Aiming Big with Small Cars Rajnish Tiwari, Cornelius Herstatt, 2013-10-28 This book focuses on the small car segment of India's automotive industry to explain the emergence of lead markets. The authors contend that the current understanding of lead markets does not sufficiently explain the business practices that are born out of the intensified globalization of innovation. Lead markets are considered crucial for the global diffusion of new products and this book investigates whether sustainable lead markets can also emerge in developing economies and if so under which conditions. The authors question the conventional wisdom and propose updates and extensions to the lead market theory to better reflect the changing ground realities on ground.

Riding the Tiger Wilfried Aulbur, Amit Kapoor, 2016-11-18 How can one survive in a market which is volatile and uncertain? What strategies have worked and not worked in the past? What does it take to be successful in India? What are the successful strategies applied by the likes of HUL, Godrej, Adani Ports and redBus? So what does it take to Ride the Tiger? Sound flexible strategy, operational excellence and dedication to customer-centric innovation. But what does that really mean? How have successful Indian companies managed challenges in an extremely price-sensitive market? In this book Wilfried Aulbur and Amit Kapoor look at successful and sometimes not so successful strategies, operations and innovations in India. They have distilled lessons from their decades of practical work experience in the country. From large family conglomerates like Tata and Godrej to newer additions like Adani from MNCs like Maruti Suzuki to start-ups in Bangalore and Gurgaon, the book explores key learnings from all four kinds of companies in an Indian context and provides useful insights into how business is done in India.
