When We Were Orphans English Edition:

When We Were Orphans Kazuo Ishiguro, 2001-01-16 From the winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature and author of the Booker Prize winning novel The Remains of the Day comes this stunning work of soaring imagination Born in early twentieth century Shanghai Banks was orphaned at the age of nine after the separate disappearances of his parents Now more than twenty years later he is a celebrated figure in London society yet the investigative expertise that has garnered him fame has done little to illuminate the circumstances of his parents alleged kidnappings Banks travels to the seething labyrinthine city of his memory in hopes of solving the mystery of his own painful past only to find that war is ravaging Shanghai beyond recognition and that his own recollections are proving as difficult to trust as the people around him Masterful suspenseful and psychologically acute When We Were Orphans offers a profound meditation on the shifting quality of memory and the possibility of avenging one s past English Fiction Since 1984 B. Finney, 2006-10-10 This book focuses on representative novels by eleven key English novelists who have broken from the realist novel of the post Second World War period They have reacted to the Thatcherite revolution that thrust Britain into the modern world of multi national capitalism by giving unusual fictional shape to the impact of global events and culture The Cambridge Companion to Kazuo Ishiguro Andrew Bennett, 2023-03-23 The Cambridge Companion to Kazuo Ishiguro offers an accessible introduction to key aspects of the novelist's remarkable body of work The volume addresses Ishiguro's engagement with fundamental questions of humanity and personal responsibility with aesthetic value and political valency with the vicissitudes of memory and historical documentation and with questions of family home and homelessness Focused through the personal experiences of some of the most memorable characters in contemporary fiction Ishiguro's writing speaks to the major communitarian questions of our time questions of nationalism and colonialism race and ethnicity migration war and cultural memory and social justice The chapters attend to Ishiguro's highly readable novels while also ranging across his other creative output Gathering together established and emerging scholars from the UK Europe the USA and East Asia the volume offers a survey of key works and themes while also moving critical discussion forward in new and challenging ways Kazuo Ishiguro Wai-chew Sim, 2009-10-16 Kazuo Ishiguro s writing has rapidly gained global recognition since his first publication in 1981 This guidebook offers a biographical survey of Ishiguro's literary career an introduction to his novels plays and short stories as well as an accessible overview of the contexts and many interpretations of his work Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series this volume cross references thoroughly between sections and presents useful suggestions for further reading The 2000s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley, Nick Hubble, Leigh Wilson, 2015-10-22 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 2000s shape contemporary British fiction The means of publishing buying and reading fiction changed dramatically between 2000 and 2010 This volume explores how the socio political and economic turns of the decade bookended by the beginning of a millennium and an economic crisis transformed the act of writing and reading Through consideration of among other things the treatment of neuroscience violence the historical and youth subcultures in recent fiction the essays in this collection explore the complex and still powerful relation between the novel and the world in which it is written published and read This major literary assessment of the fiction of the 2000s covers the work of newer voices such as Monica Ali Mark Haddon Tom McCarthy David Peace and Zadie Smith as well as those more established such as Salman Rushdie Hilary Mantel and Ian McEwan making it an essential contribution to reading defining and understanding the decade Revisiting Loss Wojciech Drag, 2014-07-03 Loss is the core experience which determines the identity of Kazuo Ishiguro's narrators and shapes their subsequent lives Whether a traumatic ordeal an act of social degradation a failed relationship or a loss of home the painful event serves as a sharp dividing line between the earlier meaningful past and the period afterwards which is infused with a sense of lack dissatisfaction and nostalgia Ishiguro s narrators have been unable to confine their loss to the past and remain preoccupied by its legacy which ranges from suppressed guilt to a keen sense of failure or disappointment Their immersion in the past finds expression in the narratives which they weave in order to articulate justify or merely understand their experiences Their reconstructions of the past are interpreted as exercises in misremembering and self deception which enable them to sustain their illusions and save them from despair Revisiting Loss is the first book length study of memory encompassing Ishiguro s entire novelistic output It adopts a highly interdisciplinary approach combining a selection of philosophical Jacques Derrida Paul Ricoeur and Jean Starobinski and psychological perspectives Sigmund Freud Frederic Bartlett Jacques Lacan and Daniel L Schacter The book offers a thoroughly researched critical survey drawing on all published critical monographs and collections of academic articles on Ishiguro s work Writing in an Age of Silence Sara Paretsky, 2009-05-05 A revealing look at the power of speaking out Writing in an Age of Silence describes Paretski's coming of age in a time of great possibility during the civil rights movement the peace movement and the women's movement Bestselling crime writer Sarah Paretsky has won critical acclaim for her V I Warshawski novels centered around one of the first and most popular female investigators in contemporary fiction In this fascinating and personal account Paretsky describes a life shaped by the desire to act From the feminist movement which triggered her aspirations to write and shaped the character of her female detective to the Patriot Act and the liberties we have lost Paretsky describes the struggle of one individual to find a voice A moving call to action Writing in an Age of Silence chronicles the social changes that have shaped contemporary America and mirrors a desire for freedom both personal and political that many Americans will relate to today Kazuo Ishiguro in a Global Context Cynthia F. Wong, Hülya Y?ld?z, 2016-03-09 Bringing together an international group of scholars this collection offers a fresh assessment of Kazuo Ishiguro s evolving significance as a contemporary world author The contributors take on a range of the aesthetic and philosophical themes that characterize Ishiguro s work including his exploration of the self family and community his narrative constructions of time and space and his assessments of the continuous and discontinuous forces of history art human psychology and cultural formations Significantly the volume attends to Ishiguro s own self identification as an international writer who has at times expressed his uneasiness with being grouped together with British novelists of his generation Taken together these rich considerations of Ishiguro's work attest to his stature as a writer who continues to fascinate cultural and textual critics from around the world Return to the Scene of the Crime Kamil Naicker, 2023-12-01 A crime novel at once disturbing and perversely comforting factually has been known to curtail social anxieties through the open and shut case of its narrative form But what happens to that form in a world where guilt and innocence are not easily assigned Return to the Scene of the Crime takes place on the trope of an investigator returning to the post colony on a quest for knowledge In tandem with solving the case they must also grapple with the complexities of their origins Kamil Naicker shows how five authors defy generic expectations to illustrate the complexities of personal identity transitional justice and civil violence in the post colonial world Congregating novels set in South Africa China Guatemala Sri Lanka and Somalia this book intervenes in literary studies by bringing the trend of the returnee figure and exploring the possibilities of world making through the explosion of a familiar form Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Kazuo Ishiguro Sean Matthews, Sebastian Groes, 2010-01-28 Kazuo Ishiguro is one of the finest and most Africa accomplished contemporary writers of his generation The short story author television writer and novelist included twice in Granta's list of Best Young British Writers has over the past twenty five years produced a body of work which is just as critically acclaimed as it is popular with the general public Like the writings of Ian McEwan Kazuo Ishiguro s work is concerned with creating discursive platforms for issues of class ethics ethnicity nationhood place gender and the uses and problems surrounding artistic representation As a Japanese immigrant who came to Great Britain in 1960 Ishiguro has used his unique position and fine intellectual abilities to contemplate what it means to be British in the contemporary era This guide traces the main themes throughout Ishiguro's writing whilst it also pays attention to his short stories and writing for television It includes a new interview with the author a preface by Haruki Murakami and discussion of James Ivory s adaptation of The Remains of the Day Diasporic Literature and Theory - Where Now? Mark Shackleton, 2009-03-26 The theoretical innovations of Edward Said Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak Stuart Hall Paul Gilroy James Clifford and others have in recent years vitalized postcolonial and diaspora studies challenging ways in which we understand culture and developing new ways of thinking beyond the confines of the nation state The articles in this volume look at recent developments in diasporic literature and theory alluding to the work of seminal diaspora theoreticians but also interrogating such thinkers in the light of recent cultural production including literature film and visual art as well as recent world events The articles are organized in pairs offering alternative perspectives on crucial aspects of diaspora theory today Celebration or Melancholy Gender Biases and the Canon of Diasporic Literature Diasporas of Violence and Terror Time Place and Diasporic Home and Border Crossings A number of the articles are illustrated by discussions of particular authors such as Caryl Phillips Salman Rushdie and Michael Ondaatje and the range of reference found in this volume covers writing from many parts of the world including contemporary Chicana visual art Asian diaspora writers and Black British Afro Caribbean Native North American and African writing Revealing/Reveiling Shanghai Lisa Bernstein, Chu-chueh Cheng, 2020-07-01 Examines Shanghai both as a real city and an imaginary locale from diverse cultural and disciplinary perspectives Postcolonial Postmortems ,2006-01-01 Recent crime fiction increasingly transcends national boundaries with investigators operating across countries and continents Frequently the detective is a migrant or comes from a transcultural background To solve the crime the investigator is called upon to decipher the meaning s hidden in clues and testimonies that require transcultural forms of understanding For the reader the investigation discloses new interpretive methods and processes of social investigation often challenging facile interpretations of the postcolonial world order Under the rubric postcolonial postmortems this collection of essays seeks to explore the tropes issues and themes that characterise this emergent form of crime fiction But what does the postcolonial bring to the genre apart from the well known and valid discourses of resistance subversion and ethnicity And why postmortems A dissection and medical examination of a body to determine the cause of death the postmortem of the postcolonial not only alludes to the investigation of the victim's remains but also to the body of the individual text and its contexts This collection interrogates literary concepts of postcoloniality and crime from transcultural perspectives in the attempt to offer new critical impulses to the study of crime fiction and postcolonial literatures International scholars offer insights into the postcolonial postmortems of a wide range of texts by authors from Africa South Asia the Asian and African Diaspora and Australia including Robert G Barrett Unity Dow Wessel Ebersohn Romesh Gunesekera Kazuo Ishiguro Sujata Massey Alexander McCall Smith and Michael Ondaatje Crossroads in Literature and Culture Jacek Fabiszak, Ewa Urbaniak-Rybicka, Bartosz Wolski, 2012-11-05 The book contains a selection of papers focusing on the idea of crossing boundaries in literary and cultural texts composed in English The authors come from different methodological schools and analyse texts coming from different periods and cultures trying to find common ground the theme of the volume between the apparently generically and temporarily varied works and phenomena In this way a plethora of perspectives is offered perspectives which represent a high standard both in terms of theoretical reflection and in depth analysis of selected texts Consequently the volume is addressed to a wide scope of both scholars and students working in the field of English and American literary and cultural studies furthermore it will be of interest also to students interested in theoretical issues linked with investigations into literature and culture Fodor's Shanghai Inc.
