Walter Sisulu University Application Form:

Ntsikelelo's Dream Catcher Ntsikelelo Goodman Ndesi, 2020-01-01 This is an inspirational true story extolling the power of a dream The perception of the world with its endless possibilities Regardless of the circumstances and the challenges honest living accomplishes the truest most well deserved victory Identification of self worth is key to a peaceful approach to life and perseverance and the practise of patience can prove to be very rewarding Time rewards tons in the presence of the future An Electronic Patient Referral Application: A Case Study from Zambia Niamh Darcy, Chris Kelley, Eileen Reynolds, Gordon Cressman, Wm. Perry Killam, 2010-03-30 Electronic medical records EMRs benefit health systems especially in low income developing countries EMR systems can give medical personnel access to patients records and can reduce time needed for data management and record keeping The report discusses the design implementation and results of an installed electronic perinatal patient referral system supporting health personnel who referred patients through a closed network Web based system in the Lusaka health district in Zambia It demonstrates how the patient referral module laid the groundwork for a larger EMR system Transforming Universities in South Africa, 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage Web-Based Education: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2010-02-28 This comprehensive collection offers a compendium of research on the design implementation and evaluation of online learning technologies addressing the challenges and opportunities associated with the creation and management of Web based applications and communities instructional design personalized learning environments and effective educational delivery Provided by publisher Factors impacting African women's doctoral success Lifutso Tsephe, 2023-12-20 With the knowledge economy playing such a critical role in global economic development increasing the number of Doctor of Philosophy degree PhD graduates in higher education institutions worldwide has been imperative The knowledge economy emphasises the importance of critical thinkers and researchers as doctoral education cultivates thinkers and researchers and equips them to participate in development African identifying females account for 30% of doctoral graduates in sub Saharan African countries even when PhD education is viewed as an entry into academia and a gateway to careers in research and other disciplines There is a paucity of research regarding PhD graduates who are specifically women in Africa as a result there is little information about their attributes to success in PhD studies what opportunities and freedoms they have and what challenges they face during their PhD journey along with their motivation to overcome these challenges so that they can achieve their goals It is essential for women in Africa to complete their PhD education to contribute to the development of their countries as some scholars believe no nation can grow without women s participation Thus modern civilisation is the result of males and females cooperating in modern society Even though some women complete their PhD studies there is scant research on what strategies enabled their success Instead the reasons for their attrition are known This book aims to contribute to PhD education scholarship specifically for women in Africa It allows women in Africa to narrate their PhD experiences through resilience theory and the capabilities approach lenses

Azibuye emasisweni Zethu Cakata, Nompumelelo Z. Radebe, Mogobe B. Ramose, 2023-06-28 African knowledge is yet to fully contribute to spaces of learning because of the disciplinary boundaries founded on Western separatist logic From an African epistemology knowledge is interconnected because of the cosmological understanding that the universe is one entity Bringing African knowledge into the academy requires a concerted effort to bring it of its own accord There have been commendable efforts by scholars in South Africa to bring African knowledge to higher education in ways that do not alter or re shape this knowledge to suit the dominant Euro American script This book aims to showcase such efforts This book makes interconnections of themes across disciplines The content produced in this book will ensure that literature will anchor the noble efforts to build African universities that deliberately centre African ways of knowing This book will be among the few publications that focus on Africanisation and decolonisation of knowledges as praxis We anticipate that this book will be recommended in various disciplines of social sciences in South African universities

Chirau,Tebogo Fish,Candice

Morkel,2024-02-09 The World Health Organization WHO defines equity as the absence of preventable or remediable disparities among various groups of individuals regardless of how these groups are delineated whether by social economic demographic or geographic factors The goal of equity is to eliminate the unfair and avoidable circumstances that deprive people of their rights Therefore inequities generally arise when certain population groups are unfairly deprived of basic resources that are made available to other groups A disparity is unfair or unjust when its cause is due to the social context rather than biological factors Equitable evaluation contends that conducting evaluation practices with an equity approach is more powerful as evaluation is used as a tool for advancing equity It emphasises that context culture history and beliefs shape the nature of evaluations specifically in the diverse and often complex African reality Equitable evaluation can render power to the powerless offer a voice to the silenced and give presence to those treated as invisible Evidence from various sources shows that inequality is prevalent on the African continent hence the need to focus on evaluative solutions that address the structural issues that contribute to the different forms of inequality such as economic political and social inequality Despite a plethora of development interventions on the African continent a large proportion of the population on the continent is still lacking access to basic goods and services for survival The effectiveness of developmental programmes in sub Saharan Africa has been elusive to the extent that minimal inroads have been made in addressing key challenges such as poverty inequality and the effects of climate change This scholarly book aims to invigorate academic discussions surrounding developmental programmes with the goal of generating insights that can be utilised by evaluation commissioners and decision makers to help address inequality and promote a more equitable society in Africa through improved evaluation processes Envisioning a promising Africa from diverse perspectives Cheryl Potgieter,Vimbai

Chapters critically examine barriers to achieving these aspirations offering local, regional and global perspectives on systemic challenges. The first theme, social cohesion and transformation, examines issues like institutional reform in Nigeria's education sector and the marginalisation of African migrants. The second theme, gender injustice in education and science, explores topics such as gender gaps in doctoral programmes, resilience among black academics and cultural stereotyping in teacher education. The final theme, health and development, focuses on resilience, nutrition and the gendered impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19). With contributions from leading African scholars, this book provides a critical analysis of systemic obstacles and proposes pathways for meaningful progress. Envisioning a promising Africa from diverse perspectives is essential for academics and researchers and is a call to action to confront the barriers impeding Africa's sustainable development goals.

Enhancing effective public sector governance Audrey H. Legodi, Philna Coetzee, Lourens Erasmus, 2025-04-23. Audit committees are formed to provide impartial advice on matters of governance, risk management, internal controls and audits, performance management, compliance and financial reporting. It is alarming to see communities deteriorating as a result of poor municipal services despite the fact that existing audit committees serve as independent advisory boards. Accountability is key to the success of municipalities; individuals opposing the implementation of improved service delivery should be held accountable. This book examines the obstacles that hinder audit committees from effectively executing their duties, giving a thorough analysis and resolutions to the South African service delivery crisis. The book's use of the IQA method reveals overlooked variables that South African municipalities and audit committees must contemplate. This methodological contribution results in the construction of a literature framework to substantiate the focus of the study through the identified themes. This book offers guidelines for municipal audit committees on executing their roles successfully and ethically. It also practically equips regulators including the National Treasury, provincial treasuries, CoGTA and SALGA with measures to enhance the efficacy of audit committees. Professional bodies and Best Practices Guidance bodies may augment their standards and ethical codes to guide members serving on audit committees.

The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter, 2023-04-30. This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field, namely the affirmation of the Global South. This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with. It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education. Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field. This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University, South Africa, where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance Digital developments and employment

Wilma Viviers ,Ali Parry,Emmanuel Orkoh ,Susara J. Jansen van Rensburg,2024-07-31 There is broad consensus in the literature that job creation and productive employment are critical for building a vibrant inclusive economy The digital era has the potential to expand employment by creating new professional pathways and market opportunities particularly in Africa which has high levels of unemployment and considerable room for enhanced economic activity However advancing digital technologies also pose risks and concerns notably that machines will increasingly take over the jobs of humans The effects of digital developments on employment therefore warrant thorough investigation This book delves into the effects of digital developments on employment in Africa using both qualitative and quantitative research methods An important premise in the book is that employment is a leading determinant of inclusive growth which has become a policy imperative across the continent Despite a wide range of views on digital developments and employment there is no well established empirically determined relationship between these two phenomena in Africa which makes policy making difficult The book addresses this research gap giving specific attention to the fact that African countries are far from homogeneous evidenced by their highly diverse economic activities and varying levels of development The book is essential reading for scholars in the development economics discipline who have an interest in policy studies and in gaining a holistic appreciation of the employment effects of digital developments in Africa Such insights will go a long way towards shaping countries economic and digital policies and putting the continent onto a steadier path towards its digital future The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze ,Asheel Singh ,Suzall Timm ,2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A.
