What Work Is Poems Philip Levine:

New Selected Poems of Philip Levine Philip Levine, 2011-09-07 LIGHTS I HAVE SEEN BEFORE The children are off somewhere and when I waken I hear only the buzz of current in the TV and the refrigerator groaning against the coming day I rise and wash there is nothing to think of except the insistent push of water and the pipe s What Work Is Philip Levine, 2011-08-31 Winner of the National Book Award in 1991 This collection amounts to a hymn of praise for all the workers of America These proletarian heroes with names like Lonnie Loo Sweet Pea and Packy work the furnaces forges slag heaps assembly lines and loading docks at places with unglamorous names like Brass Craft or Feinberg and Breslin s First Rate Plumbing and Plating Only Studs Terkel s Working approaches the pathos and beauty of this book But Levine s characters are also significant for their inner lives not merely their jobs They are unusually artistic living at the borders of dreams One reads The Tempest slowly to himself another ponders a diagonal chalk line drawn by his teacher to suggest a triangle the roof of a barn or the mysterious separation of the dark from the dark What Work Is ranks as a major work by a major poet very accessible and utterly American in tone and language Daniel L Guillory Library Journal One for the Rose Philip Levine, 1981 What Work is Philip Levine, 1991 Collection of poetry in praise of those men and women who work at many diverse jobs Breath Philip Levine, 2006-01-17 Always a poet of memory and invention Philip Levine looks back at his own life as well as the adventures of his ancestors his relatives and his friends and at their rites of passage into an America of victories and betrayals He transports us back to the street where he was born early in the final industrial century to help us envision an America he s known from the 1930s to the present His subjects include his brothers a great uncle who gave up on America and returned to czarist Russia a father who survived unspeakable losses the artists and musicians who inspired him and fellow workers at the factory who shared the best and worst of his coming of age Throughout the collection Levine rejoices in song Dinah Washington wailing from a jukebox in midtown Manhattan Della Daubien hymning on the crosstown streetcar Max Roach and Clifford Brown at a forgotten Detroit jazz palace the prayers offered to God by an immigrant uncle dreaming of the Judean hills the hoarse notes of a factory worker who completing another late shift serenades the sleeping streets Like all of Levine s poems these are a testament to the durability of love the strength of the human spirit the persistence of life in the presence of the coming dark The Mercy Philip Levine, 1999 Philip Levine s new collection of poems his first since The Simple Truth was awarded the Pulitzer Prize is a book of journeys the necessary ones that each of us takes from innocence to experience from youth to age from confusion to clarity from sanity to madness and back again from life to death and occasionally from defeat to triumph The book s mood is best captured in the closing lines of the title poem which takes its name from the ship that brought the poet s mother to America A nine year old girl travels all night by train with one suitcase and an orange She learns that mercy is something you can eat again and again while the juice spills over your chin you can wipe it away with the back of your hands and you can never get enough The Last Shift Philip

Levine, 2016 The final collection of new poems from one of our finest and most beloved poets The poems in this wonderful collection touch all of the events and places that meant the most to Philip Levine There are lyrical poems about his family and childhood the magic of nighttime and the power of dreaming tough poems about the heavy shift work at Detroit's auto plants the Nazis and bosses of all kinds telling poems about his heroes jazz players artists and working people of every description even children Other poems celebrate places and things he loved the gifts of winter dawn a wall in Naples an English hilltop Andalusia And he makes peace with Detroit Slow learner that I am it took me one night to discover that rain in New York City is just like rain in Detroit It gets you wet It is a peace that comes to full fruition in a moving goodbye to his home town in the final poem in the collection The Last Shift

On the Poetry of Philip Levine Philip Levine, 1990-12-31 The first critical collection to focus on Levine The Simple Truth Philip Levine, 2011-08-31 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1995 Written in a voice that moves between elegy and prayer The Simple Truth contains thirty three poems whose aim is to weave a complex tapestry of myth history both public and private family memory and invention in a search for truths so basic and universal they often escape us all Sweet Will Philip Levine, 2013-07-03 Pulitzer Prize winning poet Philip Levine published Sweet

Will his eleventh volume of poems in 1985 His last book with Atheneum it has been unavailable for many years Because of its subdued and thoughtful nature it was seen as a transitional book for Levine one that presaged the tone of much that was to come Peter Stitt writing in the Kenyon Review called it the quietest book that Philip Levine has ever written concluding that though the river that glides through it is still on the surface the sweetness of its will runs deep indeed And Dave Smith writing in Poetry delighted in the poems of emergent tenderness and faith and claimed that linking himself to Wordsworth who loved this world uncommonly in uncommon poetry Philip Levine has lifted his moral tale to the level of joyful celebration The poems in Sweet Will are set in Detroit California New York Europe and the country of memory Their aim is to bring the overlooked events of daily life into a sharper focus that transcends the ordinary At the time of its original publication the book was seen as an attempt to bring together the themes and methods of Levine's early groundbreaking work the anger of They Feed They Lion the family concerns of 1933 the characters of The Names of the Lost and the hopes of One for the Rose Yet it is clearly a mid career book composed by a poet who can begin to look back in tranquility at a tempestuous life The poems including the long meditation of more than five hundred lines A Poem with No Ending are beautiful and essential Restored to print they will resonate with readers who love both the earlier and the later work of one of our most important poets Unselected Poems Philip Levine, 1997 For over 30 years now readers of contemporary poetry have known Levine's work for its elegiac narrative its forceful rhythms and rhetoric and its Vivas praising the dignity of the human spirit With Unselected Poems he rescues many of his best earlier poems and offers a selection of stunning new and uncollected work Christopher Buckley His poems are about endurance in all its senses and that is their affirmation They are about the kind of courage people have when courage fails In short they are such poems as possess beyond their technical strength and emotional urgency a kind of necessity whatever it is the truth must exist for all our sakes Hayden Carruth Bookletter

They Feed They Lion Philip Levine, 1972 New Selected Poems Philip Levine, 1991 Includes selections from the poet's latest works Sweet will and A walk with Tom Jefferson My Lost Poets Philip Levine, 2018-04-03 Now in paperback essays speeches and journal entries from one of our most admired and best loved poets that illuminate how he came to understand himself as a poet the events and people that he wrote about and the older poets who influenced him In prose both as superbly rendered as his poetry and as down to earth and easy as speaking Levine reveals the things that made him the poet he became In the title essay originally the final speech of his poet laureate year he recounts how as a boy he composed little speeches walking in the night woods near his house and how he later realized these were his first poems He wittily takes on the poets he studied with in the Iowa Writers Workshop John Berryman who was his great teacher and lifelong friend and Robert Lowell who was neither His deepest influences jazz Spain the working people of Detroit are reflected in many of the pieces There are essays on the Spanish poets he admires on William Carlos Williams Wordsworth Keats and others A wonderful moving collection of writings that add to our knowledge and appreciation of Philip Levine both the man and the poet The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 8, Poetry and Criticism, 1940-1995 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994 Multi volume history of American literature The Bread of Time Philip Levine, 2001 An extraordinary memoir from one of our most celebrated poets Selected Poems Philip Levine, 1984-01-01 News of the World Philip Levine, 2011-02-15 A superb new collection from a great American poet still at work on his almost song of himself The New York Times Book Review In both lively prose poems and more formal verse Philip Levine brings us news from everywhere from Detroit where exhausted workers try to find a decent breakfast after the late shift and Henry Ford supremely bored in his mansion clocks in at one of his plants from Spain where a woman sings a song that rises at dawn like the dust of ages through an open window from Andorra where an old Communist can now supply you with anything you want a French radio a Cadillac or if you have a week an American film star The world of his poetry is one of questionable magic a typist lives for her only son who will die in a war to come three boys fish in a river while a fine industrial residue falls on their shoulders This is a haunted world in which exotic animals travel first class an immigrant worker in Detroit yearns for the silence of his Siberian exile and the Western mountains maintain that huge silence we think of as divine A rich deeply felt collection from one of our master poets The Simple Truth Philip Levine, 1996-06-25 Don't Ask Philip Levine, 1981 Interviews with the poet Philip Levine on the subject of his poetry
