Task 1: Planning Commentary

TASK 1: PLANNING COMMENTARY

Respond to the prompts below (no more than 10 single-spaced pages, including prompts) for Task 1. Your responses within the box should be no more than 10 pages. Pages exceeding the maximum will not be scored.

1. Central Focus

- Describe the central focus and the essential literacy strategy for comprehending OR composing text you will teach in the learning segment.

[The central focus of the three-lesson learning segment is for students to write an opinion piece about their favorite holiday that includes a topic sentence, three supporting reasons, and a conclusion sentence. The essential literacy strategy I am using across the lesson segment is brainstorming and using a graphic organizer.]

- Given the central focus, describe how the standards and learning objectives within your learning segment address:
 - the essential literacy strategy
 - related skills that support use of the strategy
 - reading/writing connections

[CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.1.1]

Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic ~~or name the book~~ they are writing about, state an opinion, supply a reason for the opinion, and provide some sense of closure.

[CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.1.2.B]

Use end punctuation for sentences.

[CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.L.1.2]

Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.

Lesson objectives:

1) Students will be able to have a productive discussion with a pre-designated partner about their favorite holiday.

2) Students will be able to organize their thoughts about their opinion and reasoning in a simple way.

3) Be able to write an opinion piece using a topic sentence, three reasons, and a conclusion.

My strategy -- My essential literacy strategies, brainstorming and using a graphic organizer to the learning objectives and standards I chose because to write a clear opinion piece, they must plan what they will be writing. The first day and during which will have them start to think about their favorite holiday and I be able to supply three reasons as to why it's their favorite. The final learning segment a productive discussion, will allow me to learn around the classroom and listen my conversations to guarantee they understand how to give their opinion and at giving reason. My other essential literacy strategy, using a graphic organizer, like Common Core State Standards writing and language the standards. The writing CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.1.1, helps my students in understanding how to write an opinion piece to organize and write their thoughts down in a clear way. My other literacy strategy, The graphic organizer that separate each reason and then write their three supporting reasons. This helps my students to understand how to write an opinion piece.

Teacher Education Across Minority-Serving Institutions Emery Petchauer, Lynnette Mawhinney, 2017-03-21. The first of its kind, Teacher Education Across Minority-Serving Institutions brings together innovative work from the family of institutions known as minority-serving institutions: Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Tribal Colleges and Universities, Hispanic Serving Institutions, and Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institutions. The book moves beyond a singular focus on teacher racial diversity that has characterized scholarship and policy work in this area. Instead, it pushes for scholars to consider that racial diversity in teacher education is not simply an end in itself but is a means to accomplish other goals such as developing justice-oriented and asset-based pedagogies.

Understanding the World Language edTPA Susan A. Hildebrandt, Peter B. Swanson, 2016-07-01. In Understanding the World Language edTPA: Research-Based Policy and Practice, two researchers in the forefront of world language edTPA discuss the new beginning teacher portfolio, including its required elements, federal and state policies concerning teacher evaluation, and research from their own programs. Higher education faculty members and language teacher preparation program coordinators who would like to better understand edTPA requirements and gain suggestions for necessary programmatic changes will find this book of interest. The book is composed of eight chapters. The authors begin by describing edTPA and how it became a national trend to assess beginning teacher ability. In Chapter 2, the authors present ideas about curricular changes that may need to occur in traditional world language teacher education programs as well as suggestions to assist teacher candidates as they begin to develop their portfolios. Afterward, the authors discuss the context for learning in Chapter 3 and then begin with assessment, moving to planning and then to instruction in Chapters 4, 5, and 6. In each chapter, the authors discuss the work sample that teacher candidates must create, an analysis of a high-scoring portfolio, and steps to stimulate teacher candidates' professional thinking. In Chapter 7, the authors present activities for the methods classroom. In the final chapter, the authors provide a critical analysis of edTPA in general and the world language edTPA in particular. Understanding the World Language edTPA: Research-Based Policy and Practice provides readers with a much-needed guide to inducting teacher candidates into the new portfolio requirements while helping higher education faculty make appropriate curricular changes to accommodate edTPA.

The edTPA Assessment for Special Education Pre-Service Teachers Stephen J. Hernandez, 2020-04-23. This book is designed to assist the Special Education pre-service teacher in planning and preparing a successful edTPA portfolio assessment. Creation of this portfolio requires the candidate to plan, implement, and assess a series of three to five lessons designed specifically for one
