Polyvocal Professional Learning through Self-Study

Research Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, Anastasia P. Samaras, 2015-10-30 Polyvocal Professional Learning through Self Study Research illustrates the power of we for innovative and authentic professional learning The 33 contributors to this book include experienced and emerging self study researchers writing in collaboration across multiple professions academic disciplines contexts and continents These authors have noted and reviewed each other s chapters and adapted their contributions to generate a polyvocal conversation that significantly advances scholarship on professional learning through self study research Building on and extending the existing body of work on self study research the book offers an extensive and in depth scholarly exploration of the how why and impact of professional learning through context specific practitioner led inquiry The chapters illustrate polyvocal professional learning as both phenomenon and method with the original research that is presented in every chapter adding to the forms of methodological inventiveness that have been developed and documented within the self study research community This unique book represents an inspiring step forward in self study research Authors from various continents provide evidence of how the I can be strengthened through the we perspective showing convincingly how polyvocality transdisciplinarity and an intercultural approach deepen professional learning This powerful book offers important new insights for the methodology of self study with an impact beyond teachers and teacher educators Fred A J Korthagen Professor Emeritus at Utrecht University The Netherlands A fascinating set of chapters illustrate the importance of many lenses and many voices when studying one's practice. Each chapter testifies that self-study and its ties to improvement through posing thoughtful questions, collecting and analyzing relevant data, and interrogating the interpretation of one's analysis of self are global and cross-disciplinary. This book is a must-read. Renée T. Clift, Professor and Associate Dean, University of Arizona, USA.

Object Medleys Daisy Pillay, Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, Inbanathan Naicker, 2017-11-13. How do we get at the meanings of everyday and not so everyday objects and how might these meanings enrich educational research? The study of objects is well established in fields such as archaeology, art history, communications, fine arts, museum studies, and sociology, but is still developing in education. Object Medleys: Interpretive Possibilities for Educational Research brings together 37 educational researchers from wide-ranging contexts and multiple knowledge fields to a dialogic space in which subjects and objects, living and nonliving, entangle as medleys to open up understandings of connections made with, between, and through objects. Object Medleys offers diverse innovative modes and lenses for representing, interpreting, and theorising object studies. The book is distinctive within scholarship on object inquiry in that much of the research has been conducted within Southern African educational contexts. This is complemented by contributions from scholars based in Canada and the United Kingdom. The original research represented in each peer-reviewed chapter expands academic conversations about what counts as data and analysis in educational research. Overall, Object Medleys illuminates the applied and theoretical usefulness of objects in response to pressing educational and societal questions. Object Medleys is a rich and fascinating exploration of new possibilities with potential for research, teaching, and learning that seems almost unlimited. This book is a rich assembly of affordances for exploring and widening the role of objects in educational research. It relocates attention from language and text towards embodied and material storytelling practices where new and marginalised ways of expression can find their ways into classrooms, thereby opening completely new avenues of teaching and learning. Kenneth M. Ibjerg, J. J. rgensen, Professor, Aalborg University, Denmark. In a time when materiality is being brought at the centre of critical inquiry in the social sciences and humanities, this edited collection offers unique insights into the relationship between objects, subjectivities, and learning. Beautifully written and cogently argued, the book breaks new ground by casting a critical spotlight on artefacts that might appear mundane at first sight but on closer inspection reveal complex patterns of educational potential. Tommaso M. Milani, Associate Professor, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Constructivist Approaches and Research Methods Pam Denicolo, Trevor Long, Kim Bradley-Cole, 2016-09-07. This book provides a comprehensive overview of personal construct psychology (PCP) that will help researchers understand the why's, what's, and how's of conducting a rigorous constructivist research project. From the theoretical underpinnings of constructivist approaches to the practical values of these techniques, these three expert authors explain how to conduct interpretative constructivist research from inception to completion. Key topics include: Understanding research philosophies and paradigms; Constructing and exploring personal realities Establishing effective research procedures Evaluating grids mapping narrative and other research methods Managing the practicalities of fieldwork Analysing and presenting data With activities and procedural examples from a wide range of disciplines woven throughout the text and two special chapters featuring in depth case studies from a variety of constructivist researchers this book helps readers grasp the tools designs and opportunities of interpretative research An essential companion for both researchers and practitioners looking to understand people s values attitudes beliefs perceptions or motivations Not Ever Absent: Storytelling in Arts, Culture and Identity Formation ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Storytelling has always played a central role in the formation of cultures and communities All cultures define themselves and their place in the world through their stories Similarly our identities are largely constructed as narratives and it is with the aid of storytelling that we manage to conceive of ourselves our selves as meaningful wholes Thus storytelling is not ever absent it is to be found in literature social life in the places we visit and the buildings we live in This volume presents storytelling in various appearances from ancient myths and oral history to transmedia narratives and digital stories Different forms of narrative are analysed as is the use of storytelling as a method for e g counselling education and research Throughout twenty five chapters a compelling overview of recent research on the topic is provided both stressing the omnipresence of storytelling and exploring what storytelling is and isn t

Maoism Julia Lovell, 2019-09-03 WINNER OF THE 2019 CUNDILL HISTORY PRIZE SHORTLISTED FOR THE BAILLIE GIFFORD PRIZE FOR NON FICTION 2019 SHORTLISTED FOR THE NAYEF AL RODHAN PRIZE FOR GLOBAL UNDERSTANDING SHORTLISTED FOR DEUTSCHER PRIZE LONGLISTED FOR THE 2020 ORWELL PRIZE FOR POLITICAL WRITING

Revelatory and instructive a beautifully written and accessible book The Times For decades the West has dismissed Maoism as an outdated historical and political phenomenon Since the 1980s China seems to have abandoned the utopian turmoil of Mao's revolution in favour of authoritarian capitalism But Mao and his ideas remain central to the People's Republic and the legitimacy of its Communist government With disagreements and conflicts between China and the West on the rise the need to understand the political legacy of Mao is urgent and growing The power and appeal of Maoism have extended far beyond China Maoism was a crucial motor of the Cold War it shaped the course of the Vietnam War and the international youth rebellions that conflict triggered and brought to power the murderous Khmer Rouge in Cambodia it aided and sometimes handed victory to anti colonial resistance movements in Africa it inspired terrorism in Germany and Italy and wars and insurgencies in Peru India and Nepal some of which are still with us today more than forty years after the death of Mao In this new history Julia Lovell re evaluates Maoism as both a Chinese and an international force linking its evolution in China with its global legacy It is a story that takes us from the tea plantations of north India to the sierras of the Andes from Paris's fifth arrondissement to the fields of Tanzania from the rice paddies of Cambodia to the terraces of Brixton Starting with the birth of Mao's revolution in northwest China in the 1930s and concluding with its violent afterlives in South Asia and resurgence in the People's Republic today this is a landmark history of global Maoism
