writing for students teachers and all those who consider writing is important and fun It is based on the author s own experience of teaching English writing to undergraduates who major in English and training students to participate in provincial and national English writing contests Instead of showing the skeleton of writing to readers directly the author integrates the 4MAT Process Approach that she has developed on the basis of the 4MAT learning style and the Process Approach into the design of the book aiming to increase learners motivation by answering why they should learn what they should learn how they should apply what they have learnt and what if the situation changes in each chapter With corpora news and students work as resources to collect sample sentences paragraphs and essays the author elaborates eight main aspects which are writing process writing a paragraph writing an essay methods of paragraph development types of clause types of sentence rhetorical devices paraphrase and summary English Writing Development 4MAT Learning Style and Thinking Visualization Strategies is not only the ideal English writing textbook for students at different levels but also functions equally well as a self tutoring textbook The simple reader friendly explanations coupled with interesting and meaningful examples figures tables and the checklists are of great help for the learners to make progress on their own Armed with the strategies elaborated in the book learners most probably will find that WRITING IS FUN English

Equation Stephanie Plain Potter,2022-07-28 One plus two equals three is strictly a math concept right The English Equation disagrees It is the idea that English contains different equations to produce designed results The English Equation provides ways to teach and help individuals with the strategies to comprehend and analyze reading passages master reading concepts develop well constructed sentences and paragraphs even learn ways to enjoy writing regardless of the academic level It takes the guessing game out of English and opens the door to mastery The activities will reinforce the idea and challenge thinking Since this book is called English Equation it will only equal success Composition and Grammar ENC1101 Editorial Board,2022-06-15 We live in a world of words The way we interact with our fellow humans is very often based on the language that always surrounds us whether it be the messages we send the news we read or the assignments we complete in classes that give us the education intended to lead us to success What might be the best way to navigate the complexity of language especially in a first year composition course This book addresses these issues by presenting lessons examples and student samples through an approach that is friendly conversational and realistic Created by actual instructors of composition at HCC this book includes many resources to guide composition students of different skill levels In depth overviews of reading writing and revising Engaging exercises that anticipate and address the most common errors of writers Actual student samples that provide the basis of class discussions and analysis With guidance that includes both theory and practice Composition and Grammar for HCC by HCC provides students with the skills they need for their educational goals their careers and their lives DIESEL (Developing Industrial Engineering Study through English Language)

Hidayet Tuncay,2023-01-08 The DIESEL Developing Industrial Engineering Study through English Language is an integrated skill based professional English textbook that is specifically designed to help Industrial Engineering freshman year students to learn and master technical vocabulary and terminology in such a specific field The book will also enable the students to understand the technical texts written in English English for Specific Special Purposes ESP is a complex field in English Language Teaching ELT because in most specific areas such as engineering it is sometimes hard to find literary texts and to study them for the purpose of promoting ELT among the university students This study requires the mastery of a vast range of technical vocabulary as well The students who are going to study ESP in their own field are expected to have at least pre intermediate level of English prior to start ESP training However the purpose of ESP in this book is not only present the technical vocabulary but helping them to have the habit of reading in their fields as well In English Language Teaching the learners are expected to master the technical vocabulary and language skills that are thought to be necessary for the success in their professional field We believe that the textbook DIESEL will solve some of the problems that they might encounter in their professional lives as Industrial Engineers in the coming years ahead This textbook of course is not the only source to master in fact this study will help students to understand their courses better in their department as well As a matter of fact the main aim behind this study is to motivate students to read and study their original texts and books in their engineering field It is a very common saying that the more one reads the better s he understands and acquires the knowledge What is aimed at designing such a book is not to teach the Industrial Engineering to the students but to teach them how to acquire advanced technical English through ESP terminology

Handbook of Reading Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen, Richard L. Allington, 2010-09-17 Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds all keyed to individual developmental needs it addresses traditional questions What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities How are reading disabilities assessed How should reading disabilities be remediated To what extent is remediation possible but from multiple or alternative perspectives Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms as well as psychological and educational research the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language to poverty and prejudice and to instruction and schooling The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers

Developing Chinese EFL Learners' Generic Competence Liming Deng, Qiujin Chen, Yanyan Zhang, 2014-05-28 This work investigates the development of English as a Foreign Language EFL learners generic competence in reading writing and translation within the particular Chinese classroom context It provides a new perspective for the current teaching and research in reading writing translation within the EFL contexts and offers an insightful framework for pedagogical applications in language learning and teaching Its findings will be extremely valuable not only in local situations but also more generally in a wider regional and global context as well. The book employs a series of research tools including pre research and post research questionnaires pre test and post test of reading writing translation multi faceted writing portfolios including reflection reports textual analysis and in depth interviews. It involves 209 participants from a primary university in Wuhan among whom 171 are undergraduates and 38 are postgraduates. And it draws on the analysis of such varied multi sourced data both qualitatively and quantitatively. Genre based teaching is playing a critical role in initiating EFL learners into the discourse community of the target language. Developing EFL learners generic competence is viewed as the ultimate goal in the process of teaching and learning. This monograph effectively demonstrates that like genre based English for Specific Purposes ESP pedagogies it is also possible to take advantage of already acquired genre knowledge for use in EFL learning contexts. It offers an impressive view of the direction in which genre based applications are likely to take in the coming years.

An Introduction to Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students Dr Julius Nang Kum , An Introduction to the Advanced Academic Argumentative Writing Approach for High School and Undergraduate Students. This long awaited textbook examines the knowledge making genre or the argumentative writing at the advanced stage. It provides students with an insightful and a coherent picture of the academic argumentative essay which is a training tool for knowledge making for most convincing writings. The book is divided into six chapters. Chapter one highlights some key pragmatic features which are very necessary for most successful students in the academic world. Chapter two focuses on the writing skills and some advantages of being a good writer. The remaining chapters identify the actual definition of an academic argumentative writing and also highlight the components of the introduction section the body section and the conclusion section of the knowledge constructing genre. The book would be appropriate as a training tool for the writing skills of many advanced and undergraduate students. We hope that high school and undergraduate students would find the book very interesting and vital for their advanced argumentative writings and some related convincing writings in other fields.
