Can't Buy My Love Jean Kilbourne, 2012-06-26 When was the last time you felt this comfortable in a relationship An ad for sneakers You can love it without getting your heart broken An ad for a car Until I find a real man I'll settle for a real smoke A woman in a cigarette ad Many advertisements these days make us feel as if we have an intimate even passionate relationship with a product But as Jean Kilbourne points out in this fascinating and shocking exposé the dreamlike promise of advertising always leaves us hungry for more We can never be satisfied because the products we love cannot love us back

Drawing upon her knowledge of psychology media and women's issues Kilbourne offers nothing less than a new understanding of a ubiquitous phenomenon in our culture The average American is exposed to over 3 000 advertisements a day and watches three years worth of television ads over the course of a lifetime Kilbourne paints a gripping portrait of how this barrage of advertising drastically affects young people especially girls by offering false promises of rebellion connection and control She also offers a surprising analysis of the way advertising creates and then feeds an addictive mentality that often continues throughout adulthood The Wall Street Journal ,2009 Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,2004-01 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics ABA Journal ,1965-11 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association 2020 Smart Lists Shawn Holley,2020-05-15 Book Delisted Monthly Labor Review ,2003 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews

Obama on the Home Front John D. Graham,2016-08-08 The best comprehensive review of the Obama administration's policies available by the author of Bush on the Home Front Daniel P Franklin author of Pitiful Giants Presidents in their Final Term Barack Obama came into office as the economy was careening into the worst downturn since the Great Depression On the political front he would be challenged by the same intense congressional polarization faced by Bill Clinton and George W Bush now exacerbated by the rise of the Tea Party movement In this comprehensive assessment of domestic policymaking John D Graham considers what we may learn from the Obama presidency about how presidents can best implement their agendas when Congress is evenly divided What did Obama pledge to do in domestic policy and what did he actually accomplish Why did some initiatives succeed and others fail Did Obama's policies contribute to the losses experienced by the Democratic Party in 2010 and 2014 In carefully documented case studies of economic policy health care reform energy and environmental policy and immigration reform Graham asks whether Obama was effective at accomplishing his agenda Counterfactuals are analyzed to suggest ways that Obama might have been even more effective than he was and at less political cost to his party As with the author's acclaimed Bush on the Home Front this book elaborates and applies a theory of presidential effectiveness in a polarized political environment Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,2004-05 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics An Introduction to Financial Markets and Institutions Maureen Burton,Reynold F.
