized as consumers rather than as workers Crossing the occupational hierarchy and spectrum from high to low waged work from professional to manual labor and from production to service labor the authors argue for a broader understanding of labor in the contemporary era This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that integrates perspectives from law sociology and industrial labor relations Provided by publisher Congressional Record United States. Congress,1965 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Services Labor Report Bureau of National Affairs (Arlington, Va.),1962 Dishing it Out Greta Foff Paules,1991 This study challenges the uncritical equation of advancement with success As a participant observer at a family style restaurant in New Jersey the autho reveals the strategies that experienced waitresses employ to improve their own positions rather than aspiring toward management Through the voices of some aggressive determined tough and resilient women the author confronts stereotypical characterizations of waitresses The author finds that certain unique features of the restaurant industry the tipping system chaotic work environment chronic shortages of labor and supplies and the manager s role as a fill in man allow waitresses to manipulate their work environment to protect their own interests The downgrading of the managerial role in this restaurant has rendered advancement meaningless Knowing that the help wanted sign is permanently posted the waitresses refuse to submit to management s dictates to take junk from rude or hostile customers or to internalize the negative self image usually associated with waitressing The colorful and often amusing comments by the women the author interviewed indicate that they have developed an arsenal of subtle but undeniably effective tactics to combat the exploitive elements of the job to maximize tips and to secure the boss attention to their needs New York-Northern New Jersey- Long Island, NY-NJ-CT-PA National Compensation Survey March 2005 ,
